29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Service

*“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
(MARK 10:45)*

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change to Stewardship will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the desk of Rev. Leonard Peterson...a reflection

Dear Friend,

Devotees of daytime TV know all about “The Price is Right.” I found out that it happens to be TV’s longest running game show. The gist of it is that participants try to win cash and prizes by guessing the prices of various merchandise. In order to win, their decision can neither be too low nor too high.

Coincidentally, we come across in today’s Gospel from Mark about 2 “contestants” vying for the prize of glory with no idea of the price to pay. Their names are James and John, two of the twelve Apostles. To their way of thinking, glory involves sitting on thrones next to Jesus. So, it is worth their while to “play the game.”

Before reflecting on His answer, please note that Jesus does not snap at His questioners or call them out for their selfish and disrespectful request. Instead, He simply tells them, “Fellas, you don’t know what you are asking.” Then he quotes the “price”: undergoing a painful “baptism” of suffering. True discipleship has a price. They (and we readers of this gospel) are meant to understand that for all time. Of course, by now we know this from life experience.

Quite naturally, the other ten Apostles were indignant at their comrades’ behavior. They had asked a crude and manipulative question of the Master. We could well ask ourselves the conscience troubling question: “Have we ever tried to manipulate God? Turned Him into some kind of good luck charm that puts Him at our beck and call to grant us some favor we crave?”

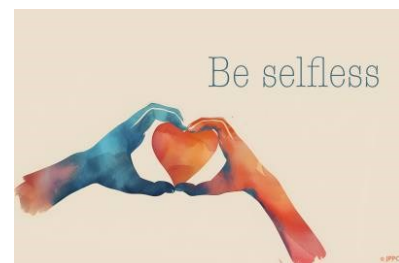

Worse still, have we ever turned against Him when He doesn’t respond as we would like? That underlies such thoughts as “Well, I’m not going to believe in Him (or His Church) anymore because He didn’t give me what I wanted!” But doesn’t that read like a petulant toddler at worst, or a fair-weather friend at least?

The dialogue between Jesus and the 2 petitioners James and John leads Jesus to give the whole group (and us) the real “price” of discipleship: wholehearted giving of ourselves in service to others. It is amply illustrated by the nearest crucifix. The resurrection of Jesus tells us the price was right. Still, the way to greatness is life’s labor. As the poet asks:

“Why are people great? Well...
The heights by great people reached and kept
We’re not attained by sudden flight.
But they, while their companions slept,
We’re toiling upward in the night.”

God love you and give you his peace.

Rev. Leonard Peterson

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Isaiah 53:10-11

He shall see light in due time.

- There are five songs in Isaiah that describe the suffering of a servant of the Lord.
- Today's passage was written toward the end of the Babylonian exile.
- In this last song, with death approaching, the servant's suffering is revealed as atonement for the guilt of others.

Reading II : Hebrews 4:14-16

We have a great high priest!

- In Hebrews, the author points out the supremacy of Jesus' priesthood.
- Jesus knows our weakness and has shared our suffering.
- Through Jesus, the great work of God's salvation has been accomplished.

Gospel : Mark 10:35-45

The first shall be last.

- In today's Gospel story, James and John ask for positions of honor in the kingdom.
- Jesus tells them that the only position they should seek is the position he has assumed, that of a servant.
- The Gospel of Mark shows the substantial demands placed on Jesus' followers.

Family Reflection Corner

Theme: We are called to serve as Jesus served.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

When you hear Jesus' teaching today, what words or phrases strike you? What image from Mark's Gospel lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: Name some ways that you can serve others.

Question for Youth: Jesus changed the way we think of leadership to be someone who serves others. How are you a leader in school, your family, the parish and/or your community?

Question for Adults: What are some times in your own life when you have the chance to be last instead of first?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Saint of the Week:

Isaac Joques, Priest and Martyr, 1607-1646

Born in Orleans, France, the son of a wealthy merchant, Isaac Joques was sent to a Jesuit school when he was ten years old. While at first wary of the strict rules of his new school, by the time Isaac graduated, he was determined to become a Jesuit priest and a missionary. He served among the native peoples of Canada, and often suffered greatly at their hands for his faith. Nonetheless, he continued his work for the Gospel and through him, many people came to believe in Christ.

Isaac Joques strongly felt God's calling and, even knowing that he would suffer martyrdom if he returned to the Iroquois, he willingly did so. Few of us are called to martyrdom today, though many will suffer some degree of persecution.

Feast Day, October 19

Isaac's message today: Isaac Joques strongly felt God's calling and, even knowing that he would suffer martyrdom if he returned to the Iroquois, he willingly did so. Few of us are called to martyrdom today, though many will suffer some degree of persecution.
