Stewardship

October 23, 2022– Humble Stewardship
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.” LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego are the root causes of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable or your talent is better than anyone else or your money gives you status is another way of making those things “gods” before God. In Stewardship, pride is the opposite of humility. Remember, all that we have and all that we are is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God’s incredible generosity and be grateful for all we have been given. Ultimately, gratitude leads us to humility.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioner,

October is the month of the Holy Rosary. I'm sure many of us are familiar with the rosary. We may carry it around in our pockets; we may wear it around our neck; or we may always have it by our bedside. The rosary is one of the greatest gifts the Church has, and is personally one of my favorite devotions.

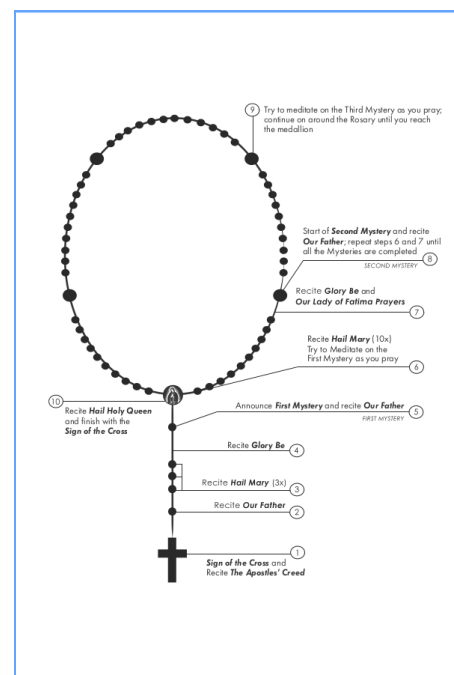

The Rosary allows us to seek the intercession of our Mother, the Blessed Virgin Mary, and it allows us to enter into the Mysteries of the life of Christ. When I pray the rosary, I like to meditate on the Mysteries through the eyes of the Virgin Mary, particularly the Sorrowful Mysteries. The Sorrowful Mysteries include the suffering and death of Jesus Christ, and I always find it moving to think about what Mary was experiencing during this crucial moment in her son's life.

Rather than falling into despair as she watches her son being wiped, spat on, and cursed, I like to think our Mother recalled the words of the angel Gabriel, "he will be great, and will be called the son of the Most High; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David, and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever; and of his kingdom there will be no end" (Luke 1:32-33). There was never a moment when Mary lost faith in God. She never imposed her own plan of salvation, but rather allowed God to work his plan through her.

How can we allow God to work his plan through us? We need to humble ourselves and ask God what he wants us to do rather than say to God what we want him to do. As October comes to an end, let us pray to our Blessed Mother that we may receive the grace of humility.

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us

God bless,
Thomas Piro

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18

The Lord is a God of justice.

- In the ancient Near East, it was the king's special duty to care for the most helpless members of the society.
- In Israel, God was the Most High King, and so those who were orphaned, widowed, and oppressed were the special concern of God.
- The basic principle of Israelite law was to be like God.

Reading II: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

I have fought the good fight.

- The section from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy includes a description of Paul's expectation of reward for his faithful service.
- Today's letter emphasizes that death endured with Jesus will result in life with him.
- Paul anticipated divine protection for his continued faithful service.

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

Everyone who exalts him or herself shall be humbled.

- In the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector, Jesus contrasts the attitudes of two people praying.
- The paradox here is that the prayer of the tax collector was preferred by God.
- In the parable, Jesus once again combats the self-righteous attitudes that threaten spiritual growth.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Volunteer your time at a shelter for the homeless, a soup kitchen, a thrift store, a literacy program, or some other facility that reaches out to people who are poor. Try to get to know as persons the people who come there.
- Sit down with your family and come up with a good definition for the word humble. Use the dictionary, or write the definition in your own words. What does the word humble mean? Challenge your family to live the definition of humble. Make a commitment to live as humbly as you can for one week.

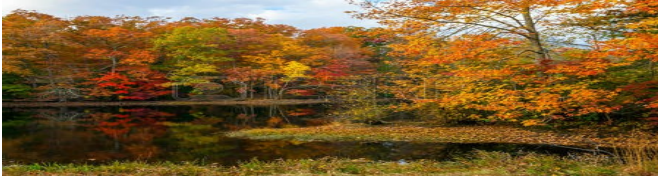

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be November 21st

Un Manual para la Confesión #1

Lo que sigue es la primera parte de varias de como confesarse bien.

Jesucristo vino al mundo para salvar a todos del poder de Satanás, del pecado y de la consecuencia del pecado, la muerte. El propósito de su ministerio fue nuestra reconciliación con el Padre. De modo especial, su muerte en la cruz trajo la posibilidad del perdón, la paz y la reconciliación para todos.

En la noche de su resurrección de entre los muertos, Jesús se apareció a sus Apóstoles y les dio la potestad de perdonar todos los pecados humanos. Soplando sobre ellos les dijo: "Recibid el Espíritu santo. A quienes perdonéis los pecados, les quedan perdonados; a quienes se los retengáis, les quedan retenidos". San Juan 20:22-23 Mediante el Sacramento del Orden Sagrado, los obispos y sacerdotes de la Iglesia reciben la capacidad de Cristo mismo para perdonar los pecados. Esto se ejerce en el Sacramento de la Reconciliación, conocido también como el Sacramento de Penitencia, o sencillamente como "confesión". Mediante este Sacramento, Cristo perdona los pecados que los miembros de la Iglesia cometan después del Bautismo.
