From the desk of Kevin M. Quinn, Parish Administrator

Dear Friends,

As we continue to celebrate the 249th anniversary of our nation's existence we have many things which to be thankful. We are right to give thanks to the fifty-five men who courageously signed their names to the Declaration of Independence, in defense of the proposition that "all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights, and that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness."

We should be proud to be Catholic. We should be proud to be American. Most of all, however, we should be grateful for the gift of faith, which is ours as Disciples of Christ, and grateful for the gift of liberty, which is ours as citizens of the United States of America. Should we have to choose one over the other? Our allegiances are distinct, but they do not have to be contradictory but should instead be complementary. These are the teachings of our Catholic faith. As Catholics, we are called to be active participants in our society, contributing to the common good and upholding the principles of justice and peace for all who live in this great land. I do believe that was the vision of the Founding Fathers as they insisted on the right of Americans to have religious freedom and believed that we could all contribute to our common life together.

America has preserved national unity and has been able to avoid the religious divisions and the resulting violent conflicts that have plagued other nations across the globe. Here at home, we continue to see societal disruptions, protests, and not-so subtle political divisiveness and hostility. Tensions are high in the Holy Land and the Middle East as we hope to negotiate lasting peace. In Ukraine and Russia conflict rages on. And the concern of global conflict sneaks into our psyche causing fear, that for some, is hard to manage. As we continue to navigate, what seems like unending strife, let us not take for granted the freedoms that we do have, both spiritual and physical. Our faith teaches us that true freedom comes from God and is a gift to be cherished but also protected. We MUST continue to be stewards of this gift of freedom, not only for ourselves but for all nations and people who yearn to be free.

As you continue to participate in the 4th of July events of your choosing this weekend please remember to carry the light of our faith into the world. Let's be beacons of hope, love, and peace in our communities. Give thanks and celebrate the freedoms that we all enjoy. Especially, our religious liberty as a fundamental right, which shapes the way we interact socially and personally with our neighbors whose religious views may differ from our own. Keeping in mind Pope Leo XIV's recent comments that the Catholic Church's mission is to promote peace, truth, and justice, I encourage you to pray that we may continue to live out our faith, as Catholics, and transform the world in which we live. I encourage you to also pray for those who have suffered and died defending the many wonderful freedoms that we enjoy.

Happy Independence Day!

Peace and Love in Christ,

Kevin Quinn
Parish Administrator

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 66:10-14c

The Lord's power shall be known.

- The passage from the Book of Isaiah was written to encourage those who had returned from exile in the sixth century B.C.
- Those who returned faced an overwhelming task of rebuilding.
- One major theme of the third section of the Book of Isaiah was the continued promise of a glorious New Jerusalem.

Reading II : Galatians 6:14-18

I boast of nothing but the cross!

- The second reading is the conclusion of Paul's Letter to the Galatians.
- Paul's final statement concurs with Jesus' final statement in Luke.
- Paul was not as concerned over the success of his preaching as he was over his fidelity to Christ and his cross.

Gospel : Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

I am sending you as lambs.

- Only the Gospel of Luke includes the story of sending the seventy-two preachers out in addition to the Twelve Disciples.
- Seventy-two was a number sometimes used to symbolize the Gentiles.
- In light of Luke's interest in the Gentiles, it is fitting that today's passage includes a speech to suggest the mission to the Gentiles.

Family Reflection Corner

Theme: We are called to evangelize.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel, the short form

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this reading, what words or phrases strike you? What in this reading touches your heart? What lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: How do you let others know about your faith?

Question for Youth: Jesus sent the disciples out into the world, but told them that it wouldn't be an easy job. How have you shared your faith with others this past week? What were the risks for you?

Question for Adults: To what part of the harvest are you being sent? What are you being called to do for the Reign of God?

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn the week of July 6—July 12 in loving memory of:

St Ann: Members of the Parish

Assumption: Charles, Josephine, Pasquale Visalli r/b Phyllis Visalli & Family

Stewardship

July 6, 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time Stewards Called

"He said to them, 'The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few...'" LUKE 10:2

As Catholics we are all called to Stewardship. Each of us has been given "charisms" otherwise known as gifts from the Holy Spirit to help build God's Church. Our charisms can only be used for good. We know that we are using them in the right ministry when we are filled with joy and we want to share stories about our charitable works. Discern how God is calling you to use your charisms. Say "yes" to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

IMPORTANT MESSAGE REGARDING OUR PARKING LOTS

Due to the large number of church attendees that rely on parking it is imperative that you follow the directional arrows painted in each lane when using our lots. Also please pull all the way forward in the designated lanes. When you don't pull forward or decide to position yourself so you can just back out against the flow of traffic, you ultimately block the lane from being filled and limit the number of cars that can park in our lots. We do not want to bring in the "parking lot police", so please help us out by following the instructions and showing common courtesy to others. Thank you.

2025 ANNUAL APPEAL
"Our Journey United in Hope"
We have OFFICIALLY kicked off our appeal

By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, you are supporting many programs and ministries of the Diocese of Camden. These ministries serve the physical, emotional and spiritual needs of the hungry and challenged. When we support the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we shine a light of hope throughout the Catholic community of South Jersey.

This year's theme: "Our Journey United in Hope" connects to the Jubilee Year, themed "Pilgrims of Hope." It reflects our commitment to walk this path together grounded in the hope and love that Christ gives us. In *Spes Non Confudit it states "During the Holy Year, we are called to be tangible signs of hope for those of our brothers and sisters who experience hardships of any kind."

Our brothers and sisters include the sick, the young, the poor, the elderly, and many others. By supporting the Catholic Ministries Appeal, we provide that tangible sign of hope. Every contribution helps us build a stronger Church renewed in hope.

Spes Non Confudit (Hope Does Not Disappoint) is the Papal proclamation announcing the Jubilee Theme.*

Saint of the Week:

Paul, Apostle, First Century

Before his conversion on the road to Damascus, Paul was known as Saul. Saul was Jewish and worked to punish Christians and put them in prison.

Paul's recollection of his amazing conversion is told in the Acts of the Apostles 22:6-16. Saul was traveling to Damascus. As he was traveling along the road, he was suddenly surrounded by a great light from heaven. He was blinded and fell off his horse. He then heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you fighting against me?" He answered, "Who are you, Lord?" Christ said, "I am Jesus of Nazareth whom you are fighting." Saul continued to Damascus, where he was baptized and his sight was restored. He took the name Paul and spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel.

Saint Paul became the Apostle to the Gentiles, those who were not Jewish. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive.

Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through items like stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts.

Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

For more info call us at 609.522.2709 or you can visit www.camdengiftlegacy.org to see options.
