Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.
El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos
como hijos de Dios

Dear Friends,

It came to us as quietly as a cat's paws on carpet, and minus any warning. They called it "Corona," and later more technically as "Covid 19." Either way, we just called it "the virus." It truly is "an invisible enemy," both to our bodies and minds. Chief among our latter reactions has been fear. Despite our so-called "victories" through mitigation and masks, that fear lingers in many minds this summer. That is because of what it could do to ourselves and those we love.

In that light, I ask you, could there be any more appropriate Gospel passage than the one we read and hear this weekend? True, there is a difference in time and meaning between the original setting and now. Our Lord wanted to take the fear out of the Apostles' hearts as they faced their brand new task of preaching. That job would be very frightening for most people, but especially for uneducated fishermen who never had to do it. They knew that the very message Our Lord wanted them to convey might involve their own deaths if the listeners concluded it was blasphemous. They remembered that charge once being brought against their Master, who excelled at preaching.

Switch to the here and now, twenty plus centuries later, when Jesus addresses you and me as potential victims of this insidious virus. He tells us what to really fear: those who can kill the soul. We hear Him stress the point with a memorable figure: "So, with a Father who has the hairs of your head counted, do not be afraid!" (Emphasis added.)

Along with the comfort the Lord's words bring comes a serious caution worth remembering. "Whoever denies Me before others, I will deny before My heavenly Father." How would we ever deny Jesus in our ordinary lives? Consider the Catholic in a cocktail party conversation with a party goer who puts him/her on the spot with a question about abortion, and the weak Catholic answers, "Well I'm personally against it, but I wouldn't urge anyone to rethink their opinion." In a very real way, that's denying Christ. The same holds for the many other "hot button" issues where we know the Church takes an unpopular stance.

I take Our Lord's words about denying someone "before My heavenly Father" as something that will happen on Judgment Day. That obviously outranks a virus on my fear index. Yes, covid has brought changes to our lives that we might not like. Testing can be trying. Masks may be maddening. But we have a powerful and loving God who is, in the confidence of Jeremiah whose words we hear today: "The Lord is with me like a mighty champion." To that we can add a supportive quotation "There is no need to nervously pace the deck of the ship of life when the Great Pilot is at the wheel." With such conviction our fear scurries away as quietly and quickly as the virus arrived. Good riddance to both.

Weekly Readings Reflections

12th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Today's readings remind us that God watches over and protects us. Together with your family listen to the song "Be Not Afraid," by Bob Duford. (It can be downloaded from i-tunes.) Discuss: How does faith in Christ help you when you are afraid?
- Do you personally know someone who has shown courage in the face of hardship or fear? Show your support by writing a note of affirmation, or ask that person how you can help.
- Say a family prayer with petitions for people who live in frightening surroundings. Include your own intentions. Respond, "Lord, in your great love, hear our prayer."
- Sit down with your family and watch a favorite suspenseful movie. After the film, discuss ways that courage was shown or not shown in the movie. Discuss: Why are you afraid sometimes? How can you help someone who is afraid?

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !
