Stewardship

September 15, 2024
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Lifestyle

“Whoever wishes to come after me must deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.” MARK 8:34

Living a Stewardship lifestyle means not only being responsible for my own life, but for the lives of others as well. We realize that our gifts are not intended for ourselves, rather they are meant to be shared with others. “Taking up my cross” means doing things when someone else needs me and not when it’s convenient for me.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life’s everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear parishioners,

Today we are being asked to answer the following question; do we value present day joy...and the way of the world...over eternal happiness?

My friends, Jesus made a bold declaration to anyone who wants to be his Disciple. He said, "if you want to come after me you must deny yourself and take up your cross and follow me."

The story has been told of a man who constantly complained about the size of the cross he had been called to bear. He was convinced that he had it more difficult in life than anybody. If only he could talk to God face to face about the situation. His complaining began to get on heaven's nerves.

Finally, an angel came down and took him to heaven. Look, all you do is complain about the size of your cross. Come into the room of crosses and choose which one you want to bear. Seeing crosses of all sizes, he pointed to the small cross. The angel said, "are you sure that's the cross you want?" The man replied, look you don't know what I've been through. I'm not carrying any of these large crosses.

The angel said that the only reason he asked whether he was sure that that was the cross he wanted is because that's the cross he had before he got here.

Unfortunately, many of us misunderstand what it is to take up the cross. So today we are being challenged to fight the temptation to take care of number one, to remain in our own self-centeredness. In fact, to do so, we have to take steps to deny ourselves for the sake of the kingdom of God. My friends, the way of sacrificial love is the acceptance of the cross and be willing to pay the price not for ourselves but for others.

You see, for Jesus it meant going to a cross because he loved us so much he could do nothing else. For us it means reaching out to people who are unlovable and who may never return the love. And yet we are to keep on loving because that's what Jesus did. It is hard, I know, to love people who live in a different world than we do, those who hate us. And yet cross bearing means that.

My friends, Jesus offers us a cross not a life of ease. Let's have the courage...indeed be willing to pay the price...step out of our world and embrace it, or can it be that the values and ways of the world...stand in our way?

May God our father give you grace and peace!

Deacon Nick

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 50:5-9a

The Lord God is my help.

- The first reading from the prophet Isaiah is from the Songs of the Suffering Servant.
- The servant acts as a prophet to bring the word of God to those with afflictions.
- Even when the cost is great, the servant is faithful to his mission.

Reading II : James 2:14-18

What good is it to say you believe, if you don't practice it?

- The reading from the Letter of James tells us that faith without works is dead.
- Such a faith does not lead to life.
- The kinds of works that Jesus calls us to can be done if we walk in the way of Jesus, with the grace of God as our help.

Gospel : Mark 8:27-35

Who do you say that I am?

- Jesus knew that the way of suffering, death and resurrection was predestined for him by God.
- Through this as in all things, God, his Father would be his help.
- Followers of Jesus are called to deny themselves by actively responding to the needs of others, even if the cost is one's life.

FATIMA PROCESSION—OCT. 12th

On October 12, at 9am following morning Mass, for the Fourth year in a row, Notre Dame de la Mer will be part of the nationwide Rosary process, celebrating that "America needs Fatima."

Last year, all across the United States, faithful Catholics gathered together in public squares to pray the rosary as one in October. TFP sponsored 22,045 Public Square Rosary Rallies nationwide to beseech Our Lady's intervention for the nation and the world. NDDLDM was one of those sponsors. These rosary rallies have a simple purpose: to ask God, through Our Lady's rosary, to save America from its current moral, spiritual, financial and political crises. This year, as we enter into a tumultuous election season in our country, we are well aware of the continued need for Our Lady's protection and guidance.

This past May procession had 50 faithful NDDLDM Catholics process to the beach for "America Needs Fatima" in solemn prayer for an end to Abortion and for the Jews and Palestinians affected by the war launched by Hamas.

Please join us, followed with coffee and cake in Monsignor Kelly Hall, Assumption Church.

Saint of the Week:

Helen, mother, c.250-c.330

As with many saints of this era of the Church, many conflicting stories of Helen's life exist. Where most accounts agree is that Helen (or Helena) was married to Constantius Chlorus and was the mother of Constantine the Great. Constantine called Helen to the royal court and conferred on her the title of Augusta.

Under the influence of her son, Helen embraced Christianity and spent the remainder of her life working to spread Christianity. Among her good works were the construction of several churches in Rome and other cities in the Western Roman Empire. Her charities were also especially compassionate toward the poor of the empire.

Traveling to the Holy Land, Helen followed the footsteps of Jesus and then had two churches constructed in Bethlehem at the Grotto of the Nativity and at the Mount of the Ascension near Jerusalem. Her group also found the cross on which Christ died, together with the crosses that held the thieves. Uncertain as to which was the true cross, Helen consulted St. Macarius. This saint suggested that she take the crosses to a woman who was suffering from an incurable disease. Touching each cross in turn, the woman was immediately healed when she touched the true cross. This event is celebrated on September 14, the feast of The Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

St. Helen is the patron of archeologists, converts, divorced people, and the diocese of Helena, Montana. In many places in the Western Church, this saint is honored on August 18.

A PRAYER FOR CATECHISTS

Loving Father, we pray today for our catechists. We thank you for their gift of ministry in your Church.

Grant them your wisdom that they may grow in the understanding and teaching of your Word. Grant them also your love that they may be fruitful heralds of your Word and lead others to love you.

Pour forth your Holy Spirit upon them to grant them wisdom about what is important; knowledge of the truths of faith; understanding of their meaning; right judgement about how to apply them in life; courage to persevere even in the face of adversity; reverence before all that is sacred and holy; and that loving zeal which leads others to a transforming encounter with your Son.

We pray this through Christ, our Lord . Amen
