Stewardship

October 10, 2021– Stewards Give All 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for one who is rich to enter the kingdom of God.” (MARK 10:25)

Jesus uses tough language that we may not want to hear. But, Stewards are all called to be generous with all of our gifts. Not just the ones we pick and choose, but all our gifts, and especially the one that means the most to us! That includes our time in prayer to God, our talent in participating in parish ministries, and our treasure supporting our local parish and other charities.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Friends,

In today's Gospel the Ten Commandments are referenced but Jesus also mentions we need to follow him. This Gospel to me is a perfect mix of the Old and the New Testament blending together. Following the Commandments that God gave to Moses in the Old Testament is a good start but we also need to follow the example of Jesus that we see in the New Testament.

In the New Testament (Matthew 5:3-12) Jesus teaches how to be a good and loving person along with the rewards of doing so in the Sermon on the Mount. This is where he teaches us the Beatitudes. Those who are poor in spirit, mourn, are meek, righteous, merciful, pure in heart, peacemakers and those who are persecuted, all will be rewarded in heaven for doing the right thing.

In Matthew 22:34-40, Jesus simplifies the Commandments down to just two. He says, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself." If you breakdown the Ten Commandments the first three are about loving God. Do not have other God's, do not take his name in vain, and honor his day. The next seven are about loving others as yourself. Honor your father and mother, do not kill, do not commit adultery, do not lie, do not steal, do not be jealous of what your neighbor has.

The Works of Mercy can also be found spread throughout both the Old and New Testament. We need to instruct the ignorant, counsel the doubtful, admonish the sinner, be patient, forgiving, comforting and pray. Along with giving food and water to those who hunger and thirst, clothe and shelter those who do not have, visit the sick and imprisoned, and bury the dead.

As a new school year begins and I start to prepare for my third week of PREP classes I reflect on all these lessons both in the Old and New Testaments. I hope and pray that not only are my students learning these valuable life lessons in the classroom but also learning through the example of others, myself included. It is our duty as Catholics to lead by example. You are never too young or too old to be kind. Go out and change the world one day at a time.

God Bless,

Donnamarie Black

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Wisdom 7:7-11

Prudence was given to me.

- The first reading stresses the value of seeking wisdom above all else.
- Wisdom is greater than all good things.
- The possession of wisdom leads to a good life.

Reading II: Hebrews 4:12-13

God's word is living.

- A hint of caution is expressed in the reading from Hebrews.
- God's word reveals the truth to our hearts.
- It is up to us to turn to the word of God for guidance and insight.

Gospel: Mark 10:17-30

Come, follow me.

- In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus meets a rich young man who wishes to share in everlasting life.
- The young man's attachment to his possessions prevents him from acquiring the riches of God's kingdom.
- Only God can give human beings the ability to let go of everything for the sake of God's kingdom.

Family Reflection Corner

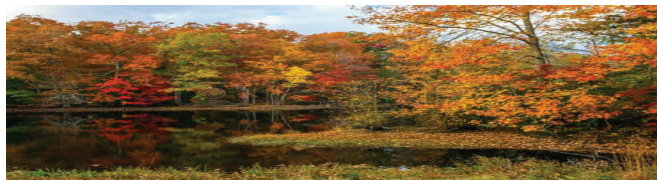

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The rich young man in today's Gospel could not let go of his possessions. As a family talk about what it would be like to sell everything you own. Discuss the following: What makes you truly happy? How does God help make all things possible?
- Sit down with your family and have each person bring his or her purse or wallet. Take a moment for each family member to pull out one thing that is most valuable and one thing that is least valuable. Take turns explaining your choices. As a family, discuss what it means to put God first.
- Think about the talents your family possesses. Write each one down. Then decide how you can share these "possessions" with others.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be October 18th

What Is PREP

SCHOOL YEAR: Classes will be held on Sundays. At WCA 9 -10:10 a.m. With the class being off the last Sunday of the month.

SUMMER INTENSIVE: Classes are held daily from 8:30 a.m. to noon, July 26 to Aug. 6. Classes are held at WCA building.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments. Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS: All students are required to do six (6) Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or mass. Notre Dame de la Mer will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may chose to do events outside our parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

10 de octubre de 2021

Domingo 280 del Tiempo Ordinario

“Es más fácil que un camello pase por el ojo de una aguja que un rico entre en el reino de Dios”.
(Marcos 10:25)

Jesús utiliza un lenguaje fuerte que no quisiéramos escuchar. Sin embargo, todos somos llamados a ser generosos con todos nuestros dones. No solo con los que señalamos y escogemos, sino con todos nuestros dones, ¡y especialmente con los de mayor significado para nosotros! Eso incluye nuestro tiempo de oración a Dios, nuestro talento para participar en los ministerios parroquiales y nuestros tesoros para apoyar nuestra iglesia local y otras caridades.
