Stewardship

July 9, 2023

14th Sunday of Ordinary Time
Grateful Stewardship

“For my yoke is easy, and my burden light.”
MATTHEW 11:30

When we think of being good Stewards, we may think that God is asking too much of us when He calls us to generously share our time, talent and treasure. However, we must remember that we are not “owners” of anything, we are merely “stewards” of the gifts God have given us. All He is asking is that we give back a small portion, in gratitude, of what He has already given to us.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

JESUS BEGINS HIS MINISTRY

MT 4:12-23

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

In Matthew's Gospel we learn that John the Baptist has been arrested by Herod Antipas for calling out the King's illicit marriage to his niece. John's arrest effectively ends his mission of preparing the way of the Lord and prompts Jesus to begin his own ministry - God's plan, since the beginning of time, for the salvation of humankind. Ironically, the immortal Son of God knows that the time he has to bring to fulfillment our unmerited redemption is very short, indeed. And so, Jesus, our Lord and savior, becomes a man of action:

*He left Nazareth and went to live in Capernaum by the sea,
in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali,
that what had been said through Isaiah the prophet
might be fulfilled:*

*Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali,
the way to the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,
the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light,
on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death
light has arisen.*

*From that time on, Jesus began to preach and say,
"Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."*

As His disciples, my sisters and brothers, WE must follow Jesus' example and participate in His radical plan for our good (that is, the Beatitudes). WE must be people of action in our faith journey, not merely spectators to God's merciful designs. Let us take inventory of our God-given gifts and pay them forward. The Corporal Works of Mercy are always a good place to start if we are wondering how we can exercise our spiritual muscle.

I have long pondered a bumper sticker I once read when I was stuck in traffic: "If they arrested you for being a Christian and dragged you into court, would they have enough evidence to convict you?" By God's grace our prayer should be to say "Guilty as charged! Amen!"

Peace & blessings,

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Zechariah 9:9-10

Shout for joy! He comes in peace!

- The verses in the reading from Zechariah describe the messianic king in terms familiar to the tradition.
- Jerusalem was personified as a sentinel waiting for the king's arrival.
- The new messiah, who came like Solomon, would banish all instruments of war; his kingdom would be a kingdom of peace.

Reading II: Romans 8:9, 11-13

Live by the Spirit.

- The Letter to the Romans describes the activity of God's Spirit.
- Paul uses the image of flesh without spirit to describe the person who does not live by God's Spirit.
- According to Paul, that "Spirit-less" person is already dead.

Gospel: Matthew 11:25-30

Come to me all you who are weary.

- In the Gospel today, Jesus speaks, not only as a wisdom teacher, but as Wisdom herself.
- Jesus borrows the language of wisdom to praise God for revelation through him.
- He is the perfect revelation of God because Jesus is God's Son, knowing God perfectly.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Jesus will help us serve as Peter did, but we need to be open to him. Have the members of your family draw or write about their conflicts and burdens. Instruct them to place these papers in an appropriate container for burning. Remind the family that this burning symbolizes our letting go of the conflicts and struggles by placing them in Jesus' hands.
- Prayer allows us to let go of our burdens. Have each family member think of one person in the community who has an extra burden of illness, financial trouble, and so forth, and pray for him or her for the week, asking Jesus to lessen his or her burdens.
- Reflect on Jesus' statement: "Do you love me?" Spend time together as a family discussing ways you show your love for Christ.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

St Ann: Kathlyn Tipton r/b Kathlyn Reidenbach

Assumption: Jean Pisano r/b Jim & Rita DiBruno

2023 APPEAL:

“FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD”

In every way, the work of our ministries emanates from the Eucharist. As Saint John Paul II said, “The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom.” The Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus Christ, it is the spiritual food that gives us strength to carry out His work each day and everything we do as Catholics emanates from that.

GOAL: $151,800

Thank you for your generosity

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be June 19th

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Elizabeth of Portugal

Elizabeth from was a royal family and was destined for a throne from birth, but her early upbringing taught her humility and a strong sense of charity. At the age of twelve, Elizabeth was married to Denis, King of Portugal. Elizabeth earned the title of "Peacemaker" because she frequently intervened between quarreling members of her family. In the royal milieu of the time, family quarrels often turned into wars. On two occasions, Elizabeth came between the forces of her husband and of her son. Two other times, she either averted war or intervened in disputes between rulers of Spanish kingdoms.

In our times, maintaining peace in one's family does not usually involve averting a war. But peace among family members is no less important—or no less difficult to achieve—than it was in Elizabeth's time.

Elizabeth's message today: In our times, maintaining peace in one's family does not usually involve averting a war. But peace among family members is no less important—or no less difficult to achieve—than it was in Elizabeth's time.

Where do you stand in your family? Are you a peacemaker? The contentious one? What can you do to bring peace where there is dissension?

14.o Domingo del tiempo ordinario

“Porque Mi yugo es fácil y Mi carga ligera.” - Mateo 11:30

Cuando pensamos que debemos ser buenos administradores, podemos pensar que Dios está pidiendo demasiado de nosotros cuando nos llama generosamente a compartir nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro. Sin embargo, debemos recordar que no somos “propietarios” de nada, somos simples “administradores” de los dones que Dios nos ha otorgado. Todo lo que Él nos pide es que, en gratitud, devolvamos una pequeña parte de lo que Él nos ha dado.

Noticias Importantes

Como saben la Comunidad Hispana está en transición de Wildwood a las Villas. Para empezar el cambio de las Misas de Lunes y jueves a las 6pm, (al partir de este Lunes el 3 de Julio) serán celebradas en la Iglesia de St. Raymond, Villas. La Misa de 7pm el día Domingo seguirá en Santa Ana hasta otro aviso. Les pedimos que sean pacientes, porque los cambios toman tiempo.
