*July 23, 2017
Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time*

Dear Parishioners,

It is hard to believe that I am writing my farewell bulletin article. While I am writing this, I am questioning where the time has gone! It feels just like yesterday that I arrived to speak on Good Shepherd Sunday, which coincided with the parish's First Communion.

One of the most important qualities that the seminary faculty tries to instill in men immersed in priestly formation, is the importance of reflection. While at the seminary reflecting on your studies, your pastoral assignments, your relationships with brother seminarians, and of course on your relationship with God. When reflecting and praying over these past two months at Notre Dame de la Mer, I have seen the countless blessings God has bestowed upon me through every single one of you. While sitting in the classrooms up at the seminary is extremely important, having a parish assignment in the summer is all the more important. Bishop Sullivan and the faculty at Saint Joseph's Seminary have entrusted my formation over these past two months to the priests and parishioners of Notre Dame de la Mer. Each of you, from the parish staff to the weekend visitors, have played an integral part in forming me to being the best seminarian I can be. For a priest is not a priest for himself, but rather a priest for the people! My time here in Wildwood has helped me to understand to the fullest extent what Pope Francis meant when he told priests, "to be shepherds with the smell of sheep." Each of the priests here at the parish, especially Father Wallace, have been great examples of the Holy Father's pastoral call of smelling like the sheep. Which I guess in Wildwood means the smell of the fresh salt air! Sorry – I had to throw one joke in this article!

I am in debt to Bishop Sullivan for sending me to a parish with great priests, religious, parish staff, schools, and parishioners. Please allow me to thank everyone on the island for welcoming with open arms to this beautiful and dedicated parish family! As many of you know, I am embarking on a Pilgrimage known as the "Camino de Santiago" (The Way of Saint James) starting this week. Please be assured of my prayers for every single one of you while on my 200 Mile walk and most especially my prayers for you at the tomb of Saint James where my pilgrimage will end. Know that this will not be my final farewell because I will be back August 14th for the Wedding of the Sea vigil mass for the Assumption at Saint Ann's Church. What a great day that will be for our parish family, because one of your own parishioners Tom Piro will process up the main isle of Saint Ann's in cassock and surplice for the first time with all the seminarians of the Diocese.

God Bless.

In Christ,

Henry Laigaie

Stewardship

Stewards Sow Good Seed

“The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field...He who sows good seed the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom.” Matthew 13:24,37-38

As children of God, we are all “good seeds,” blessed by God with the potential to accomplish much good in the world. We fulfill God’s plan when we share our talents and our financial gifts to help build God’s kingdom on earth. Through our Stewardship we sow “good seeds” on earth to ultimately help each other get to Heaven!

The House of Charity – Bishop’s Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop’s Annual Appeal. Your support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop’s Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Our parish goal is $148,799.00 of which we have received $58,290.00.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, October 14, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebración del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

Religious Education

Children's Liturgy of the Mass

Each Sunday, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday
Mass at St. Ann Church and also Assumption Church, we have the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Just before the readings during the Liturgy children (ages 3 to 12) are asked to come forward by the celebrant. The children and their catechist are blessed and sent forth to hear the readings of the day in language on their level.
This allows the children to have a faith-building experience they are able to relate to in their own lives.
Children are welcome to come and be a part of this experience but no one is obligated to attend. The choice to take part or not is always to be made by the parents.
If you would like further information or would like to help with this parish ministry please call AnnaMae in the parish office at 609-522-2709 x218.

"TWO YEAR" Preparation for CONFIRMATION

Reminder: The Diocese of Camden requires a two year preparation period for the reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation.
In most cases this usually means Grade 7 and Grade 8. Adults desiring to receive the sacrament need to call the parish office and speak with AnnaMae. (522-2709 X218)
