Message from Stephen Robbins, Seminarian

Dear Brothers and Sisters of NDDL Parish,

To say that this has been an unusual summer to be assigned to a parish as a seminarian would be an understatement! Due to the limitations and precautions we must follow because of Covid-19, our parish has not been able to be quite as active as usual in these summer months. As a result of this, I have not been able to get to know nearly as many of you as I would like.

For those of you who do not know me, I am a seminarian for our diocese, going into my third year of theology studies. God willing, I will be ordained a deacon next year, and a priest in 2022. I am originally from Blackwood, New Jersey, and I am currently studying at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, NY. I first started to consider the idea of becoming a priest in high school, after I repeatedly had people come up to me and ask if I thought about becoming a priest. I prayed, "God, why does everyone keep saying this? Why would You ever choose me?" I felt an inexplicable attraction to the priestly life, but I was so afraid of what others would think of me, and was not willing to part ways with the idea of having a family. I decided to go to college, hoping that I would enjoy myself so much that I could just forget about the idea of becoming a priest. I went to Drexel University, where I was a member of the varsity rowing team. I had a blast during my first semester, but there was something missing. The Lord wouldn't leave me alone, and the question of whether or not I should enter the seminary continued to persist. Over my Christmas break, through the witness of other seminarians at a discernment group meeting, it was as if Jesus spoke directly to my heart, "If they can be happy giving their lives for me, then why can't you?" I decided that I had to give God a chance, and He has been so good to me. My first five years of seminary have been without a doubt the best of my life. I have witnessed firsthand how God always gives us the grace we need to fulfill His will for us.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you all for your prayers and support during my weeks here. Whether through serving at Mass, helping in the office, bringing Jesus to our homebound parishioners, serving at the Lazarus House, teaching summer religious ed, or helping with funerals, I have seen firsthand the ways in which the Holy Spirit is at work in this wonderful parish. I want to thank Father Wallace, Father Steve, Father Alvaro, the parish staff, and all of you for being so welcoming to me. My time here has made me more excited to be a priest than ever before! This parish will forever hold a special place in my heart. Please pray for me as I approach ordination, that I may be a zealous and holy priest. Please know of my prayers for all of you! May God bless this parish!

Parish Information

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date
(the third Monday of the month),

Coronavirus Prayer

Lord Jesus, you heal the sick.
We pray that the coronavirus that has affected so many in our world can be contained, controlled, and cured.

We lift up to your mercy all those affected, all those working hard to study and cure this illness, and all health care professionals and emergency management teams that are working day and night to keep us safe.

Help us, Lord, to trust in your merciful care.

Lord Jesus, hear our prayer.
Amen.

Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains Your Choices Don't Stop With Cremation

Sadly, some of us have experienced the death of a loved one during this COVID-19 pandemic. Many have chosen to have their loved one's remains cremated, whether by choice or necessity. Keep in mind, the Church's teaching recommends cremated remains be given the same respect and reverence as the full body, as cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form and should be given the same respect. Cremated remains should be buried or inurned on sacred grounds. With the pandemic affecting so many, you may not have been able to bury your loved one's remains. It's never too late to bury cremated remains. The staff at South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries is here to help and guide you.

When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

*Ground Burial * Granite or Glass Niches * Crypts * Addition to Family Lot or Crypt * Cremation Garden*

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.

"And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back again and take you to myself, so that where I am you also may be." John 14:3

WHAT IS PREP? The Parish Religious Education Program provides opportunities for growth in faith and knowledge for everyone in our parish family. Primarily this is done through classes offered for the children of the parish who do not attend parochial school and through events and experiences that involve the entire family.

Confirmation

I am waiting for the Bishop to tell me when Confirmation will be. Any graduate of CTC please keep your graduation gown for Confirmation. PREP I have your gowns and will hold until we have more information. Anyone who has not paid the Confirmation fee please do so ASAP.

First Holy Communion

I sent out an email 6/16 about thoughts on when to do First Holy Communion. We are working to figure out what works best for our parish. The office is open. You can pick up your child's FHC book and Banner to do at home. I am working on a video of St. Ann Church to show on a zoom class retreat. Details will be coming. Anyone who has not paid the FHC fee please do so ASAP

The new safe environment training program for adults is VIRTUS® Protecting God's Children.

This replaces CAP.

If you have never been fingerprinted for the Diocese of Camden and you have never attended a CAP session, you are considered a "first time user." First time registrants need to go on the Diocese of Camden website click on the VIRTUS link located at the bottom of the website and follow the directions.

If you have been fingerprinted for the Diocese of Camden and/or you have attended a

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The disciples were afraid of the storm but Jesus reassured them that everything would be okay. Discuss how your family can be there for others in the storms of their life.
- Pray Psalm 139 as your family prayer this week. Talk about your relationship with God. When do you find it difficult to trust in God? When do you feel close to God?
- Seniors have a wealth of stories about the faith they witnessed in their lives. Interview senior members of your family or parish. Ask them about their lives and how their faith in God helped them through difficult times.
- Tell about a time when you were involved in a stormy situation. What went wrong? How did you feel? What did you do? Did your faith in God help you to change the situation?

The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

The Assumption is the oldest feast day of Our Lady, but we don't know how it first came to be celebrated.

After the building of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in 336, the sacred sites began to be restored and memories of the life of Our Lord began to be celebrated by the people of Jerusalem. One of the memories about his mother centered around the "Tomb of Mary," close to Mount Zion, where the early Christian community had lived.

For a time, the "Memory of Mary" was marked only in Palestine, but then it was extended by the emperor to all the churches of the East. In the seventh century, it began to be celebrated in Rome under the title of the "Falling Asleep" ("Dormitio") of the Mother of God. Soon the name was changed to the "Assumption of Mary," since there was more to the feast than her dying. It also proclaimed that she had been taken up, body and soul, into heaven.

That belief was ancient, dating back to the apostles themselves. What was clear from the beginning was that there were no relics of Mary to be venerated, and that an empty tomb stood on the edge of Jerusalem near the site of her death. That location also soon became a place of pilgrimage. (Today, the Benedictine Abbey of the Dormition of Mary stands on the spot.)

At the Council of Chalcedon in 451, Emperor Marcian asked the Patriarch of Jerusalem to bring the relics of Mary to Constantinople to be enshrined in the capitol. The patriarch explained to the emperor that there were no relics of Mary in Jerusalem, that "Mary had died in the presence of the apostles; but her tomb, when opened later . . . was found empty and so the apostles concluded that the body was taken up into heaven."

The Assumption is God's crowning of His work as Mary ends her earthly life and enters eternity. The feast turns our eyes in that direction, where we will follow when our earthly life is over. Assumption looks to eternity and gives us hope that we, too, will follow Our Lady when our life is ended.

The prayer for the feast reads: "All-powerful and ever-living God: You raised the sinless Virgin Mary, mother of your Son, body and soul, to the glory of heaven. May we see heaven as our final goal and come to share her glory."

What's My Name?

The #WHATSMYNAME Movement asks everyone to simply ask drivers "What's my name?" before entering their vehicle to make sure it is the car they are supposed to enter.
