Most Holy Trinity Sunday

Dear Parishioner,

Before I share with you some reflections on Father's Day, I just wanted to inform you of the status of one of our beloved staff members, Sr. Rosaline Walters, O.S.F. Sister Rosaline had a fall that required she travel up to Syracuse to her Mother House for medical treatment and physical therapy. She is being cared for by her loving Sisters and is presently residing at one of their Sisters residences. Keep Sister Rosaline in your prayers for a speedy recovery. So many have been asking for Sister Rosaline's address, that I thought it best to publish it in our parish bulletin. For those who would like to send Sister a get well wish or send a letter of encouragement, the address is:

Sr. Rosaline Walters, O.S.F.
Sisters of St. Francis
6900 Buckley Road
Syracuse, N.Y. 13212

As we celebrate Father's Day this year I would like to share with you some sage advice for fathers culled from a book, "Journey to Heaven: A Road Map for Catholic Men," penned by Randy Hain. After looking back at his own upbringing by his dad and reflecting on many conversations with other Catholic dads, he posits the following recommendations for Catholic dads to ponder.

Surrender. We have to surrender on an ongoing basis to Christ for his will to be done in our lives. Guys, we are not in charge...as much as we want to be! St. Ignatius of Loyola once said, "Few souls understand what God would accomplish in them if they were to abandon themselves unreservedly to him and if they were to allow his grace to mold them accordingly."

Be a Man of Prayer. Our children will be much more likely to pray if we do. Work on developing a daily prayer routine with the goal of at least an hour a day devoted to prayer. Sound difficult? Think about how much TV we watch a day or answering email. Consider how much time we spend in our cars each day and how much time we devote to exercise. We have more than enough time for prayer if we schedule it and integrate it into our day.

Understand Our True Vocation. For those of us blessed to be married and have children, we must recognize that helping our families get to heaven and being good husbands and fathers – not our business careers – is our real vocation. Ask yourself, "Is my work serving my family? Or is my family serving my work?"

Invest Time. Our children need our time. Put down the smartphone; turn off the TV; cancel the golf outing. Let's spend more time with our kids! In the absence of a father's time with his family, you can bet there are countless bad influences ready to take his place and guide his children in the wrong direction.

Be Courageous. Christians are meant to stand out, not blend in. Blending in speaks to conforming so that our faith becomes part of the mainstream...and we need to fight the culture.

Practice Detachment. Are we too focused on acquiring toys, bigger houses, nicer cars or the next promotion? We need to let go of the things that are in the way of our prayer lives, Mass attendance, charitable giving, volunteering, time with our families and certainly our relationship with Christ.

Love Our Wives. Husbands, we must love and cherish our wives, plain and simple. Our children will learn to love others by how they see Mom and Dad love each other. We need to say, "I love you" to our wives and our children as often as possible. Let's show our wives respect and cherish the critical role they play in our families.

Sounds like great advice to me! Happy Father's Day to all our Dads!

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

Stewardship Generosity

"Because there is one bread, we who are many are on body for we all partake of the one bread."

As disciples of Jesus, we are called to lead holy lives and invite others to join us. Living a Stewardship lifestyle, being grateful and generous with our gifts, serves a two-fold purpose. One, it helps build God's kingdom here on earth. Two, it is a road map to Heaven. Let's help each other get there.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal. Your support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Our parish goal is $148,799.00 of which we have received $46,750.00.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, July 22, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebración del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

South Jersey Catholic School students set to lose critical funding in 2017-18

Are You a Taxpayer?

Students in Catholic schools save New Jersey taxpayers millions of dollars annually. Each child who leaves a Catholic school and moves to public school costs taxpayers an average $19,000 a year. So it's in all our best interest to help keep students in our Catholic schools.

Governor Christie has proposed flat or reduced funding for non-public school students in the 2017-18 school year. In his plan, the per-student allotment for bus transportation will remain $884 – an amount that has not changed in 10 years. Every year, students are forced to leave our schools because of transportation challenges. Also, funding for school nurses and technology will be reduced, and funding for non-public school security will be eliminated altogether.

An Easy Way to Take Action

We are asking for equitable distribution of funds for expenses that affect all students, no matter where they go to school.

Please go to <https://njcatholic.org/faith-in-action> and ask your representatives to reach out to their counterparts who serve on the Budget and Appropriations committees. The text is already prepared for you to sign and send online.

As a taxpayer, your voice matters, regardless of whether you have children in Catholic schools. Thank you for making sure your voice is heard.

RESURRECTION CEMETERY | SERVING CAPE MAY COUNTY

Centrally located in the heart of Cape May County on Kings Highway in Dennis Township, Resurrection Cemetery offers traditional ground burials as well as granite niches for cremated remains. Family traditions are a vital part of everyday life and these traditions are one way to help hold your family close, even after you pass. Choose Resurrection Cemetery and start a new family tradition. Also, consider the benefits of pre-planning – significant savings, best selection and peace of mind. Call 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) or visit us at SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org.

PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS THOSE WHO ARE ILL-

Children's Liturgy of the Mass

Each Sunday, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass at St. Ann Church we have the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Just before the readings during the Liturgy children (ages 3 to 12) are asked to come forward by the celebrant. The children and their catechist are blessed and sent forth to hear the readings of the day in language on their level. This allows the children to have a faith-building experience they are able to relate to in their own lives. Children are welcome to come and be a part of this experience but no one is obligated to attend. The choice to take part or not is always to be made by the parents. If you would like further information or would like to help with this parish ministry please call AnnaMae in the parish office at 609-522-2709 x218.

Small group discussion about Sacred Heart Devotions

June 20, 2017—at Kelly Hall at 6:00 p.m. come and be a part of the discussion about Devotions to the Sacred Heart.

The discussion will take place around coffee, sweets and good Catholic believe and faith among friends.
