July 30, 2017
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dear Parishioners,

The gospel of this weekend presents us with three different parables which are inordinate lessons in our spiritual life. Let us start with the lesson of the first parable. The man found the precious pearl, not so much by luck but because he believes in what he was doing. It is true sometimes, things happen unexpectedly; however, this man was performing his daily routine. It is legitimate to say that he must have been going about his daily business with diligence and efficiency, because he must have been digging deep, and not merely scraping the surface, in order to dig up this treasure. This parable give us courage to continue to be electrified in the work of the Lord, so we can have a special encounter with him. This parable also invites us to be continually seeking out to open ourselves up through our faith to receive the blessing from the Lord. Yet, when we have an especial encounter with him, we will automatically strive to stay closer to him.

In the parable of the treasure in the field and in the parable of the merchant who sought fine pearls, we see the image of one who recognizes the value of the kingdom of God and gives everything to possess it. Matthew, a tax-collector, might have experienced something like this when he discovered the eternal value of the Kingdom preached by Jesus of Nazareth. When he discovered Jesus and his vision of life, everything else became secondary. Having a personal relationship with Christ, that is, making Christ's view of life one's own, is the most beautiful, the most precious thing in the world. Jesus, our true treasure, may come to live in us unexpectedly through some daily experiences as he did with Matthew.

The three parables illustrate the opportunity as well as the challenge of discipleship. The first and the second parables speak of the total commitment and dedication which are the ideal of every follower of Christ. What the parables really teach us is that, when one discovers Jesus and his vision of life, everything else becomes secondary. That is what St. Paul meant when he said: "I count everything as loss because of the surpassing worth of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as refuse, in order that I may gain Christ" (Philippians 3:8), and again "For me, to live is Christ, and to die is gain" (Philippians 2:21). To have a personal experience of Christ and personal relationship with Him in other words, to have made Christ's view of life one's own is the most precious thing in the world. Let us humbly admit the fact that there are only a very few of us who are not a mixture of good and evil. Let us admit as St. Paul did, "I am what I am with the grace of God."

Stewardship

Stewards Trust God

*"We know that all things work for good or those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."
Romans 8:28*

Do you really trust God? Do you believe that all things work for good? Stewardship is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, means that God's plan for our lives may be different than our plan. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal. Your support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Our parish goal is $148,799.00 of which we have received $59,965.00.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, October 14, 2017, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebración del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

Christmas Remembrance

We are in the process of replacing many of our old and outdated Christmas decorations. We are asking our parishioners to memorialize the following. We are in need of new artificial Christmas trees and garland for the churches. It is a nice way to remember your loved ones as you look upon the symbols that speak of our joy at the miracle of the Incarnation. Please call the parish office 609-522-2709 x 210, if you are interested in this memorial opportunity!

Thank you for your consideration and support!

Feast of the Assumption

You are cordially invited to celebrate the Wedding of the Sea on August 14, 2017. Celebration will begin at St. Ann's Church, 2900 Atlantic Ave. Starting at 4:00 pm there will be musical selections performed by the NDDL M Music Ministry and accompanying orchestra. The vigil mass celebrating the Assumption of Mary into heaven follows at 4:30. Immediately following mass, the procession to the ocean will begin. Once at the water's edge, Wildwood lifeguards will take the bishop into the tide where he will bless the ocean by throwing a ring of flowers. A tradition started in Venice, Italy in the 1400's. A gold ring would be tossed into the ocean 'Marrying' it to the land. This symbolic gesture shows the significance the ocean has on the land in all Shore towns. A union so very important then as it is today. All are welcome to celebrate!!

Religious Education

Children's Liturgy of the Mass

Each Sunday, at the 10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass at St. Ann Church and also Assumption Church, we have the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Just before the readings during the Liturgy children (ages 3 to 12) are asked to come forward by the celebrant. The children and their catechist are blessed and sent forth to hear the readings of the day in language on their level. This allows the children to have a faith-building experience they are able to relate to in their own lives. Children are welcome to come and be a part of this experience but no one is obligated to attend. The choice to take part or not is always to be made by the parents. If you would like further information or would like to help with this parish ministry please call AnnaMae in the parish office at 609-522-2709 x218.
