Stewardship

August 7, 2022– Stewardship Hearts

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.”

LUKE 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must live Stewardship and let go of some of the things of this world.

From the Desk of Mary Vey - Administrative Assistant

Dear Fellow Parishioners,

In the readings this week we are reminded of various aspects of faith. The first reading describes the faith that the patriarchs and Israelites have... a faith in the promise that they will be set free from their enslavement in Egypt. The second reading tells how the faith of Abraham and Sarah moved them to follow God's commands, even to sacrifice their only son. Jesus uses parables in the gospel to highlight another aspect of faith...the importance of being prepared.

We are all called to trust God as Abraham and Sarah did. God asks us to commit ourselves...mind, body and soul to His divine plan. We need to be ready to open the door when Jesus comes and knocks. A way to be ready is to be watchful. Watchfulness means living in a consistent virtuous and honest way. We should pay attention to others and have a plan that helps us to be good disciples of Jesus.

Take some time with your family this week and do at least one of the activities listed in the Family Reflection Corner on page 4. They are simple family activities that reinforce the week's readings.

Let us pray that our hearts may be open to God's word and that we may keep ourselves ready at all times. "For this reason you also must be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour when you do not think He will." Matthew 24:44

Blessings to you and your family,

Mary

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Wisdom 18:6-9

You always protect us.

- Today's first reading tells of the experience the Israelites gained from the exodus-wilderness period.
- The Israelites held faith in God's promise to pass them over.
- Because the Israelites were prepared, they were saved.

Reading II: Hebrews 11:1-2, 8-19

In faith we believe what we do not see.

- The Letter to the Hebrews tells of Abraham and Sarah and their faith and trust in the Lord.
- Abraham left his homeland out of faith, and Sarah conceived Isaac through faith.
- Like the Israelites, Abraham and Sarah believed in God's promises and listened to his commands.

Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

We must be ready for God to act in our lives at any time!

- In the Gospel of Luke, the discussion of possessions is raised again.
- Disciples need not worry about collecting possessions, they should be given to the poor.
- Jesus cites two parables, one concerning servants ready for when their master returns, and a second concerning homeowners being prepared for if a thief comes.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- As a family, make a list of faithful people who inspire you by the way they live. Then choose one person from the list and work together to find out more about the person's life.
- Together with your family, discuss how each member gets ready for a special occasion. Share with family members about how you would get ready for a really great party!
- Have a family fire drill. Before the drill, plan the escape routes with the children and emphasize the need to act quickly. Emphasize that once out, they should never go back in the house without your permission. After the drill, talk about how important it is to be prepared in case of an emergency. Relate being prepared for a fire to being prepared to meet God at any moment.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

SAINT OF THE WEEK

ST. DOMINIC

Saint Dominic was born in Caleruega, Spain in 1170. His parents were members of the Spanish nobility and related to the ruling family. His father was Felix Guzman, and was the royal warden of the village. His mother, Bl. Joan of Aza, was a holy woman in her own right. It is known that Dominic was educated in Palencia, and he concentrated on theology and the arts. He spent six years studying theology and four the arts. He was widely acclaimed as an exemplary student by his professors.

In 1191, a famine left many people desolate and homeless across Spain. Dominic sold everything he had, including his furniture and clothes and bought food for the poor. Dominic became famous as a result of his mercy and his work. Several other prominent religious figures of the time petitioned for Dominic to be made bishop. He refused at least three attempts at promotion, saying he would rather run away with nothing than become a bishop. In July 1215, Dominic was granted permission to form his own religious order for this purpose. He was joined by six followers. The group followed a Rule of Life which included a strict routine of discipline, including prayer and penance. They also established a system of education. His order was confirmed on December 22, 1216, and in 1217, Pope Honorius III dubbed Dominic and his followers "The Order of Preachers." (Founding of the Dominicans).

According to writings about him, Dominic chose for himself only the most meager of provisions. His accommodations and clothes were described as "mean." He refused to sleep on a bed. When he reached the edge of a town, he removed his sandals and walked barefoot, regardless of the path. He constantly prayed or issued instruction as he walked and whenever he faced discomfort, he praised God. His only possessions were a small bundle and a staff. In his bundle he kept a copy of the Gospel of Matthew and the Epistles of St. Paul, which he would read over and over again. He always drew great crowds wherever he went.

St. Dominic had different modes of prayer. They include: Bowing, Prostration, Penance, Genuflection, Earnest Contemplation, Arms Outstretched, Supplication, Reading the Word, and Praying Always. The Nine Ways of Prayer of St. Dominic is a treasured Dominican document. For an in depth explanation read "Nine Ways of Prayer of Saint Dominic" by Simon Tugwell O.P.

Saint Dominic is the patron saint of astronomers, the Dominican Republic, and the innocent who are falsely accused of crimes. He is commonly depicted in icons with a dog, or lilies, holding a book. His hair always appears cut with a tonsure. His feast day is August 8.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be August 15th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

El Papa nos dice en su carta apostólica en el #21; que el Espíritu Santo, sumergiéndonos en el misterio pascual, (el sufrimiento, Muerte y Resurrección de Cristo) transforme toda nuestra vida, conformándonos cada vez más con Cristo.

“Mira arriba a los postes eléctricos, cada de vez en cuando hay una transformadora que cambia la energía, entra la electricidad en ella sin fuerza y sale más fuerte y rápida para alumbrar nuestras noches y hacer la vida más fácil, sin electricidad la vida sería más difícil. Así somos nosotros, a veces entramos en la Misa cabizbajo con problemas y preocupaciones fuertes: un hijo enfermo, falta de dinero para pagar las cuentas, tensiones en las relaciones familiares, un hijo o hija que ha cambiado mucho últimamente etc. cada uno tiene su lista. Abriendo nuestros corazones a Cristo, escuchando su palabra y recibéndolo en la comunión, nos va conformando a Cristo, quien sufrió mucho por nosotros. Esa conformidad nos da fuerza en nuestros momentos débiles. Dios no nos quita las dificultades sino nos carga para que podamos pasar por el fuego, y salir purificados.

Pon tu mano en la mano del Señor y te salvará, se hizo uno de nosotros justamente para hacer eso. ¡Bendiciones a todos ustedes y sus familias!
