Stewardship

October 8, 2023

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The stone that the builders rejected has become the cornerstone..." - Matthew 21:42

Corner Stone Stewardship

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a Stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

From the Desk of Rev. Leonard Peterson...a reflection

The long-lived and well-known trademark of the RCA company featured a small dog, later named "Nipper," with his head turned toward the opening of an old-fashioned gramophone speaker over the caption: "His Master's voice." It made the point for the company's voice and musical reproduction.

We in this age of high-tech sound equipment still hear the voice of Christ our Master filtered through the Scripture Readings at Mass and the bible in general as presented to us by our Church. So, it is today, as we hear that unique parable of the vineyard, in which Christ tells His audience of "the chief priests and elders of the people" the story of salvation.

We note that the landowner "leased the property" to the "tenants," who represent the people of Israel. When vintage time came near (that of the final judgment) the owner sent his servants (the Israelites) to obtain his produce.

The tenants mistreat and kill all the servants (prophets) until the owner (God the Father) decides to send his Son (Jesus). Him they seized and killed after throwing him out of the vineyard to a hill just outside the walls of Jerusalem (Calvary).

When Jesus asked His listeners "What would the owner do to those tenants?" they unwittingly pronounced their own doom as deserving of a wretched death. With that would come the leasing of the vineyard "to other tenants" (the Gentiles).

Think of this story as a "mirror parable," It had to have had a devastating impact on its original listeners when Jesus flatly told them "The kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that will produce its fruit." I can imagine the human side of Jesus feeling pain that He had to say such to His own people. But He had to speak truth to power.

Our noisy world makes it difficult sometimes to hear our Master's voice above the din of our anti-Christian culture. What would it be like if some kind of solar ray suddenly caused all radios, i phones and i pods, stereos and televisions to stop working? Trembling hands would immediately twirl dials, adjust knobs, and flip switches. Eyes would be dilated with fear of the silence. People would be in terror.

In this context, I have to say that Karl Marx was wrong when he declared that "religion is the opiate of the people." For us, I think our collective "drug" is noise. Most people will listen to anything to avoid silence. Why else do we have so many overly long talk shows? Or 24/7 news? Or call-in radio programs? Why? Because sound blocks any despairing cry of our own souls. It overpowers "the still, small voice of God." Talk about our "Master's voice."! Why not take some extra time this coming week to tune in? You'll find out that:

God truly loves you and gives you, His peace

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 5:1-7

Israel is the vineyard of the Lord.

- The first 39 chapters of the Book of Isaiah are called First Isaiah.
- First Isaiah preaches about faithfulness to God and Salvation.
- In today's passage Isaiah sings a story about an unfruitful vineyard.

Reading II: Philippians 4:6-9

Present your needs to God.

- In the Letter to the Philippians, Paul gives advice for Christian living.
- Christians are to imitate Christ and to live according to what he has taught them.
- The harvest would come, not from their worry but from their prayer and trusting labor.

Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

They killed even the son.

- The Gospel is another parable about a vineyard.
- In this story, the problem was not the vineyard itself, but those entrusted with its care.
- Jesus' hearers knew on whom the judgment fell; the chief priests and the Pharisees.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- In today's parable of the tenants, the landowner gives his tenants a second chance. Have a family discussion about second chances. At the end of the discussion, have each member write down one anxiety that he or she is trying to relieve. To symbolize their being given a second chance, have family members tear their papers into little pieces and throw them away or burn the papers in an appropriate place.
- Today's parables teach about God's justice. God's justice calls us to be caretakers of this world and all its gifts. Talk about the importance of stewardship of the earth's resources. Begin by taking a walk or drive to look for signs of good stewardship and signs of poor stewardship. Who is responsible for taking care of the earth's resources? What can we do as a family?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

St Ann: Rick Lamb /b Family

Assumption: Joan Yancer r/b John Ryan & Anna Ryan

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK-3 to 12th grade 609-522-7257

Wildwood Catholic is celebrating their 75th Anniversary this school year.

Recently the dedication of a historical marker was presented by the City of North Wildwood. The ceremony also included a kick-off mass and recognition of past alumni, teachers and friends.

We were so happy to have Margaret Mary Bleiler Dougherty, a member of our first graduating class in 1950. Mary Elizabeth Monichetti Keane, Class of 1951 and Kathleen Ann Dickson Scully, Class of 1954 among other alumni join us.

School Year Family Catechesis

I am happy to announce this year instead of the traditional Sunday PREP classes we will be doing Family Catechesis.

This format will help strengthen the family faith and refresh parents' religious education. We will come together one Sunday a month for about an hour. I will have a meeting with the parents to discuss what will be taught at home over the next month while the children go to the classrooms to review the lessons that were taught at home the last month. Class will end with the 10:30 am Mass at St. Ann Church.

For more information come to a parent meeting Sunday 9/17/23 at St. Ann Church after the 10:30 am mass. Anyone can attend!

Parish Religious Education Program

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

Summer Intensive: which begins the last Monday in July through first week in August. 8:30 am-12:00 pm.

Teens: 9-12th graders will be decided on an individual bases. Depending on the level of instruction needed.

Adults seeking the faith will be entered into the RCIA program. RCIA usually meets once a week starting in September and going through the Easter Season.

Please call Donnamarie Sexton for more information. 609-522-2709 ext 218
