Stewardship

July 30, 2023

17th Sunday of Ordinary Time

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."
ROMANS 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that in our Stewardship God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens. Trust in God, His plan is always better.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Dear Friends,

We should all be praying the words we heard in today's first reading from Solomon every day...

GIVE YOUR SERVANT, THEREFORE, AN UNDERSTANDING HEART TO JUDGE YOUR PEOPLE AND TO DISTINGUISH RIGHT FROM WRONG.

We are given these gifts and others at Confirmation. The gift of Wisdom helps us see and judge things from God's perspective. It helps us make good choices and live according to God's will. The gift of Good Counsel or Right Judgement helps us to know right from wrong and when this line is blurry to seek wise counsel. Solomon was asking for an understanding heart to judge others because he had God-given authority over his people. We have not been given this authority. We are not to judge others by their actions. We are not them; we do not know all they are going through both externally as well as internally. Only God knows what is in their heart, that is between them and God. This line of thinking can lead us to be wishy-washy in our faith. I have overheard people saying, "Who am I to judge, let them do as they wish and live with the consequences". We are not made to just sit back and idly watch people sin against God. With the gift of Wisdom, we know God's perspective and with the gift of Counsel, we know what is right and wrong. It is our duty to give this knowledge to others. Maybe they do not know any better or they do not realize the grave mistake they are making. We can give them our knowledge from a non-judgmental and faithful heart.

It is a fine line between knowing God's will and thinking you are all-knowing and righteous. Remember the Jewish people of Jesus' time thought they were doing the right thing by condemning Jesus. They got so caught up in the rules and regulations that they forgot about God's will. They were so blinded by these rules that they did not see what was right in front of them. Therefore, you must always pray to do the will of God. Pray for the knowledge and understanding of this will daily and when you are tempted to judge others first look in the mirror at your own flaws and ask for forgiveness.

God loves each and every one of us unconditionally. That includes the people we are quick to judge. All he wants is our love in return. What better way to show God our love than to do his will and spread his word to others? Each one of us is made in the image of Jesus but we all have a unique part to play in the world we live in. No one else can play this part quite like you. This is both exciting and a little scary. What if I am not doing what God wants me to do? To find this purpose we must never cease praying, asking God to help us to always do his will. If you know of someone who you feel isn't living a faithful life, pray for them and ask God to help you do his will to help them. Maybe his will is for you to continue to pray for them and let him handle it.

My prayer this week will not only be for me to do his will but for each one of you also.

God Bless,

Donnamarie

Readings of the Week

Reading I: 1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

Give your servant an understanding heart.

- The reading from 1 Kings presents Solomon at the beginning of his reign.
- When God promises to give Solomon whatever he desires in a dream, Solomon makes a single request; a listening heart.
- Today's passage is the foundation for the tradition that Solomon was the wisest and richest person who ever lived.

Reading II: Romans 8:28-30

God makes all things work together for good.

- The second reading continues Chapter 8 of Paul's Letter to the Romans.
- Paul describes the fruit of wisdom, as the single-hearted commitment to God.
- Those who abandon everything for the treasure of loving God are truly wise.

Gospel: Matthew 13:44-52

The reign of God is a treasure.

- The first two parables in the Gospel reading make a point similar to that of the first reading; everything can be given up joyfully for the sake of the Kingdom.
- Similar to the parable of the weeds in the wheat, the third parable teaches that there is an appropriate time for sorting out good and bad.
- Jesus ends his discourse with a question to the disciples: "Have you understood all this?" They answer, "Yes". But we know they may not have understood as fully as they claimed to.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Enjoy the treasure of family time together. Go on a picnic, go swimming, or do some other family activity you enjoy.
- Jesus told some parables to help his disciples understand the Kingdom of God. Read the parables from today's Gospel to your family. Discuss: Which parable do you like best?
- Examine ways to simplify your lifestyle as a family. Together with your family make a list of what you value most in life. Post the list on your refrigerator as a reminder to invest your time and your resources toward what you treasure most.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

2023 APPEAL: “FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD”

In every way, the work of our ministries emanates from the Eucharist. As Saint John Paul II said, “The Eucharist is the heart of the Church. Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom.” The Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus Christ, it is the spiritual food that gives us strength to carry out His work each day and everything we do as Catholics emanates from that.

GOAL: $151,800

RAISED TO DATE: $30,525

Thank you for your generosity

Your Catholic Ministries Appeal gift helps our young men and our seminarians to become “men of prayer”, helps guide them as they discern if they are called and then helps prepare them to stand “in the person of Christ” and serve their bride, the Church, through their preaching and teaching and most of all by celebrating the Sacraments.

Christmas in July

Assumption Church is in need of a new nativity set. Most of the pieces are chipped and it is missing a wise man. We are looking for donors to help defray the cost of a new set. It is estimated that a new one will cost between $7,000 - $10,000. Please consider making a donation in memory or honor of a loved one.

For more information or to donate please contact Mary in the parish office.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Christopher, Martyr

One of the most popular traditions holds that Christopher was a strong giant who made his living by carrying people across a raging stream. One of his passengers was a small child who grew so heavy as they crossed the stream that Christopher thought they would both drown. The child then identified himself as Christ and the heaviness was caused by the weight of the world on his shoulders.

Saint Christopher was martyred during the reign of Decius in about 251. His name means Christ-bearer and as a result of this legend, he is the patron of travelers especially, in modern times, of motorists.

Christopher's message today: We are much luckier than Christopher. While we can all carry Jesus within us, he does not burden us with the weight of the world. Rather, he lifts our burdens from us and helps us to carry them if we follow him.

When your burdens seem too heavy for you to carry, do you turn to Jesus for help? Perhaps Saint Christopher will intercede on your behalf if you say a prayer to him.

GRACIAS

Queridos hermanos y hermanas de la comunidad hispana de las parroquias de Notre Dame de la Mer (Wildwood) y San John Neumann (North Cape May),

Un obispo diocesano tiene la responsabilidad de mostrar preocupación por todos los fieles cristianos confiados a su cuidado. A lo largo de los años, la Diócesis de Camden, bajo el liderazgo pastoral del obispo, ha mantenido la misión y el deseo de servir a la comunidad hispana del sur de Nueva Jersey, atendiendo sus necesidades espirituales y pastorales de la mejor manera posible.

Localmente, tanto en la parroquia de Notre Dame de la Mer como en la de San John Neumann, se han desarrollado diversos ministerios litúrgicos, pastorales y comunitarios en las instalaciones de ambas parroquias. Hace unos años, la Eucaristía empezó a celebrarse únicamente en la iglesia Santa Ana (Wildwood). En aquel momento, la decisión de trasladar la ubicación de la misa se debió a la gran población hispana de la ciudad de Wildwood y al limitado número de sacerdotes que podían celebrar la misa en español. Sin embargo, este traslado se produjo de forma abrupta y sin consulta previa, lo que causó un dolor innecesario a muchas personas de ambas parroquias.

Al analizar constantemente las necesidades de la comunidad hispana, junto con los cambios demográficos en nuestra diócesis, datos recientes muestran que la población hispana en Wildwood ha disminuido (de aproximadamente 1,800 en 2015 a 1,300 en 2023), mientras que el número de hispanos que viven en el territorio de la parroquia San Juan Neumann ha aumentado (de aproximadamente 1,600 en 2015 a 2,800 en 2023), especialmente en las ciudades de Villas y Río Grande.

En el discernimiento de la mejor manera de servir a la comunidad hispana en respuesta a este cambio demográfico y para proporcionar más oportunidades para eventos litúrgicos y pastorales, está en proceso un plan para establecer y centralizar los servicios pastorales y celebraciones litúrgicas en español en la Iglesia San Raymond en Villas (Parroquia San Juan Neumann). Esta ubicación no sólo permitirá celebrar misas en español, sino que también tiene la capacidad de albergar eventos y servicios pastorales en el salón parroquial. Con la ubicación del ministerio hispano redirigido a la parroquia de San John Neumann, por favor sepan que siempre son bienvenidos en la parroquia Notre Dame de la Mer, donde muchos reciben varios servicios en inglés, incluyendo educación religiosa e inscripción en la escuela católica.

Pronto tendrá lugar una reunión con los líderes de la comunidad hispana. Seguidamente, se comunicará la información relativa a las fechas en que tendrán lugar estos cambios. Pedimos sus oraciones y cooperación para que este sea un cambio de esperanza que evangelice más efectivamente a nuestra comunidad hispana. Al mismo tiempo, será una oportunidad para que los servidores hispanos de ambas parroquias continúen con el esfuerzo de formar una comunidad unida.

Unidos en el amor del Espíritu Santo.
