Stewardship

October 22, 2023

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Priorities

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's. - Matthew 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "Stewards" of the gifts God have given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

From the Desk of Fr. Thomas Kiely

Dear Parishioners,

I have always loved the month of October when the first signs of autumn usually appear with the changing color of leaves and a cooler crispness that fills the air. Most importantly pumpkin appears everywhere and a certain glow forms around us pumpkin lovers. A love going back, perhaps, to the colonial time of Ichabob Crane in Sleepy Hollow to the anticipation of the Great Pumpkin waited upon by the ever patient Linus and Charlie Brown. We are immersed in pumpkin coffee, pumpkin beer, pumpkin cookies and houses decorated with all those wonderful colors of autumn and, of course, pumpkins!

Yet, there is another reason I love October that far exceeds any other, including pumpkin treats! This is designated as the month of our Holy Mother Mary. October 7th was the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary and the 13th was the anniversary of the miracle of Fatima. It is a very special month for us to look toward our heavenly Mother with love and devotion and place ourselves in her care. Have we opened our hearts to her? Have we begun praying the Rosary every day? Our Lady wishes to bring peace to our hearts and lead us to Her Son, our Savior. She wishes us to understand our purpose for living is united in a call to share Christ light in the world. We must be instruments of His peace! In these times we our living we see the lack of peace in the world- the violence, division, hatred and confusion that permeates our lives. Our heavenly Mother has appeared throughout the world with very important messages and warnings for our times. Our we listening? Our we aware of her messages and many miracles that have and our occurring? Our we prepared for the events that our before us? She calls us to prayer, fasting, conversion, peace and turning back to God.

In 2017, on the 100th anniversary of Fatima, if you looked up at the night sky you would see an amazing occurrence. The King planet Jupiter entered into the constellation Virgo and the sun settled behind it. The moon was positioned at its feet and Mars, mercury and Venus joined the 9 stars at the head of the constellation forming a crown of 12 stars. It formed the image of our Lady clothed in the sun with the moon at her feet and a crown of 12 stars, as seen in 1917 at Fatima. Heaven is speaking to us our we listening? Our we paying attention!

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

I have called you by name.

- When Israel was exiled in Babylon, the people found it difficult to understand how God could allow them to be captives in a strange land.
- Isaiah comforts the people with the message that God would use another nation and another leader to restore the people to their own land.
- God called Cyrus, the Persian leader, to defeat the Babylonians and to give the Jews permission to return and rebuild Jerusalem and its surroundings.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5b

We thank God for your faith!

- Paul's greeting to the Thessalonians marks the beginning of his thanksgiving to God for their fervent response to his preaching.
- Thessalonica was a crucial place for spreading the Gospel throughout Macedonia.
- Paul is thankful that the Church is flourishing.

Gospel : Matthew 22:15-21

Keep your priorities clear.

- Today's passage from Matthew's Gospel is the first of four stories about Jesus' conflict with the Jewish authorities.
- The Pharisees try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes.
- Jesus refuses to answer the question on the level that it is presented to him, instead he raises the discussion to a higher level; teaching that in all cases, our responsibility to God is primary.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Have a family discussion about Church values and teachings, and civil values and teachings. What social injustices in our society can be addressed through political involvement? How can our family speak out on issues of violence, abortion, capital punishment, welfare, euthanasia, poverty?
- Before dinner, watch the evening news or read the newspaper together as a family. Choose one issue to discuss each day. What is a Christian response to the issue? What is the best way to work for the common good? As a family, include the issue in your daily prayer.
- Discuss the phrase, "Give to God what is God's." What belongs to God? How can your family show respect for God and all God's creation?

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

2023 APPEAL: “FOR THE LIFE OF THE WORLD”

Where Eucharistic life flourishes, there the life of the church will blossom.” The Eucharist is the true presence of Jesus Christ, it is the spiritual food that gives us strength to carry out His work each day and everything we do as Catholics emanates from that.*
