Stewardship

October 30, 2022– Stewards Sacrifice

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

“But Zacchaeus stood there and said to the Lord, ‘Behold, half of my possessions, Lord, I will give to the poor, and if I extorted anything from anyone I shall repay it four times over.’”

LUKE 19:8

We are all called to gratefully give back to the Lord in proportion to the gifts we have been given. This means everyone isn't called to give the same amount, but everyone is called to give equal sacrifice. Open your heart and talk to God about how you use your money. How is God calling his Stewards to be more generous with their financial resources and possessions?

Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear Parishioners,

Ever since my grandmother brought me to the Wildwoods as a little boy, it was my lifelong dream to live here. I have always had a love for amusement rides, especially roller coasters! I spent six summers here while in college and graduate school and many more when I was working as a college professor with summers free. I operated many amusement rides and made friends with many college students from around the world. After ordination to the priesthood I still made time to visit as often as possible.

After retiring as pastor of St. Thomas More Parish in Manalapan, NJ (2021), God gave me a great gift when he allowed me to spend the first 17 months of my retirement here in the Wildwoods. I never imagined I would be able to continue to celebrate Mass but thanks to your pastor – Fr. Mazz, that became a reality. It has been a privilege and a great honor to do this at Notre Dame de la Mer Parish. The parishioners, clergy and staff have been so friendly, welcoming and kind to me.

Now, I must move on once again to take care of my mother, who is now 93 years of age and still living independently in Florida. I hope to adjust to the heat and perhaps find a local parish in which to continue to celebrate Mass but wanted you to know that I will miss you all!

Sincerely Yours in Christ,
Fr. Mark Crane

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Wisdom 11:22-12:2

To God, the universe is a drop of morning dew.

- Wisdom literature in the Bible is a rich source of spirituality.
- In this passage, we are assured that God will have mercy on us always.
- We are reminded that God created all that is, and loves all that he created!

Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

We pray for you always.

- Paul prays that the community in Thessalonica may be faithful to the message preached about Jesus Christ.
- He addresses the rumor in the community that Christ would be returning soon, a common belief in the early years of the Faith.
- He urges them not to be agitated by this rumor, but to go on living their lives faithfully.

Gospel: Luke 19:1-10

Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus.

- Here we see Jesus' compassion and sense of justice reach a peak.
- He demonstrates his love of the sinner by eating with them, something that would have been seen by his detractors as very out-of-place for a rabbi such as Jesus.
- But as usual, he persists and teaches a valuable lesson: take in the outcast and sinner first and they will later be healed.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Sit down as a household and talk about those people whom you consider least welcome in your house. Are they people against whom you have a prejudice? Neighbors whom you don't like? Family members against whom you hold a grudge? Of others? Choose one name from this list and plan how to reconcile.
- Invite family members to make special "welcome" placements for a simple supper you make. Invite people whom you know but haven't seen in a while to come to supper and share with them.

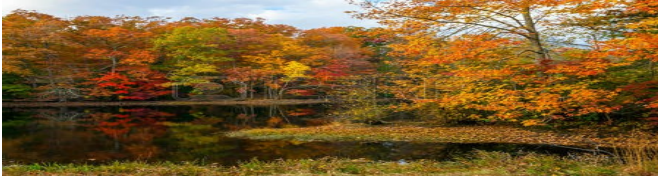

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

The 2023 Mass Intention book will open on Thursday, November 10. As directed by Bishop Dennis Sullivan there are some changes to the scheduling of Mass Intentions. Winter Schedule (January to Memorial Weekend) and (October to December)

Daily: Only 1 intention

Saturday (vigil) & Sunday: Only 2 of the 4 scheduled Masses will have multiple intentions. The 3rd Mass will have 1 intention and the 4th Mass will be Pro Populo (for the people). Masses with multiple intentions will be rotated on a weekly basis. The suggested stipend is $15.

Summer Schedule (Memorial Weekend through September)

Daily: Only 1 intention

Saturday (vigil) & Sunday: Same as above except all additional Masses will have 1 intention.

Unannounced Mass Intentions ($10) will be sent to the Camden Diocese retirement home (St. Mary's) and a retired priest will celebrate the Mass

The Sanctuary Lamp ($15) is available for an intention. Sanctuary Lamp Intention is for 1 week.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be November 21st
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

CONFESIONES:

Todos los domingos
de 5:45 a 6:45pm
antes de la misa.

Un Manual para la Confesión #2 de varias

A fin de recibir el Sacramento de la Reconciliación dignamente, el penitente (el pecador) debe estar arrepentido de sus pecados. Al arrepentimiento por los pecados se le llama contrición. La contrición imperfecta es el arrepentimiento por los pecados motivado por temor al fuego del infierno, o por la fealdad del pecado mismo. La contrición perfecta es el arrepentimiento por los pecados motivado por el amor a Dios.

La contrición, perfecta o imperfecta, debe incluir un propósito firme de enmienda, es decir, una resolución sólida de evitar el pecado cometido, así como a las personas, los lugares y las cosas que le impulsaron a uno(a) a cometer el pecado en primer lugar. Sin este arrepentimiento, la contrición es insincera y nuestra confesión es inútil.

Siempre que se peque, debe implorarse a Dios por el don de una contrición perfecta. A menudo Dios da este don cuando uno(a) cristiano(a) piensa sobre la agonía de Jesús en la cruz y se da cuenta de que sus pecados son la causa de esos sufrimientos. Póngase a sí mismo(a) en los brazos de la misericordia del Salvador crucificado y resuelva confesar sus pecados a un sacerdote tan pronto como sea posible.

Cuando se va a la Iglesia a confesar sus pecados, uno, debe examinar primero su conciencia. Revisar su vida para ver como se ha ofendido al buen Dios desde la última confesión. La Iglesia enseña que todos los pecados mortales cometidos después del Bautismo deben ser confesados a un sacerdote para que le sean perdonados. Este "precepto" o ley es de Institución Divina. Dicho sencillamente, esto significa que la confesión de los pecados graves a un sacerdote es parte del plan de Dios y por lo tanto es apoyada y llevada a cabo en la vida de la Iglesia.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (No. 1455) subraya el valor terapéutico de la confesión para todos los creyentes: La confesión de los pecados, incluso desde un punto de vista simplemente humano, nos libera y facilita nuestra reconciliación Con los demás. Por la confesión, el hombre se enfrenta a los pecados de que se siente culpable; asume su responsabilidad y, por ello, se abre de nuevo a Dios y a la comunión de la Iglesia con el fin de hacer posible un nuevo futuro.
