From the desk of Rev. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

I'd like to share a few items of information for you all in this bulletin message.

Father Tom Kiely has officially left the parish and will continue his healing process in the Cherry Hill area. He sends his gratitude and best wishes to everyone who has been praying for him and supporting him during this medically challenging time. His spirits are good and again he wishes that I communicate to all of you how blessed he felt to have been here serving in our parish.

We recently welcomed Father Chris Myers with us on June 1st. Father Chris has been a priest for three years and he has already been winning the hearts of the people here. He will be an excellent Parochial Vicar in our parish ministries and Catholic Identity Chaplain for Wildwood Catholic Academy. We wish Father Chris well as he begins his time with us.

We have also recently concluded the school year for Wildwood Catholic Academy. We are so very proud of our school as it offers an excellent academic program as well as many sports and activities, but most especially, a solid moral and Catholic foundation for students from pre-K to 12th grade. I want to thank all of you who pray for our students and for the success of our school with its many activities, and also offer my gratitude to those who financially help support our school. So many people have graduated from both our grade school and high school and have, and are, making such an amazing difference in the world. The difference is so obviously seen right here in Cape May County. We also congratulate the recent inductees into the Wildwood Catholic Academy Hall of Fame at Seaport Pier on Friday evening June 6. They are in addition to the many members we honored and inducted this time last year.

Finally, I would like to mention the upcoming Catholic Ministries / Bishop's Annual Appeal which has begun, but will be officially kicked off the weekend of June 28–29. That particular fund assists so many people who are in need, including our seminarians. We obviously are so proud of our own Father Tommy Piro, who has just begun his priestly ministry and is so grateful for the support and financial help of Catholic charities. There is a new seminarian named Sean McBride who just completed his first year in seminary. Sean and his family are parishioners of Notre Dame de le Mer and Sean was also a student of St. Ann's grammar school and Wildwood Catholic High school. We are so proud of both of them. So again, I appreciate ALL your prayerful and financial support, especially for our school and its mission, as well as the Bishops Annual Appeal. May God bless you and your family with a safe and joyful summer!

In Christ,

Father Mazz

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Genesis 14:18-20

Blessed by God most High!

- The first reading describes Melchizedek, king and priest in what would later be called Jerusalem.
- Melchizedek blessed Abraham and offered him bread and wine.
- The offering of bread and wine to Abraham relates to the Eucharistic sacrifice of the Mass.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Each time you eat this bread and drink from this cup, you proclaim the death of the Lord.

- In the passage from 1 Corinthians, Paul is scolding the wealthy members of the community for having special dinners and excluding the poor.
- The Corinthians misunderstood that their sharing in the Eucharistic meal made them one body with each other, the Body of Christ.
- Paul reminded the Corinthians that Jesus was present whenever they told the story and shared the meal.

Gospel : Luke 9:11b-17

Christ feeds us.

- Luke's version of the multiplication of the loaves and fishes has been influenced by the liturgical practices of the Christians.
- The words describing Jesus' actions reflect the telling of the Eucharistic story.
- Jesus does not feed the crowd but instructs the disciples to do so. This suggests the ministries in the Church of distributing the Eucharistic food and sharing meals with the hungry.

Family Reflection Corner

Theme: Jesus continues to offer himself to us and feed us in the Holy Eucharist.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How can you share what you have received from Jesus with others this week?

Question for Youth: Each week, when we celebrate the Holy Eucharist we are asked to "do this in remembrance of me". How else do you acknowledge the importance of Jesus in your life? Through prayer? Through the ways that you treat others?

Question for Adults: How can you prepare yourself to be nourished by Jesus in the Eucharist this week?

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn the week of June 22—June 28 in loving memory of:

St Ann: Garrigan / Lynch deceased family members r/b Bernadette Golden

Assumption: Garrigan / Lynch deceased family members r/b Bernadette Golden

"They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftover fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets." (LUKE 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn't seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each Steward has a role in God's plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else's prayer.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE REGARDING OUR PARKING LOTS

Due to the large number of church attendees that rely on parking it is imperative that you follow the directional arrows painted in each lane when using our lots. Also please pull all the way forward in the designated lanes. When you don't pull forward or decide to position yourself so you can just back out against the flow of traffic, you ultimately block the lane from being filled and limit the number of cars that can park in our lots. We do not want to bring in the "parking lot police", so please help us out by following the instructions and showing common courtesy to others. Thank you.

Your role in this is invaluable.

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is also known as the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, which translates from Latin to "Body of Christ." This feast originated in France in the mid-thirteenth century and was extended to the whole Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. This feast is celebrated on the Thursday following the Trinity Sunday or, as in the USA, on the Sunday following that feast. This feast calls us to focus on two manifestations of the Body of Christ, the Holy Eucharist and the Church. The primary purpose of this feast is to focus our attention on the Eucharist. The opening prayer at Mass calls our attention to Jesus' suffering and death and our worship of Him, especially in the Eucharist.

This year's theme: "Our Journey United in Hope" connects to the Jubilee Year, themed "Pilgrims of Hope." It reflects our commitment to walk this path together grounded in the hope and love that Christ gives us. In Spes Non Confudit* it states "During the Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind."

Our brothers and sisters include the sick, the young, the poor, the elderly, and many others. By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we provide that tangible sign of hope. Every contribution helps us build a stronger Church renewed in hope.

Saint of the Week:

Thérèse Lisieux (Little Flower), Virgin, 1873-1897

When Thérèse was very young, she wanted to serve God. She gave money to the poor because she worried about them. She entered the convent when she was fifteen years old. Thérèse wrote about serving God in little ways. She trusted God and loved him very much. Thérèse taught other sisters about God. She also wrote a book. People still read her book. People still read her book to learn how to serve God and other people. Due to her popularity and the miracles which were attributed to her soon after her death, the Holy See dispensed with the period of fifty years which ordinarily elapsed in those days before the beatification process could begin. Pope Pius XI beatified her in 1923 and declared her a saint in 1925. St. Thérèse is the patroness of all foreign missions and of all works for Russia. She is also a patroness of aviators.

Feast Day: Memorial on October 1.

Thérèse's message today: "To pick up a pin for love can convert a soul." Thérèse understood that anything we do for another in God's name is done for love. Even in doing the humblest and most mundane of chores, Thérèse was serving God in the most magnificent manner. We too should dedicate our daily tasks to God and do them with love.

- Do you go about your daily tasks with joy or do you complain about what you are asked to do?
