Stewardship

July 21st 2024
16h Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Calling

"He said to them, "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." MARK 6:31

Do you spend time, every day, alone and in silence listening to how God is calling you to Stewardship? If not, you are missing out on a wonderful opportunity to develop a more personal relationship with Him. Unless we talk and more importantly, listen to God every day, how else will we know how He is calling us? Consider making a retreat this year, spend some "alone" time with God.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear parishioners,

One of many things I have learned over the years is that I could probably not say “thank you “enough for all the good things that people say and do for me, for our priests, and for our parish community. Our parish of Notre Dame de le Mer is such a beautiful and generous community. Father Tom and I have been speaking frequently lately about how blessed we are to be assigned here in this parish and how incredible our people here are. You are so special, and we are very grateful for all the thoughtfulness and kindness that you show to us. But you also expressed it to each other and also to our visitors, which is so beautiful. I frequently hear from our visitors that they are so impressed and feel so good at the welcome they receive here. So thank you for all of that!

Father Tom and I have been also speaking about your concern and prayers for his health. He has definitely appreciated all of that and is now beginning a treatment program. So, I want to have him expressed himself personally in the words below.

From Fr. Tom-

“Dear brothers and sisters, as many of you have been inquiring, I would like to update you on my present health condition. For the last few months my health has been in rapid decline and I have gone through extensive testing to determine the cause. It appears that a virus infected my blood and has caused my poor health. The doctors have determined an effective treatment to restore my health but it will take another month or two. I am so very grateful for your prayers and support and please be assured of my continued prayers for all of you. I look forward to getting back into ministry here with all of you!! I am also told baked goods, deserts, and chocolates are very helpful for a more rapid recovery, lol”

Also, I wanted to let you know about a special 40 HOURS of ADORATION leading into the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. You can read more about this event on Page 7 of the bulletin. It will begin on Sunday, August 11th at the 11:30AM, with the Exposition and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, and continue through Tuesday, August 13th at 1PM, concluding with Benediction and Mass. Volunteers are needed.

Again, thank you for all you do for God, and for all of us!

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Jeremiah 23:1-6

Woe to those who mislead their sheep.

- Preaching just before the Babylonian exile, Jeremiah warns the people that they will lose the land and be driven into exile unless they turn from their evil ways.
- The people do not turn from their evil ways. They and Zedekiah, their ruler, are taken into exile.
- The leaders of the exiled people, like good shepherds, kept the people united and nourished them with hope.

Reading II : Ephesians 2:13-18

He announced the Good News

- The Letter to the Ephesians emphasizes the unity between Jews and Gentiles.
- All who are redeemed through Christ are one body in him.
- Christ is the way to peace for all people.

Gospel : Mark 6:30-34

They went to a deserted place to rest.

- The disciples have just returned from their first missionary journey and Jesus knows that they need rest.
- The attempt to get away from the crowds is useless because the people are hungry to hear the word of God.
- Jesus, the Good Shepherd, responds to the people with compassion.

Family Reflection Corner

- Jesus' teachings touch our lives. Ask family members to share their thoughts on the following questions:
What are your three favorite teachings of Jesus? Why?
- In the Gospel reading, Jesus was touched by the masses of people. As a family, undertake a project of caring for something or someone not being cared for. Reflect on the importance of care and what happens to people and things that do not receive the proper care.
- Jesus offered the disciples rest. What do you do and where do you go when you feel overwhelmed? Take time to rest during the week. Find a quiet place, and invite Jesus to join you and rest.
- Invite a minister from your Parish or another community leader to your house for dinner and relaxation with your family

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

SPECIAL 40 HOURS ADORATION

Notre Dame de la Mer invites each of you to participate in The Parish's 3rd annual 40 continuous Hours of Adoration Devotion. During the 40 Hours we ask for commitments from those Adoring the Most Blessed Sacrament, who will be Guarding Him, that He be not alone. What a wonderful way to prepare for the feast of the Assumption by offering up a One-hour commitment.

For us to be successful we need two people per hour, from Sunday August 11th at the 11:30AM, with the Exposition and Chaplet of Divine Mercy, through Tuesday August 13th at 1PM, concluding with Benediction and Mass. Followed with coffee and donuts in Kelly Hall.

Sign-up sheets, by hour, can be found in Kelly Hall, Assumption Church, and the Lobby at Saint Ann Church. Our success and continuation of 40 Hours Devotion is up to you.

"When Jesus returned, he approached his disciples and found them sleeping. And he said to Peter: "So you were not able to keep vigil with me for One hour?" MT26:40

Saint of the Week: Ignatius Loyola, Priest, 1491-1556

Ignatius was the youngest of thirteen children of a noble family in the Basque region of Spain. He entered the military service and had a promising career ahead of him until he was wounded during the siege of Pamplona in 1521.

During his long recovery, Ignatius spent the time reading religious books, as there was nothing else available to him. These readings included a life of Christ and the lives of saints, both of which had a profound effect on him. After his recovery, he made a pilgrimage to Monserrat where he hung up his sword at Our Lord's altar. He then spent a year in retreat at Manresa where he experienced visions and began writing his Spiritual Exercises.

From 1524 to 1535, Ignatius studied in Paris and received a Master of Arts degree in 1534. In that same year, along with a group of fellow students who included St. Francis Xavier, he founded the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits). The group vowed to live in poverty and chastity and to go to the Holy Land. Because of the hostility of the Turks, however, they were unable to achieve this last goal, so they went instead to Rome and placed themselves in the apostolic service of the Pope. The Society was formally approved in 1540 by Pope Paul III. The group took their final vows in 1541 and Ignatius Loyola was named the superior general of the order.
