Stewardship

November 8, 2020

Gifted Stewards

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. Don't delay. How is God calling you to use your Stewardship gifts today? None of us is guaranteed tomorrow

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Our Campaign continues! Pledge payments can be accepted through the year 2024. We appreciate all those who have been faithful with their pledge payments especially during the pandemic. All payments received by November 30 will be part of the distribution we receive this December.

Thank you for your continued support!

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER AND THE SOULS IN PURGATORY

Eternal REST grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace. Amen // REQUIEM aeternam dona eis, Domine, et lux perpetua luceat eis. Requiescant in pace. Amen.

The month of November is dedicated to the devotion and prayer for the poor and holy souls in Purgatory.

Purgatory, in our day, has become somewhat of a faint piety of an almost desired forgotten time. In my opinion, however, it has not been truly given, even in the past, a fair and reasonable explanation.

After our life is fully complete, we know there to be an afterlife, even as the soul and body are separated. At that point, a particular judgment is made for the soul to either deserve or attain Heaven or Hell.

This is where Purgatory comes in. Though this term and doctrine has been mostly held within Catholic teaching (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1020-1065), it has also had its place in various religions.

Our Catechism states, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven".

Purgatory is not a limbo or a third place between the two states of the afterlife. It is also not an eternal existence like Heaven and Hell, but instead, a temporary one. Eventually, when Christ comes again, Purgatory will cease to exist, and only the two will remain. Even further, Purgatory is a limited process geared only towards and for the very purpose of a life in Heaven. And once a soul is in Purgatory, it cannot then go to any place other than Heaven.

The question may still arise of its purpose, and some may say too, that it is a very scary thing to have or to believe. But, on the contrary, it is thoroughly meaningful and hopeful. In other words, who wouldn't want, especially the one who considers himself a sinner, a little and certain leeway to enter Heaven?

Though Purgatory is not an exact in-between to Heaven and Hell, it is nevertheless a middle-ground, one filled more with mercy than with judgment. We find, then, that the grace of mercy and salvation is profoundly effective and most powerful even into the world of the afterlife.

As said above, these souls in Purgatory are called both holy and poor: holy in that they will always attain Heaven, and poor because they still need our acts of kindness. We are, therefore, to pray for and devote ourselves to the souls in Purgatory, which by tradition, is a spiritual work of mercy, accomplished happily through the centuries by many Saints, including Saints Padre Pio and Nicholas of Tolentine.

The following prayer comes from the life of St. Gertrude the Great:

Eternal Father, I offer Thee the Most Precious Blood of Thy Divine Son, Jesus, in union with the Masses said throughout the world today, for all the Holy Souls in Purgatory, for sinners everywhere, for sinners in the universal church, those in my own home and within my family. Amen.

Sunday Readings

Reading I : Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom seeks those who seek her.

- Wisdom came to Solomon and he claimed that all the benefits he enjoyed came from her.

Reading II : Thessalonians 4:13-18

The dead will participate in Jesus' return.

- The Thessalonians believed in the immediacy of Christ's return.
- They became concerned about members of their Christian community who had died.

Gospel : Matthew 25:1-13

Readiness is essential for the end time

- Today's Gospel is part of the last long discourse in Matthew's Gospel
- The point of the story of the wise and foolish virgins is that readiness is essential.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- The parable in this week's Gospel tells us to be ready. Have a family discussion about getting ready for a trip. Discuss all the preparation needed for taking a family trip. Then talk about being ready for Jesus' coming. What can you do to get ready for the coming of Jesus into your life?
- Gather the family together for a family meeting. Focus on how your family can keep the door open for the coming of God into your household? Start by discussing ways that family members can be more patient with each other.
- Create a journal with enough blank pages for one week. For each day of the coming week, write down one thing that you can do to prepare for Jesus' coming into your life.

WELCOME BACK

Guidelines for Re-Entry into Church for Weekend Masses

OBLIGATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS HAS BEEN DISPENSED AT THIS TIME

- ◆ St. Ann entrance: Atlantic Avenue
- ◆ Assumption entrance: Seaview Avenue
- ◆ Masks: Worn properly throughout the entire mass
- ◆ Social Distancing: Exercised within the church. Limited seating so please arrive early. Follow the direction of the ushers. Handicap seating available but limited.
- ◆ Holy Communion: Distributed after the Mass is over.
- ◆ Hand Sanitizer: Is available at entrance & exit of the church. We encourage people to bring their own.

CDC recommends that if you have underlying health issues, feel sick or have small children who are unable to social distance, please stay home at this time.

BAGS! BAGS! BAGS!

...filled by loving hands, with prayerful thoughts, and shared family sacrifices are needed...

November, the month of giving thanks, offers many opportunities to share our blessings and gifts with others.

Once again we will be collecting food for the Lazarus House. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, we ask that you provide your own bag for the non-perishable food.

If you are unable to be with us for Mass on Thanksgiving Day, bring your gift bag to Mass either November 15th or 22nd weekend and leave it in the vestibule.

Thank you for sharing "your family's giving thanks" with our friends and neighbors throughout Cape May County. Remember - "God will never be out done in generosity."

Reflections on Mysterium Fidei by Pope Paul VI

Sections 34-45

The Holy Father in the next sections focuses on the Sacramental Presence of the Holy Eucharist. Christ is present in his church in many ways. He is present when she prays. When she performs works of mercy. When she preaches, and when she governs the people of God. The Eucharist, however, is the par excellence of Christ's presence to us and "surpasses all the others" in terms of presence (MF 38). He makes his presence known through the mystery of the Eucharist every time a priest, whether it be the local pastor or the pope, celebrates Holy Mass. "It is the same offering, no matter who offers it, be it Peter or Paul" (MF 38). It is important to keep in mind that the mystery of the Eucharist is a sacrament that possesses symbolism. It symbolizes the unity of the Church and the love of God in the world today. Symbolism, however, is inadequate to describe the sacrament as a whole. We believe that the bread and wine after consecration become the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Jesus Christ. St. Ignatius of Antioch says, "The Eucharist is the flesh of Our Savior Jesus Christ which suffered for our sins and which the Father in his loving kindness raised again" (MF 44). The Son of God is "really, truly, and substantially" present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Jesus never stops being Emmanuel— "God with us." At every Mass, he is made present and every time we drive by a Church, he is present. No other faith has this intimate relationship with God. Take advantage of this beautiful gift. He is always available to hear of concerns, partake in our joys, and feel our love for him.

Next week: Sections 46-55

By: Thomas Piro, Seminarian

Though it began as Armistice Day in 1919 (celebrating the end of World War I), November 11 has been celebrated as Veterans Day in the United States since 1954. Many people observe the day with ceremonies and parades that honor the sacrifice and dedication of those who have served in the armed forces of the United States.

There may be no better way to honor a veteran than in prayer. Whether it is offered in a religious service, or privately, or silently as a parade passes by, or in a personal card or note, prayer can connect you, a veteran and God in a meaningful and productive way.

"Almighty God, You know every veteran by name. You know their deeds, their hard work, and their perseverance. You know their needs, both material and spiritual. Please draw each one closer to you and grant them all the peace that passes understanding (Philippians 4:7), the peace of Christ to rule in their hearts (Colossians 3:15), and 'joy in your presence, with eternal pleasures at your right hand' forevermore (Psalm 16:11)."

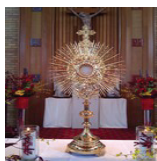

Amen

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be determined at a later date

A Time to Remember & Pray for All Souls

Light Up the Cemetery

"Let light shine out of darkness" 2 Corinthians 4:6

Masses typically held November 2 for All Souls, are cancelled due to the COVID-19 social distancing guidelines. However, South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries invite all to place a solar light on their loved one's grave or outside of the mausoleum to honor them in a special way during the month of November, especially those lost this year, particularly those lost during the time of restricted gatherings. Solar lights should be removed by December 1.

Families and friends are encouraged to visit cemeteries and mausoleums and to pray for their dearly departed loved ones and all souls who have gone before us. In honor of the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed, all diocesan managed chapel mausoleums will be open from 9 AM to 7 PM on Monday, November 2. For more info, go to: www.southjerseycatholiccemeteries.org.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Elizabeth of Hungary, Wife, Mother and Religious

Saint Elizabeth lived a short but intense life, dying before her 25th birthday. She was the daughter of Alexander II, King of Hungary, and she married a holy man, Louis of Thuringia. Together, they lived a simple life, practicing penance, and devoting themselves to works of charity. When tragedy struck and her husband was killed, Elizabeth renounced the world and became a nun, devoting herself to the care of the sick until her death.

Comunidad Hispana

¡BIENVENIDOS/AS A NUESTRA PÁGINA!

Aquí tendremos espacio para nuestros avisos e información a cerca de la Comunidad Hispana en la diócesis, en la parroquia y en el barrio.

El Coronavirus nos ha desconectado “un poco” es por eso que les queremos informar sobre nuestros Servicios Espirituales para crecer en la FE.

Ya viene la fiesta de la Virgen de Guadalupe

Se va a celebrar este año pero no como siempre por el virus. Necesitamos tu ayuda:

- * No reunirse con vecinos para la Novena, se debe rezar en familia en tu casa.
- * La Novena de la Virgen de Juquila y la Virgen de Guadalupe serán transmitidas por “livestream”
- * Desde el Facebook. (30 de Nov. Empiezan)
Les vamos a decir como más adelante.
- * En la siguiente bulitin parroquial les vamos a informar Sobre el horario de la fiesta.
- * Ante mano, gracias por Colaborar en las actividades para reunir fondos para la celebración.

Toma esta página y guardarla para tener la información y poder compartirla con otras personas

Deben ser registrados en una parroquia y traer una carta de su parroquia indicando que son miembros activos.

No se olviden de registrarse en la parroquia, si, todavía, no lo Ha hecho. ¡Muchas bendiciones y oraciones para su familia!
