Message from Thomas Piro - Seminarian

Dear Parishioners,

I hope your summer is off to a good start! The weather is getting warmer and the Covid mandates are being lifted. Praise God for some sort of normalcy! June is typically a time for transitions. Some priests in our diocese will be receiving new assignments; 8th graders will be getting ready for high school; high school seniors for college and college seniors getting ready for the “real world” (well, at least most college students will be).

This past May, I graduated from Seton Hall and the College Seminary. This means that I completed my first four years of seminary formation and have another four more to go until ordination, God willing. It is insane how fast these four years have gone by! After completing the college seminary, seminarians are sent to the major seminary to study graduate-level theology and receive practicum classes for liturgy and ministering the sacraments. Towards the end of the academic year, I received word from our vocation director that Bishop Sullivan has decided on which seminary I will be attending. This August, I will be attending St. Joseph Seminary in Yonkers, NY!

St. Joseph Seminary, commonly referred to as simply “Dunwoodie” because of its location in the Dunwoodie section of Yonkers, is the major seminary for several dioceses in New York. It was the major seminary for the Archdiocese of New York and was founded in 1896. Bishop Bartholomew Eustace, the first bishop of Camden, attended Dunwoodie as a young man before being sent to Rome for theological studies. He eventually became the liturgy and philosophy professor at Dunwoodie. Bishop George Guilfoyle, the fourth bishop of Camden, graduated from St. Joseph Seminary and the eighth and current bishop of Camden, Bishop Dennis Sullivan, is a graduate of Dunwoodie. Although New York may seem like an odd place to send someone from South Jersey, St. Joseph Seminary has had some influence within our diocese through our bishops.

When I found out about the news, all I could think about was how blessed I am to attend St. Joseph Seminary during the year of St. Joseph! I am excited to continue this journey to the priesthood, and I thank everyone for their prayers and support for me these past four years. As I begin this new transition, I ask you to continue to keep me in your prayers, and please pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, especially from our parish.

God bless,

Tom Piro

Sanctuary Lamp St Ann: Intentions of the Parishioners

Sanctuary Lamp Assumption: Special Intention r/b Mom & Dad

Reading I: Job 38:1, 8-11

God has made the heavens and the earth.

- The author of Job uses the image of a whirling storm to portray God speaking.
- Job does not understand why terrible things have happened to him.
- Through the questions God asks Job about control of the sea, Job realizes that God is in control.

Reading II: 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Now all is new in Christ.

- In 2 Corinthians, Paul preaches the wonderful news of the new creation.
- Paul stresses that Christ is a new creation, as are all who believe in him.
- Christ's resurrection is the final defeat of death.

Gospel: Mark 4:35-41

Be still.

- The might of the sea is used in today's Gospel to show Jesus acting in the power of God.
- After Jesus calms the storm and the sea, the disciples are astonished.
- In Jesus, God brings the new creation to birth and defeats the powers of sin and death.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Jesus told the sea to "quiet" and "be still," and it was. What storms do you need Jesus to calm for you?
- Have a family discussion about major storms that have occurred in the United States, and their locations. Find a time to pray together. Pray for those affected by major storms.
- Read today's Gospel, Mark 4:35-41, with your family. Talk about how you would have felt if you were with Jesus and the disciples during the storm. Make a poster for your refrigerator. On the poster, draw a boat and have each person in the family write his or her name on the boat. At the bottom of the poster, put this caption: "Where two or three are gathered together, there am I in their midst."

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

A Prayer for Fathers

Heavenly Father,
you entrusted your Son Jesus,
the child of Mary,
to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
Bless all fathers
as they care for their families.
Give them strength and wisdom,
tenderness and patience;
support them in the work they have to do,
protecting those who look to them,
as we look to you for love and salvation,
through Jesus Christ our rock and defender.

Amen.

Your House of Charity gift helps our young men and our seminarians to become "men of prayer", helps guide them as they discern if they are called and then helps prepare them to stand "in the person of Christ" and serve their bride, the Church, through their preaching and teaching and most of all by celebrating the Sacraments.

Ways to be a Father like St. Joseph

St. Joseph has long been seen as a role model for husbands and fathers. This is surprising for some people to learn. After all, Jesus' true father is God the Father, and Joseph served as His foster father during His earthly ministry. Yet, despite Joseph's unconventional fatherhood, this holy man proved to be the best role model that husbands and fathers could ask for. This Father's Day, if you are a father, we invite you to follow Joseph's example of fatherhood in the following ways. If you are not a father, we ask you to join us in lifting up in prayer all those who fill the role of father.

Practice Humility: What does this mean for fathers? It does not mean that fathers should take a lesser role in the lives of their families. On the contrary, we can infer that Joseph was an extremely devoted and involved parent in Jesus' life. What it does mean, however, is that fathers can emulate Joseph's humility. Joseph understood that he was given a special role in salvation history, namely, raising Jesus and protecting his family. Instead of looking for attention or rewards for this huge responsibility, he quietly accepted it and put in every effort to fulfill his role.

Be Faithful: Joseph lived exactly the kind of faithfulness that God asked of him. Though this probably wasn't easy, he likely drew his strength and commitment from his devotion to God and his true love and respect for Mary.

Teach Your Children: Joseph showed true investment in Jesus' life by putting so much time and effort into teaching Him a trade. Fathers today should put in just as much effort to teach their children to earn a livelihood, understand the value of hard work, and put their God-given skills to use.

Use your gifts to strengthen your family: Joseph's foster son was fully God and fully man. His wife was born without original sin. He could have given up with the knowledge that he could never match either Jesus' or Mary's level of holiness. But Joseph did not do that. Instead, he took the hand he was dealt and figured out what he could do with it. God provided Joseph with the gifts he needed to protect and provide for his family. These included his skills as a worker, his humility, and his dedication to loving both Jesus and Mary deeply.

Like Joseph, fathers can identify the gifts God has given them and use those gifts in a way that best serves their families. All men will not have the same gifts or abilities. But by careful reflection and honest spousal partnership, fathers can discern how they are called to serve their families.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

PREP

Registration is open for the 2021-2022 school year.
Summer Intensive or School Year program

A late fee of $20 will be charged after June 15 for SI and 9/30 for SY due to books needing to be shipped.

Please register for Summer
Intensive ASAP to assure a spot.
This year there will be a late fee
after 6/15

PREP CLASSES

SCHOOL YEAR: Classes will be held on Sundays
9 -10:10 a.m. With the class being off the last Sunday of the month.

SUMMER INTENSIVE: Classes are held daily from 8:30 a.m. to noon, July 26 to Aug. 6. Classes are held at WCA building.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments.
Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent
meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STU-DENTS: All students are required to do six (6)
Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or mass. Notre Dame de la Mer will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may chose to do events outside our parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

12º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Entonces Él les preguntó, ¿“Por qué están aterradizados”? ¿Es que todavía no tienen fe?”

Marcos 4:40

¿Realmente confía en Dios? ¿Es Dios su primera opción o su último recurso? ¿Es su fe algo que solo practica los Domingos o usted vive el mensaje del Evangelio cada día de la semana? Muchos de nosotros conocemos acerca de Dios. ¿Cuántos de nosotros tenemos una relación personal con Él? Comience ahora, abra su corazón para recibir a nuestro Señor. Hable con Él y escúchelo durante el día, en cualquier circunstancia.

Padrinos y Madrinas

Para los Sacramentos de Bautismo, Confirmación y Matrimonio los padrinos y madrinas deben ser casados por la Iglesia (si son casados). Católicos solteros, también pueden ser padrinos y madrinas.

CONFESIONES:

Todos los domingos de 6 a 6:45pm antes de la misa.

Matrimonio/ Matrimony

Pasos para proceder:

1. Desear amarse para toda la vida.
2. Conversen con el Padre Steven Pinzon o con Sister Anne Lafferty IHM y/o en la Oficina Parroquial (La Oficina está ubicada en el Colegio de Wildwood Catholic Academy)
609-522-2709
3. Vengan 1 año antes para hablar de la fecha y las fechas para las charlas.
4. Aunque no tengan una fecha sería bueno participar en las charlas y tener su certificado listo.

Charlas Pre Matrimoniales:

Las Fechas son: lunes 17 de mayo y martes 18 de mayo,
lunes 7 de junio y jueves 10 de junio

Estas charlas son necesarias para casarse en la Iglesia, después de terminar el ciclo de charlas se les entrega el certificado necesario para registrarse en la parroquia y poner la fecha de su boda. Aunque su matrimonio no sea pronto sería bueno hacer las charlas ahora, no se van a dar de nuevo hasta octubre. Acercase a Sister Ana para más información y para contestar las preguntas que tengan. ¡Muchas gracias!
