Stewardship

August 29, 2021– Grateful Stewardship
22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Be doers of the word and not hearers only...” James 1:22

It's easy to understand the definition of Stewardship – living a grateful and generous life. The hard part is doing it! How do your actions reflect God's word? Do you share your time in prayer with God? Do you use your talent to help those in need? Are you generous with your financial resources? If not, what are you waiting for?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioner,

I can't believe another summer has come and gone! It feels like just last week I was getting ready for priesthood ordinations, graduation, and waiting to find out who our new pastor would be. In the blink of an eye, however, all these things have passed. Our diocese was blessed with two newly ordained, I received my diploma, and we expressed a tough farewell to Father Wallace and a warm welcome to Fr. Mazz.

During this summer, however, you may have noticed that I was not very active in our parish. Instead, Bishop Sullivan blessed me with the opportunity to work in Sea Isle City with Fr. Perry Cherubini. During my time in Sea Isle, I was able to see how a parish operates from a different perspective. My work was not solely pastoral either. I had a dual job so to say at the parish. In the mornings, I would work with the maintenance man, Ron. After working with him, I would do whatever had to get done with Fr. Perry and his dedicated staff. It truly was an honor to be there for the summer. I learned how important it is to upkeep your buildings, the importance of having good relationships with your staff and different parish councils, the need to visit the sick and homebound, and the need to balance my day with prayer and work. I look forward to my future assignments and pray that they will be just as beneficial to me as this assignment was.

Although I enjoyed my time in Sea Isle, home is home. It was great being back in Wildwood for daily Mass before I went up to St. Joseph's Seminary for orientation. Seeing the prayers, love, and support from my parish family means so much to me, and I hope you are aware of how grateful I am to have such a community. I ask you to please keep me in your prayers and be assured of my prayers for you.

God bless,
Thomas Piro

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Deuteronomy 4:1-2, 6-8

Hear the decrees which I am teaching you.

- For the authors of Deuteronomy, Israel's tragic situation was the result of its infidelity and disobedience.
- The solution to Israel's problem was conversion and obedience.
- Israel's greatness lies not in its own strength but in God who remains faithful.

Reading II: James 1:17-18, 21b-22, 27

Welcome the word which has taken root in you.

- The Letter of James encourages us to welcome the word that has been planted in us.
- We are the first fruit of God's new creation and thus set apart for God.
- The evidence of this new life is seen in how we deal with others.

Gospel: Mark 7:1-8, 14-15, 21-23

This people pays me lip service.

- The Pharisees in today's Gospel were especially concerned with food laws and purity laws because these were what distinguished Israel from the Gentile nations.
- Jesus points out that some of the things many Pharisees cling to so tenaciously are human traditions and not the law of God.
- The more serious matter is God's command to love one's neighbor.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- As a family, choose a way to put faith into action this week. Ask each family member to offer suggestions. Each member chooses one action for this week.
- Post a list of family rules. Have each member select a rule he or she has difficulty following. Discuss as a family how each member understands the rules.
- Read stories from the lives of the saints. Talk about how their faith in Jesus showed through their words and actions.
- God's laws, including the Ten Commandments, were given so that we can live in love and peace with God, with one another, and with all of creation. As a family, choose a commandment as your special focus for action this week. Near the end of the week, share with other family members what choices you made and the consequences of your actions.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director.
Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be September 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

Adoration

WHEN: Every Thursday

TIME: 9:00 AM -10:00 AM

WHERE: Assumption Church.

Worship of the Eucharist. "In the liturgy of the Mass we express our faith in the real presence of Christ under the species of bread and wine by, among other ways, genuflecting or bowing deeply as a sign of adoration of the Lord. "The Catholic Church has always offered and still offers to the sacrament of the Eucharist the cult of adoration, not only during Mass, but also outside of it, reserving the consecrated hosts with the utmost care, exposing them to the solemn veneration of the faithful, and carrying them in procession." Cremation and Proper Handling of Cremated Remains Your Choices Don't Stop with Cremation

While you may have chosen to be cremated, remember to choose your final resting place. Although the Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed, it does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form. We should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. When choosing cremation, there are many choices available including:

*Ground Burial * Granite or Glass Niches * Crypts * Addition to Family Lot or Crypt*

Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org to learn more or call us at 855-MyPrePlan (855-697-7375) and a member of our staff will gladly assist you.

books needing to be shipped.

PREP CLASSES

SCHOOL YEAR: Classes will be held on Sundays 9 -10:10 a.m. With the class being off the last Sunday of the month.

SUMMER INTENSIVE: Classes are held daily from 8:30 a.m. to noon, July 26 to Aug. 6. Classes are held at WCA building.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments. Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS: All students are required to do six (6) Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or mass. Notre Dame de la Mer will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may chose to do events outside our parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

"No solo escuchen la palabra de Dios; tienen que ponerla en práctica"... SANTIAGO 1:22

Es fácil comprender la definición de corresponsabilidad -vivir una vida agradecida y generosa. ¡La parte difícil es hacerlo! ¿Como reflejan sus acciones la palabra de Dios? ¿Comparte su tiempo en oración con Dios? ¿Usa sus talentos para ayudar a aquellos que lo necesitan? ¿Es usted generoso con sus recursos financieros? Si no es así, ¿que está esperando?
