Stewardship

July 3, 2022– Stewardship Charisms

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“He said to them, ‘The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...’” LUKE 10:2

As Catholics, we are all called to serve. Each of us has been given “charisms” otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God’s Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to Stewardship using your charisms. Say “yes” to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Kevin Quinn - Parish Administrator

Dear Friends,

As we celebrate the 246th anniversary of our nation's existence we have many things which to be thankful. We are right to give thanks to the fifty-five men who courageously signed their names to the Declaration of Independence, in defense of the proposition that "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, and that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

We should be proud to be Catholic. We should be proud to be American. Most of all, however, we should be grateful for the gift of faith which is ours as Disciples of Christ, and grateful for the gift of liberty which is ours as citizens of the United States of America. Should we have to choose one over the other? Our allegiances are distinct, but they do not have to be contradictory, but should instead be complementary.

These are the teachings of our Catholic faith. These principles encourage us to work together with our fellow citizens for the common good of all who live in this great land. I do believe that was the vision of the Founding Fathers as they insisted on the right of Americans to have religious freedom and believed that we could all contribute to our common life together.

America has preserved national unity and has been able to avoid the religious divisions and the resulting violent conflicts that have plagued other nations across the globe. These past two years have been difficult for us all as we have persevered through a pandemic, were witness to demonstrations throughout our country, and currently find ourselves dealing with inflationary constraints and supply interruptions, among other societal disruptions. As we try to heal and navigate on so many levels, let us not take for granted the freedoms that we have both spiritual and physical. We MUST continue to be stewards of this gift of freedom, not only for ourselves but for all nations and peoples who yearn to be free.

As you continue to participate in the 4th of July events of your choosing this weekend, please give thanks and celebrate the freedoms that we enjoy. Especially, the religious liberty that Pope Francis spoke of on a visit to the United States when he stated that it is a "fundamental right, which shapes the way we interact socially and personally with our neighbors whose religious views differ from our own." I encourage you to pray that we may continue to live out our faith and transform the world in which we live. I encourage you to also pray for those who have suffered and died defending the many wonderful freedoms that we enjoy.

This past week we said goodbye to our Parochial Vicar and Friend, Fr. Steve Pinzon, as he left to begin his new chapter as Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of Guadalupe in Lindenwold. This provides the opportunity for us to welcome our new Parochial Vicar, Fr. Cesar Pirateque Serrano. Fr. Cesar will also serve Wildwood Catholic Academy as Director of Catholic Identity. I would also like to acknowledge the one year anniversary of Fr. Mazz's arrival here in the Wildwoods. I think you would all agree that it has been a wonderful year.

Peace and Love in Christ,

Kevin Quinn
Parish Administrator

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 66:10-14c

The Lord's power shall be known.

- The passage from the Book of Isaiah was written to encourage those who had returned from exile in the sixth century B.C.
- Those who returned faced an overwhelming task of rebuilding.
- One major theme of the third section of the Book of Isaiah was the continued promise of a glorious New Jerusalem.

Reading II: Galatians 6:14-18

I boast of nothing but the cross!

- The second reading is the conclusion of Paul's Letter to the Galatians.
- Paul's final statement concurs with Jesus' final statement in Luke.
- Paul was not as concerned over the success of his preaching as he was over his fidelity to Christ and his cross.

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

I am sending you as lambs.

- Only the Gospel of Luke includes the story of sending the seventy-two preachers out in addition to the Twelve Disciples.
- Seventy-two was a number sometimes used to symbolize the Gentiles.
- In light of Luke's interest in the Gentiles, it is fitting that today's passage includes a speech to suggest the mission to the Gentiles.

Family Reflection Corner

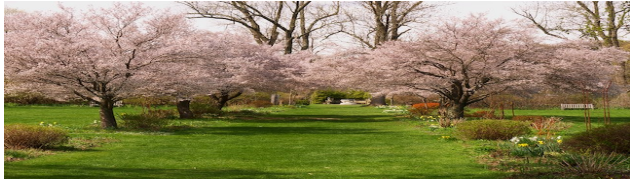

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- By our Baptism, we are called to share with others the love of Jesus and his good news. How can you share Jesus' love and message with others this week?
- Plan an evening family retreat at your house. Include prayer, Scripture readings and a family activity. For an action, discuss ways that each family member will show love for God, neighbor and him or herself during the coming week.
- As a family think of the people who bring the good news to you. Decide how you can thank them, how you will listen to the message they have for you, and how you can help them spread their message.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

WE work together to keep our churches clean & tidy and we offer our services whenever needed. Usually after Mass on Tuesday mornings. Please call the parish office if you are interested. 609-522-2709

On April 27 the Catholic Church honors Saint Zita, a 13th century Italian woman whose humble and patient service to God has made her a patron saint of maids and other domestic workers.

Representatives from the Good Counsel Homes will speak at Masses on July 16 and 17. For more information on the good work they do please visit their website. www.goodcounselhomes.org

SAINT OF THE WEEK-Maria Goretti

Saints don't necessarily have to have lived a long, sanctified life. This saint was only twelve years old when she was martyred.

Born the third of seven children to a poor farmer near Ancona, Italy, Maria was described by her mother as "happy, good, open-hearted, without whim, but with a sense and seriousness far beyond her years, and never disobedient." The family's circumstances meant that even the children had to work as farmhands for other people. Because of this, Maria and the other children received no schooling.

The Gorettis were forced to take another family in to room with them. The son, an eighteen-year-old named Alessandro, soon began making indecent proposals to Maria. While she turned him down time and again, she never told anyone about them since Alessandro had threatened her and her mother if she told.

One day when Maria was home mending clothes and the others were working in the fields, Alessandro came home and tried to force himself on Maria. When she again resisted, the enraged youth stabbed her several times with a knife. Maria was rushed to a hospital where doctors tried in vain to save her, but, before she died on June 6, 1902, she forgave Alessandro and said that she wished to see him in heaven.

Alessandro was tried for Maria's murder and sent to prison. At first, Alessandro showed no remorse for his crime. But, after eight years, Maria appeared to him in a dream and his life changed completely. When his sentence was complete, Alessandro went to Maria's mother to beg forgiveness, which he received. He then became a Capuchin lay brother.

St. Maria Goretti was canonized by Pope Pius XII on July 25, 1950. Present at the canonization were her mother, her siblings, and Alessandro, her attacker.

This saint is the patron of youth and of teenage girls. She is honored by a memorial on July 6.

Maria's message today: "Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." We say these words daily, but do we pay attention to what we are saying? Maria, mortally wounded, could forgive and pray for her attacker. If Maria could forgive (and pray for) her killer, can you forgive someone who has done much less harm to you?

A Fourth of July Prayer

Heavenly Father,
We thank you for this Nation.
We thank you for the freedom we enjoy daily.
May we never take for granted the liberties we have been given.
May we remain humble and conscious of the blessings we enjoy because of the sacrifices made by countless men and women.
We thank you for the abundance we enjoy.
May we be sensitive to those around us who are in need,
and may our hearts be quick to help
when we have the means to do so.
We pray for our leaders.
For those placed in authority over us.
Father, we ask that you guide every decision they make.
May they lead us with wisdom, humility, and grace.
Father bless our Nation with Your peace.
May Your love flow through each one of us,
and may we never forget to give You thanks, always.
May you receive the glory, honor, and praise.
In Jesus Name we pray,
Amen.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be June 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

2022 APPEAL: “FROM MANY...ONE BODY”

In the first letter to the Corinthians, Saint Paul reminds us “as a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ” and by extension so also his Church.

Through the House of Charity – Bishop’s Annual Appeal, we support those in need throughout the six counties of the Diocese of Camden.

24.7%

Our Goal: $151,800
Collected to date: $37,469
Percentage of Goal: 24.7%

PLEASE HELP US REACH OUR GOAL

Your House of Charity gift promotes discipleship among the youth and young adults of the Diocese of Camden through evangelization activities and leadership development. Your gift enables our young people to participate in Summer in the City, the Diocesan Youth Congress, Catholic Scouting, Theology on Tap and campus ministry programs in area universities.

Your House of Charity gift enables our staff of Hospital Chaplains to provide comprehensive help to those in need. They administer the Sacrament of the Sick in the many hospitals throughout our area, conduct pastoral visits with patients, families and hospital staff, help coordinate the visits of parish Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist and assist in a diocesan-wide effort to teach our Catholic faithful more about the Sacrament of the Sick.
