Stewardship

November 6, 2023

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Humility

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted." - MATTHEW 23:12

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions is the key to happiness. Yet, without Stewardship, our world is filled with loneliness, anxiety and depression. The key to a happy life is relationship. Relationship with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

My dear friends in Christ,

Peace to you and your family!

November is a busy month: end of daylight-saving time, All Saints Day, remembering the dead, of course, thanksgiving, and starting the preparations for Christmas. I would like to share something about the saints and how they are raised to sainthood. The first step comes from the people of God, they see in someone the characteristics of Jesus. Luke said in the Acts of the Apostles in chapter 10 that Jesus passed his life doing good. Those who knew the person in life petition for that person to be named SERVANT OF GOD, once named that the official Church procedures begin, there are three steps to sainthood: a candidate becomes "Venerable," then "Blessed" and then "Saint." Venerable is the title given to a deceased person recognized formally by the pope as having lived a heroically virtuous life or offered their life. For each step a certified miracle is required, to prove that it is from God. What saint did you know? I had the privilege in my life to meet Mother Teresa of Calcutta, but one of my favorite saints is my grandmother (not an official saint) but a saint in the fullest sense of the word. When she went to the Lord that cold November day so many people came to pay their condolences. She visited the sick brought meals to them, went to the 5:30am Mass every day, prayed her rosary daily and was kind and loving to us her grandchildren. She only went to the 3rd grade and could just about sign her name. But she passed her life doing good. She's my hero and my go to saint when I need her intercession. Are you on the road to sainthood, by doing good?

Mis queridos amigos en Cristo,

¡Paz para ti y tu familia!

Noviembre es un mes muy ocupado: fin del horario de verano, día de Todos los Santos, recuerdo de los difuntos, por supuesto, el día de Acción de Gracias y comienzo de los preparativos para la Navidad. Me gustaría compartir algo sobre los santos y cómo son elevados a la santidad. El primer paso viene del pueblo de Dios, ven en alguien las características de Jesús. Lucas dijo en los Hechos de los Apóstoles en el capítulo 10 que Jesús pasó su vida haciendo el bien. Quienes conocieron a la persona en vida solicitan que esa persona sea nombrada SIERVO DE DIOS, una vez nombrado que comienzan los trámites oficiales de la Iglesia, hay tres pasos para la santidad: un candidato se convierte en "Venerable", luego en "Bendito" y luego en "Santo". Venerable es el título otorgado a una persona fallecida reconocida formalmente por el Papa por haber vivido una vida heroicamente virtuosa o haber ofrecido su vida. Para cada paso se requiere un milagro reconocido por la Iglesia, para demostrar que es de Dios. ¿Qué santo conociste? Tuve el privilegio en mi vida de conocer a la Madre Teresa de Calcuta, pero una de mis santas favoritas es mi abuela (no una santa oficial) sino una santa en el sentido más amplio de la palabra. Cuando ella murió ese de noviembre hace años atrás, mucha gente vino a darnos sus condolencias. Ella visitaba a los enfermos, les llevaba comida, iba a misa a las 5:30 am todos los días, rezaba su rosario diariamente y era amable y cariñosa con nosotros, sus nietos. Ella solo fue al tercer grado y apenas podía escribir su nombre. Pero ella pasó su vida haciendo el bien. Ella es mi heroína y mi santa a la que acudo cuando necesito su intercesión. ¿Estás en el camino hacia la santidad, haciendo el bien?

OFFICE CLOSSES AT 12 PM ON FRIDAYS
2024 Mass Intention Books are open

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Malachi 1:14b-2:2b, 8-10

Honor God with your best gifts. Be faithful one to another.

- Malachi contrasted how God's own people disrespected him to how other nations respected him.
- For this dishonor the priests would be cursed.
- The people were accused of infidelity in marriage.
- Parent-child and husband-wife relationships were compared to God's covenant with Israel.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 2:7b-9, 13

God's Word is at work in believers.

- Paul said Sylvanus and Timothy, like parents, had spent their lives to bring the message of God to the Thessalonians.
- Sylvanus and Timothy had functioned as true apostles.
- They had not distorted the Gospel by their own self-seeking.

Gospel: Matthew 23:1-12

Seek God's honor, not your own honor.

- Jesus told the Pharisees that they taught the law but did not practice it, nor exhibit the compassion the law requires.
- Some Pharisees used the Law and their office for their own benefit.
- To seek exaltation was to be humbled; to seek humiliation was to be exalted.
- Seek God's honor, not your own.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- Check the newspaper or Internet for politicians or clergy that are living in opposition to what they teach. Discuss the implications of this situation. Why might Jesus teach that you should live as you teach others to live?
- Discuss some favorite celebrities and consider whether they seek to be glorified for their work and lifestyle. If they live contrary to Jesus' teaching, will there be a humbling event in their life? List some celebrities who have fallen from grace.
- Discuss some Catholics who are being considered for sainthood. Have they exalted themselves, or humbled themselves? Sainthood is for all time, and not temporary glory. How does this equation work? Discuss how Jesus gave us teachings to help us be the best we can be for all time.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be November 20th
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
