12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

LIVING STEWARDSHIP

“Then he asked them, ‘Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?’” – MARK 4:40

Do you really trust God? Is God your first choice or last resort? Is your faith something you just do on Sunday or do you live the Gospel message every day of the week through Stewardship? Many of us know about God. How many of us have a personal relationship with Him? Start now, open your heart to receive our Lord. Talk and listen to Him every day. Move your discipleship from head knowledge to heart knowledge.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Dear Friends,

Today I want to introduce you to Matthew Kelly and Dynamic Catholic. If his name or company doesn't sound familiar, I suggest you look them up. Matthew Kelly changed my life. Dynamic Catholic renewed my faith years ago with a book called Rediscovering Catholicism written by Matthew Kelly. Since then, they have strengthened my faith repeatedly with books and daily inspirational emails.

What I want to talk about today is his daily gospel reflections called Radical & Relevant. Radical because the concepts of Jesus' teaching were very radical at the time and relevant because these teaching are still so relevant to us today. In these short videos, that can be sent to your email, he reads the gospel of the day. While he is reading, he asks you to pick out a word or phrase that sticks out to you and reflect on it in prayer.

In today's gospel what sticks out to me is the phrase, "Do you not yet have faith?"

What is faith? Faith is the means by which believers come to God and put their trust in Him for salvation. God provides believers with the faith needed to believe in Him: "For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast" (Ephesians 2:8–9). According to one dictionary, the definition of faith is a strong belief in God or in the doctrines of a religion, based on spiritual apprehension rather than proof. I personally do not like this definition because I believe through faith, we do have proof of the existence of God. How many times have you seen God's works in your life? Sometimes it is not the outcome we want but, in the end, we know it was for the best and the outcome was just what we needed at the time.

Why then do we doubt he is with us always? Why then do we not turn to him in our times of need?

I believe it is because we do not know enough about God in our heart. We have brain knowledge. We know what we were taught in Catholic School or PREP classes growing up but as adults we need to know more. This knowledge needs to move to our hearts. We need to feel our faith in our hearts, so it is easier to speak out about our faith when situations arise. We are constantly being bombarded with the ways of the world. We are being taught new ways of thinking through television, movies, and social media. If our Catholic faith knowledge is not strong in our hearts, we can be easily swayed in our beliefs.

My suggestion is to pray hard and often for God to give you faith and the strength to face the world today and to stay strong in your Catholic beliefs. There are many Catholic media sites and apps to help you gather more heart knowledge. I mentioned Dynamic Catholic. You can also try Ascension Press, Halo, and Laudate just to name a few. There are books and pamphlets in the back of our churches. The parish also offers many opportunities for adult faith formation. We have both women and men bible studies & prayer groups. We have ChristLife, which is a great way to learn about prayer and how to follow and share your faith with others. In the fall we will also be repeating a study that I did recently called, A Biblical Walk Through the Mass. This study was so wonderful. It gave each of us such a deeper more fulfilling Mass that I want to do it again to give more people the opportunity to have this experience at Mass. As a parish we will also be doing a Consecration to the Eucharist starting in October that will finish on The Solemnity of Christ the King in November. Keep an eye out for more information in upcoming bulletins for each of these opportunities.

As always if you have any questions or concerns, I am here to help.

God Bless,
Donnamarie Sexton

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Job 38:1, 8-11

God has made the heavens and the earth.

- The author of Job uses the image of a whirling storm to portray God speaking.
- Job does not understand why terrible things have happened to him.
- Through the questions God asks Job about control of the sea, Job realizes that God is in control.

Reading II : 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

Now all is new in Christ.

- In 2 Corinthians, Paul preaches the wonderful news of the new creation.
- Paul stresses that Christ is a new creation, as are all who believe in him.
- Christ's resurrection is the final defeat of death.

Gospel : Mark 4:35-41

Be still.

- The might of the sea is used in today's Gospel to show Jesus acting in the power of God.
- After Jesus calms the storm and the sea, the disciples are astonished.
- In Jesus, God brings the new creation to birth and defeats the powers of sin and death.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Jesus told the sea to "quiet" and "be still," and it was. What storms do you need Jesus to calm for you?
- Have a family discussion about major storms that have occurred in the United States, and their locations. Find a time to pray together. Pray for those affected by major storms.
- Read today's Gospel, Mark 4:35-41, with your family. Talk about how you would have felt if you were with Jesus and the disciples during the storm. Make a poster for your refrigerator. On the poster, draw a boat and have each person in the family write his or her name on the boat. At the bottom of the poster, put this caption: "Where two or three are gathered together, there am I in their midst."

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be July 17
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
