Stewardship

July 24, 2022– Stewardship Gratefulness

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ask and you will receive; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” LUKE 11:9

Jesus assures us that if we ask, God will take care of what we need. The problem is that our culture often confuses what we really need with what we simply want. The truth is that many of us need very little. However, we usually want so much more! Stewardship is simply being grateful for all that we are and all that we have been given, and generously sharing all of our God-given gifts with others. Generosity is a gift that opens doors to new relationships with others and with God.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the Desk of Sister Anne Lafferty - Spanish Apostolate

Dear Friends,

Peace to you and your dear ones!

A few weeks ago, I received an e-invitation from my niece to celebrate the 4th of July. She and her husband invited the whole family. It was a great day, there was food galore, everyone brought something different. We gathered around the table, met the newest member of the family, Daniel, and just talked, laughed, remembered those who had gone to God; it was good to be there. As we left, we all agreed that we should meet more often. Jesus does the same every Sunday, he invites us to his table of love and plenty, we remember his great love for us, pray for our new members and then we are sent forth to be his presence in our families, neighborhoods, work places, schools or better said wherever we are. Every time we sit around a table to eat together whether it be to share a nice cup of tea (at my grandmom's house the tea was always nice) or a banquet, sharing life is always first and most important and Jesus wants to be there. Jesus himself is present in the Eucharist, his body and blood that he gave in order that we may participate in his life in abundance. In the book of Revelation Jesus tells us, Listen! I am standing at the door, knocking; if you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in to you and eat with you, and you with me. Rev. 3:20 Open the door and let him in, if you do your life will change, you will find JOY that never ends.

Many blessings, Sister Anne

Queridos amigos y amigas,

¡Paz para ti y tus seres queridos!

Hace unas semanas atrás recibí una invitación electrónica de mi sobrina para celebrar el 4 de julio. Ella y su esposo invitaron a toda la familia. Fue un gran día, hubo comida en abundancia, todos trajeron algo diferente. Nos reunimos alrededor de la mesa, conocimos al miembro más nuevo de la familia, Daniel, y simplemente hablamos, reímos, recordamos a los que habían ido a Dios; fue bueno estar allí. Cuando nos fuimos, todos acordamos que deberíamos vernos más a menudo. Jesús hace lo mismo todos los domingos, nos invita a su mesa de amor y abundancia, recordamos su gran amor por nosotros, oramos por nuestros nuevos miembros y luego somos enviados a ser su presencia en nuestras familias, barrios, lugares de trabajo, escuelas o mejor dicho donde quiera que estemos. Cada vez que nos sentamos alrededor de una mesa para comer juntos, ya sea para compartir una buena taza de té (en la casa de mi abuela el té siempre era bueno) o un banquete, compartir la vida es siempre lo primero y lo más importante y Jesús quiere serlo. allí. Jesús mismo está presente en la Eucaristía, en su cuerpo y su sangre que entregó para que participemos en abundancia de su vida. En el libro de Apocalipsis Jesús nos dice, 20 ¡Escucha! Estoy parado en la puerta, llamando; si oyes mi voz y abres la puerta, entraré a ti y cenaré contigo, y tú conmigo. Apocalipsis 3:20 Abre la puerta y déjalo entrar, si lo haces tu vida cambiará, encontrarás ALEGRÍA que nunca termina.

Muchas bendiciones, Hermana Ana.

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Genesis 18:20-32

Will you sweep away the innocent with the guilty?

- The reading from Genesis is a classic example of prayer in the Old Testament.
- It is from the Yahwist tradition of the Pentateuch and was written around the tenth century B.C.
- In the Yahwist tradition God was very close to humans and displayed human traits.

Reading II: Colossians 2:12-14

God made you alive with Christ for he has forgiven all our sins.

- The reading from the Letter to the Colossians attempts to explain why Christians can pray with such confidence.
- Baptism has united Christians with Christ in his death as well as his resurrection power.
- Christ has won our friendship with God.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Hallowed be your name.

- The passage from the Gospel of Luke is a collection of Jesus' reflections on prayer.
- The first section (verses 1-4) is the Lucan version of the Lord's Prayer.
- The version in Luke is shorter than the one in Matthew's Gospel.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- In the Gospel reading for Sunday, we learn the prayer that Jesus taught us, the Lord's Prayer. Sometime during this week, use the Lord's Prayer as part of your before-meal prayer. Join hands around the table when you pray it.
- Pray the Lord's Prayer slowly and meditatively. Talk about what each petition means to you. Remind family members that this is the prayer Jesus himself taught us to pray. Express to your children the value of praying together as a family, as a community of believers, and as individuals. Remind family members that praying does not mean always asking God for something. Sometimes it means being silent and listening to what God is speaking to you.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

The theme for this year's celebration is "In Old Age They Will Still Bear Fruit" (Ps. 92:15). The theme is meant to emphasize how grandparents are a gift both to society and the Church .

- In order for the message of closeness and consolation that the Day wants to express to reach everyone - even those who are most isolated - we ask people to make a visit to their grandparents and the lonely elderly in their community and to deliver the Holy Father's message to them.
- The visit, a tangible sign of the outgoing Church, is a way to reaffirm that the elderly, even the loneliest, are at the center of our communities.
- The visit shows the personal choice to get up and go quickly to others (cf. Lk. 1:39), just as Mary did to visit the elderly Elizabeth.
- The visit can be an opportunity to bring a gift, such as a flower, and to read the Day's prayer together.
- Visiting a lonely elderly person is one of the possibilities for obtaining the Plenary Indulgence granted on the occasion of the Day.
- The encounter between young and old, the friendship that can result, is one of the signs that "In old age they will still bear fruit."
- Forget-me-not flowers are the official flowers for Grandparents. Seeds might be passed on to grandchildren to grow in memory of their Grandparents.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

La Liturgia es la “fuente primaria y necesaria de donde han de beber los fieles el espíritu verdaderamente cristiano.” Así dice el Papa en su carta apostólica que nos ha enviado. La Liturgia incluye todas las oraciones públicas de la Iglesia, la oración principal es la Misa.

BAUTISMO

Se pueden inscribir con Sister Anne, Padre Cesar o en la oficina de la parroquia.

Los Bautismos se realizan el primer domingo del mes, en la Iglesia de Santa Ana, a las 12 de la tarde.

(Los padrinos deben ser Católicos y si son casados, casados en la Iglesia Católica)

Preparación para el Bautismo

Cuando uno tiene sed no se satisface la persona hasta que tome agua, así Dios nos ha hecho, 75% de nuestro cuerpo es agua entonces sin agua el cuerpo se debilita y perdimos energía para vivir, trabajar, jugar etc. El Papa nos dice que la Misa es la fuente primaria y necesaria de donde hemos de beber, o sea en la Misa se refresque nuestro espíritu. También, se fortalezca nuestro espíritu con la Palabra de Dios y sobre todo con la recepción de Cristo mismo en el Sacramento de la Eucaristía. La debemos recibir con reverencia y amor, tomando tiempo para conversar con el Señor que está íntimamente unido a ti en ese momento.

Hermanas y hermanos, tomemos en serio la Liturgia de la Misa, es el regalo más grande de Dios. Dios ha creado el mundo y el universo para nosotros, pero el regalo más importante y bello es recibir a su único Hijo, Jesús, en su cuerpo y su sangre.

¡Ven, participa en esta celebración de vida en abundancia, el Señor te espera!
