Letter From Sister Rosaline Walters

Dear Parishioners,

How's your faith? In case you were unaware, faith has tremendous power. Like a seed it holds and gives birth to new life. That's Jesus message in today's readings. Let's ask ourselves a couple of questions. Is my faith waning due to prayers I have said for a special intention and they don't seem to be answered; or because we have scandals in our Church; or because we have gay or lesbian members in our families? Are these and other problems causing us to hold on to our faith by a thread? Be consoled because this thread is enough for Jesus. Faith lives within us. It is the center of our lives, and of our relationships. Faith gives us a reason for existence and a purpose for living – it animates our whole being.

If you look in your Bible, the sentence before our 2nd reading of today describes how Timothy came to believe in Jesus. What we believe becomes evident in the way we think and act. Have we ever said: I don't know how people handle this or that without faith? Our faith is the basis for what we say, and how we act? Jesus tells us that faith is able to command a sycamore tree to be uprooted from the ground and replanted in the sea. We might say if we plant it in the sea it will die. But this exaggerated statement is used to make a point – that faith can do the impossible. Faith can move mountains. Do we not expect God to solve all our problems; to heal all our ills? But our faith may become weak when our prayers to God seemingly go unanswered. We need to ask ourselves if our worries or concerns are from God or another human being. We need to see God as our friend, not as a punisher who sends evil into our lives. We need to use Jesus, God's Son as our model. Jesus did not free himself from suffering, pain or even death, but suffered and died in order to attain, for us, new life; and, also, to be an example to us.

This brings us to Luke's gospel for today, where we read; "Who can eat at Jesus' table?" Jesus eats with everyone and anyone. The master in today's gospel does not invite his slave to sit down and eat and drink with him. Instead, Jesus tells the servant he may eat after serving his master's meal. This parable teaches us not to become status seekers, but to see ourselves as slaves with the duty to serve others just as Jesus had done. Jesus came "to serve others rather than be served." Jesus was willing to eat with the poor, women, fishermen, Pharisees, and even tax collectors. Therefore, we should be challenged not to discriminate socially against others due to status, gender, or social inequalities. We need to remember that black lives matter; blue lives matter; and all people of all faiths and circumstances matter. Let your faith be your guide!

Prayerfully,
Sister Ro

Stewardship

Stewardship Requires Self-Control

"For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice but rather of power and love and self-control."
2 Timothy 1:7

Many of us compartmentalize our Faith, we bring it out only when we attend Mass or when we attend a parish event. Stewardship requires discipline and striving to put God first in everything all the time. The next time you are at a neighborhood party, at work or out shopping, would your actions signal to others that you are a good and faithful servant of our Lord?

DID YOU KNOW - the House of Charity

is a donor choice for many employee giving campaigns?

Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving

Campaigns this month and continue to solicit donations through the fall months. Employee Giving/United Way campaigns give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represent our beliefs, interests and social concerns. Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to: In the Donor Choice Section, designate the "HOUSE of Charity" Ask to be acknowledged! This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal. If the agency requests a code for your donor choice...these codes may be found on the House of Charity website under "Employee Giving Campaign" and in the Catholic Star Herald. Your donation to our House of Charity helps to build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. These programs save lives and build futures. Thank you so much for your past, present and future support of our House of Charity fundraising campaign. If you have any questions, please contact: Sheila McGirl, House of Charity (856) 583-6128 BishopsAppeal@camdendiocese.org

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, November 5, 2016, from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Notre Dame de la Mer Baptism Changes

Beginning this month, October 2016 Baptism will be celebrated after the 10:30 a.m. Mass on the Fourth Sunday of each month. In the months of March, June, September and December each year Baptism will also be celebrated during the 10:30 a.m. Mass on the Second Sunday of the month. In December of 2016 there will be no baptisms after the 10:30 a.m. Mass on the Fourth Sunday due to the fact that the Fourth Sunday is Christmas Day. Please check the parish website for a list of the baptism dates for the next year.

It is also suggested that if you will be celebrating the sacrament of Baptism in the near future and need to attend a baptismal preparation class that you look ahead and attend the class before your child is born. In the same way that you prepare for the birth of your child with clothing and furniture and a new room you need to prepare for your child in the faith by attending the baptismal preparation class and selecting appropriate godparents who can help you with your child's growth in the faith.

Any questions about Baptism please call AnnaMae at the parish office at 609-522-2709 ext. 218

Cremation Burial | Group Funeral & Committal Service

Saturday, October 29, 2016 | Check-in at 9 AM
St. Maximilian Kolbe Parish | Marmora, NJ and
Resurrection Cemetery | Clermont, NJ

Yes, cremation is an accepted practice for Catholics. The Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the bodies of the dead be observed. It does not however, forbid cremation unless it has been chosen for reasons which are contrary to Christian teaching 1983 Code of Canon Law.

Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form, and we should honor them as we honor the body. They must be reverently buried or entombed in a place reserved for the burial of the dead. Since the human body was the temple of the Holy Spirit during life, was fed at the Eucharistic table, and will share in the bodily resurrection, contemporary cultural practices like scattering the cremated remains over water or from the air or keeping the cremated remains at home are not considered reverent forms of disposition that the Church requires. Other practices such as combining multiple sets of cremated remains or dividing up cremated remains among family members or friends are not acceptable for Catholics.

South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries is offering to bury cremated remains that you have in your possession. We are happy to make this offer at no cost to you. On Saturday, October 29, 2016, we will hold a funeral mass at St. Kolbe Maximilian Parish in Marmora followed by a group committal service at Resurrection Cemetery. In order to accommodate all who require this service, pre-registration is required. The deadline is Monday, October 24, 2016. To learn more and to pre-register, please visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org, call 855-MyPrePlan or ask your parish office for the pre-registration form. Completed pre-registration forms must be mailed to South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries, Diocese of Camden at 631 Market Street, Camden, NJ 08102
