Stewardship

September 24, 2023

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewards Share

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last".
MATTHEW 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called in Stewardship to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Mary Vey - Administrative Assistant

Dear Parishioners,

It is hard to believe that this is the first weekend of Fall. Our daylight hours will continue to shrink until the Winter Solstice on December 21. Autumn is a wonderful season. The days are generally mild while the evenings are cool and crisp. We are blessed to live in a geographical area that yields a bountiful array of colorful foliage. Autumn is a time that animals gather food in preparation for the upcoming winter. Those with fur grow thicker coats and birds migrate south to escape the falling temperatures.

Autumn is also the season of festivals. We welcome the Irish to our island this weekend as they celebrate their heritage and culture. The Wildwoods are fortunate to have four active Irish Organizations: Ancient Order of Hibernians (men and woman groups), Emerald Society and the Anglesea Irish Society. These men and women seek to improve the lives of their community by actively immersing themselves in various projects.

On Saturday, September 2 the parish lost a member of our family. I don't believe she was ever a member of the LAOH. However, she lived the mission of Friendship, Unity and Catholic Charity. Marie Gallagher could be found at St Ann Saturday evening Mass each week greeting and distributing the bulletin. She also volunteered at most special Masses and events at both St. Ann and Assumption churches. Marie volunteered at the parish office and Wildwood Catholic Academy's car and 50/50 raffles. You would find Marie at the Forever Young table greeting and collecting money. She was a proud Irish 94 year old friend. Marie was not a healthy woman but you would never know it. She always had a smile. She never complained but would be honest if you asked her how her day was going. I'm not sure but I think she was the "queen" at the Lion's Center. She listened to everyone's problems, complaints and concerns. Marie was well respected in the community and will be sorely missed.

How would you make a difference in the lives of the people in your community? What will be your legacy? How do you want to be remembered? I'm sure Marie never thought about her legacy. She would be embarrassed with this tribute. She never wanted the limelight, except on her birthday! If you knew Marie, you were blessed. She was a mother, grandmother, friend to so many. I had the privilege of knowing her as both a mom and friend.

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 55:6-9

Seek the Lord while he may be found.

- In the reading from Isaiah, God's justice is measured by the demands of mercy.
- The prophet tells God's people in exile that a return to their land is possible.
- Only in faith would the people be able to seek the Lord and turn from their evil ways. .

Reading II: Philippians 1:20c-24, 27a

To me, life means Christ.

- The Letter to the Philippians was written when Paul was imprisoned.
- In today's passage, Paul asks the Philippians to imitate Christ.
- Even in prison Paul was willing to continue working in the vineyard, knowing that his reward would be far greater than he could imagine.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16a

The parable of the vineyard.

- Throughout the Gospel of Matthew, the author gives new interpretations to Jewish laws.
- Today's parable shows the power and generosity of God, along with the need for human willingness.
- Jesus' parable teaches that God is merciful to all.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- To help your family celebrate the Generosity of God, before grace at meals, join hands and thank God for the ways in which God has entered and become part of your life. Thank God for the individual blessings each one has received and for the family blessings.
- As a game, count your family blessings. Sit in a circle and take turns naming one blessing you have from God. For an additional challenge, use the alphabet; begin with a gift that begins with "A," then "B," and so forth. See how long you can keep going.
- Practice generosity in your family. Take time to name and celebrate the gifts of each person in the family. What are ways we can encourage one another to develop our gifts?.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

School Year Family Catechesis

I am happy to announce this year instead of the traditional Sunday PREP classes we will be doing Family Catechesis.

This format will help strengthen the family faith and refresh parents' religious education. We will come together one Sunday a month for about an hour. I will have a meeting with the parents to discuss what will be taught at home over the next month while the children go to the classrooms to review the lessons that were taught at home the last month. Class will end with the 10:30 am Mass at St. Ann Church.

For more information come to a parent meeting Sunday 9/17/23 at St. Ann Church after the 10:30 am mass. Anyone can attend!

Parish Religious Education Program

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

Summer Intensive: which begins the last Monday in July through first week in August. 8:30 am-12:00 pm.

Teens: 9-12th graders will be decided on an individual bases. Depending on the level of instruction needed.

Adults seeking the faith will be entered into the RCIA program. RCIA usually meets once a week starting in September and going through the Easter Season.
