Stewardship

November 7, 2021– Stewardship of Treasure

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living.” (MARK 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – we are all called to the Stewardship of Treasure. We are to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your “first fruits” or from what is “left over”?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

Dear Parishioners,

This is the first weekend liturgy in the month of November, the month traditionally dedicated to the Holy Souls in Purgatory. What a great and maternal solicitude does the Church show when she urges us to continually remember the souls of those who have gone before us. As the souls in Purgatory cannot pray for themselves, they need our prayers, Masses and daily aspirations to help them get to Heaven. One day, we too, will rely greatly on the prayers of others to shorten our time of suffering and separation from God. Naturally and gratefully, we then become intercessors before God for those who have prayed for us – an effective round-trip ticket, so to speak.

Our liturgy speaks to us today of two widows – one in the time of Elijah and one in the time of Jesus. Both widows had very little human means and were at the end of their ropes. Elijah interceded to bring about material relief to the widow and her son; it does not seem that Jesus intervened directly to relieve the destitution of the widow putting in her coins in the treasury of the Temple. However, we should not view this as indifference; Christ is very aware of the circumstances of her life and praises her complete abandonment to God in her situation. We instinctively feel that this widow will be highly rewarded in Heaven. But in the meantime, she seems to have been left with very little resources.

What about us? Do we abandon to God our concrete situations? Our health, our family, work, schoolwork, finances, relationships? All of our personal circumstances are indications of the will of God for us yet we so often feel unsatisfied and discontent. God gives us everything and everything out of Love. He gives us countless gifts. Do we focus on what we do have rather than what we lack?

One of the greatest gifts that God gives to us is Himself – in the Eucharist in the consecration of Holy Mass and then reserved in the tabernacle or exposed in the monstrance for Adoration. “What do you want me to do for you?” Our Lord asked Bartimeus and He asks us the same thing every day. Time spent before the Blessed Sacrament is the ideal situation to tell Jesus what are our needs, hopes and desires and, slowly, we realize that Bartimeus’ answer is the same for all of us, “Lord, I want to see.”. Countless graces are given to us, our families, our parish and the Church as a result of Eucharistic Adoration. Pope St. John Paul II tells us, “The Church and the world have a great need for Eucharistic worship. Jesus awaits us in this sacrament of love. Let us not refuse the time to go to meet him.” Time spent in Adoration is always generously repaid. So come spend some time with Jesus; He will be so happy to see you.

Sincerely, Dodie Briggs

Sunday Readings

Reading I: 1 Kings 17:10-16

The jar of flour shall not go empty.

- In Jewish law there are many commands concerning care for widows, because the widow in Israel had no real means of economic independence.
- In today's reading, Elijah promises the widow that neither she nor her son will starve.
- The woman, a non-Israelite, believes the word of the Israelite prophet.

Reading II: Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ takes away our sins.

- The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews stresses that Jesus gave his life as a sacrifice for all.
- Jesus Christ gave his life for all people.
- His perfect gift takes away sins once for all.

Gospel: Mark 12:38-44

She gave from her want.

- In today's Gospel, Jesus presents a poor widow as an example of a truly faithful person in Judaism.
- She is willing to contribute what she has and to lay down her life for the sake of the leaders in the community.
- Jesus judges the gift of the woman as the most valuable of all.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Take time this week to think about all the good things God has given you and your family. How can you and your family give back to God? Talk about ways to share your time, talent, or treasure to help others.
- Invite a member of your parish staff to share with your family the importance of stewardship and the concept of tithing. Together with your family, decide how much each person should give to support the Church.
- For one week, keep track of some of the many appeals for charity you witness, either in the mail or on the television. Discuss with your family: Which appeals seem especially worthy? How much money can we contribute to charity this week? Should some of that money be sent to one of the appeals? What sacrifices will the family need to make in order to be able to contribute to a chosen charity?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Thanksgiving Food Drive

Filled by loving hands, with prayerful thoughts, and shared family sacrifices.
November, the month of "giving thanks" always offers us many opportunities to share our blessings and gifts with others

On the weekends of November 6th, and 13th, Lazarus House and Hospitality Ministers will hand out grocery bags. Take as many as you wish; fill them with the requested items or with items your creative spirit may inspire. Bring your family's "blessing bag" to Church with you on Thanksgiving Day. You will be called forth to be part of a special offertory procession to place "your gift" at the altar.

If you are unable to be with us for Mass on Thanksgiving Day, bring your gift bag to Mass November 20th weekend and leave it on the "Lazarus House" table in the vestibule.

Thank you for sharing "your family's giving thanks" with our friends and neighbors

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be November 15th at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

What Is PREP

SCHOOL YEAR: Classes will be held on Sundays. At WCA 9 -10:10 a.m. With the class being off the last Sunday of the month.

SUMMER INTENSIVE: Classes are held daily from 8:30 a.m. to noon, July 26 to Aug. 6. Classes are held at WCA building.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Reconciliation, First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments. Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS: All students are required to do six (6) Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or mass. Notre Dame de la Mer will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may chose to do events outside our parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

Domingo 320 del Tiempo Ordinario

“Yo les digo, esta pobre viuda puso más al tesoro que todos los otros contribuyentes. Porque ellos contribuyeron de su abundancia, pero ella en su pobreza ha puesto todo lo que tenía, su sus tento.” (Marcos 12:43-44)

Jesús fue justo al punto - somos llamados a dar dinero para apoyar la misión de la Iglesia, independientemente de nuestras circunstancias.
¡Ninguna donación es demasiado pequeña o insignificante! Dar dinero para apoyar la misión de nuestra parroquia local es un asunto de nuestra fe, al igual que lo es orar y participar en los ministerios parroquiales. Cuando usted hace una oferta financiera, ¿es de sus “primeros frutos” o de lo que “le sobra”?
