Stewardship

November 10, 2024
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewardship Givers

"I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury. For they all contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, her whole living." (MARK 12:43-44)

Jesus gets right to the point – Stewards are all called to give money to support the mission of the Church, regardless of our circumstance. No gift is too small or insignificant! Giving money to support the mission of our local parish is a matter of our faith, just like praying and participating in parish ministries. When you make a financial offering, is it from your "first fruits" or from what is "left over"?

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

From the desk of Jonathan Delgado, Director of Music and Liturgy

Dear Parishioner,

As the season of autumn is moving right along ever so quickly with Thanksgiving soon approaching, so is our liturgical calendar with today being the Thirty-second Sunday in ordinary time. As we continue to remember all those who have gone before us during the month of November it is especially important to pray for the souls in Purgatory as they cannot pray for themselves. Our prayers can console them in their suffering and help shorten their time there. Therefore, we should continue to pray for our deceased family members and friends for the rest of our lives. Our prayers will either assist them if they need it, or assist other souls if the people we are praying for are already in Heaven. I like to think that the people we pray for know that we pray for them and it is another way we can stay close to them until we are hopefully, one day reunited in Heaven.

While it is important to pray for them all year, having a month dedicated to them gives us a special awareness of their presence in the Church, and their need for our prayers. I like that the entire Church is united in praying together for the souls of all who have died. I think this time of remembering everyone who has died can also bring consolation to people who are mourning. I experienced this consolation myself when my mother died in 2018. After my mother had passed away, I found it very comforting that the Church would be praying for her and all the departed souls during the whole month of November, I can still remember bringing her picture to our annual All Soul's Remembrance Mass and felt that the other members of the Church were united with me in prayer and it made me feel I was not alone. I really think that this special month of November was very helpful to me as I grieved. My mother may be in heaven now; nevertheless, I pray for her every day and arrange for Masses to be offered for her.

One of the corporal works of mercy is to bury the dead and one of the spiritual works of mercy is to pray for the living and the dead. We can do these works of mercy by praying for the poor souls, arranging for Masses to be offered, offering up our suffering, and offering up sacrifices for them –not only in the month of November, but throughout the year.

Two weeks from this Sunday we will end another Liturgical Year with the Solemnity of our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe and begin a new Liturgical Year with the First Sunday of Advent. Knowing that Advent is just around the corner our Music Ministry has already begun preparations for our annual Christmas Concert entitled “A Prelude to Christmas” to be held on Sunday December 15th, 6:00pm at The Church of the Assumption. Our Adult, Contemporary and Children's Choirs will all be performing and accompanied by many instrumentalists which will lead to the concert's finale, the story of the Holy Nativity which will be brought to life in the Sanctuary by the youth of our parish. Please mark your calendars for this very special night for our parish. More details will follow in the weeks to come. For now let us keep enjoying this beautiful autumn season and Ordinary Time in the church.

Sincerely,
Jonathan Delgado

Readings of the Week

Reading I : 1 Kings 17:10-16

The jar of flour shall not go empty.

- In Jewish law there are many commands concerning care for widows, because the widow in Israel had no real means of economic independence.
- In today's reading, Elijah promises the widow that neither she nor her son will starve.
- The woman, a non-Israelite, believes the word of the Israelite prophet.

Reading II : Hebrews 9:24-28

Christ takes away our sins.

- The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews stresses that Jesus gave his life as a sacrifice for all.
- Jesus Christ gave his life for all people.
- His perfect gift takes away sins once for all.

Gospel : Mark 12:38-44

She gave from her want.

- In today's Gospel, Jesus presents a poor widow as an example of a truly faithful person in Judaism.
- She is willing to contribute what she has and to lay down her life for the sake of the leaders in the community.
- Jesus judges the gift of the woman as the most valuable of all.

Family Reflection Corner

Theme: We must give to God until we have given enough.

Breaking Open the Word

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel, the short form

Step One: Listen to the Word

What image lingers for you from this reading? What single word or idea struck you in it?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: What part of your own possessions are you called on to share?

Question for Youth: When you think of your own life, do you consider yourself to be rich or poor? How do you spend your money? Is there anything you should be doing differently?

Question for Adults: When do you know that you have given away enough?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of

St Ann: Frances Furfari r/b Daughter, Mary Henderson

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We meet after the 8:30AM Mass 3rd Monday of month. At Assumption Church. Next holy hour will be November 18

NDDLM PARISH HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

Thank you to those who have recently joined our Homebound Ministry. With the increase of homebound parishioners and the limited number of ministers /priests, we welcome extraordinary ministers to join this fulfilling ministry. Your visits to our homebound can be on a weekly, bi-monthly or monthly basis. If the Lord is calling you to this ministry, please contact Karen at 609-602-6106.

If you or your loved one is homebound and would like a visit and communion brought to them, please contact the office.

OPPORTUNITY TO DONATE

We are looking to replace our altar candles, secretary lamp and processional cross in the sanctuary at St. Ann Church. Last year through the generous donation of an anonymous donor we were able to replace the Paschal Candle Stand, which you can see right next to Baptismal Font. The needed furnishings in the sanctuary would match the same design as our paschal candle stand.

The price of the 16" Altar Candle is $1,300/each. Four of these are needed

The price of the Processional Cross for the sanctuary is $3,020.

The price of the 44" Sanctuary Lamp and Holder is $2,625.

If you are interested in donating one of these items to our sanctuary at St. Ann Church, please contact Jonathan Delgado at 609.522.2709, x219 or via email at jdelgado@notredamedelamer.org

Saint of the Week:

Martin de Porres, Religious 1579-1639

Martin was the illegitimate son of a Spanish knight and a freed Panamanian slave. Born and raised in Lima, Peru, he was part of the poorest and lowest level of society. As a young man, Martin applied to the Dominicans to be a "lay-helper" because he didn't himself feel worthy to be a religious brother. He often spent his nights in prayer, while his days were filled with caring for the sick and the poor. He founded an orphanage and looked after the slaves brought from Africa. After nine years, his example of prayer and penance, charity and humility, led his religious community to ask Martin to make a full religious profession.

All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less.

Martin's message today: All of us are children of God and all of us deserve justice in our dealings with others. Martin cared not whether those he helped were slaves or free men, rich or poor. If they needed his help, he was available to them. We should do no less. Feast Day: Nov 3

South Jersey Catholic Cemeteries now offers a new interactive, online guide called, A Planning Guide for A Catholic Funeral. This guide provides information about a Catholic funeral, and it allows you to provide details about your wishes for your funeral, including your vigil, funeral Mass and committal service. Secondly, it allows you to fill in the document providing pertinent information such as personal and family history, legal and financial information, social media and additional considerations that will be needed at the time of your passing. Your completed guide will help to alleviate stress for you and your family, and it will make your wishes known. This can be found on NDDLM's Webpage at www.notredamedelamer.org

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK-3 to 12th grade 609-522-7257

WCA is pleased to announce: The Sister St. Gervase Memorial Scholarship

Through the generosity of our former, long-time, esteemed English teacher, William (Bill) Waters, several students have been granted a scholarship in honor of Sister St. Gervase, SSJ, which has assisted them in attending Wildwood Catholic Academy. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Philadelphia is the religious order of sisters that, for many decades, was the heart and soul of Wildwood Catholic. One of the many marvelous nuns who taught at Wildwood Catholic was Sister St. Gervase, who was assigned to Wildwood Catholic from September 1978 until June 1983. Sadly, she died on September 17, 2020. Because of Covid-19, Sister's obituary was not widely published and her funeral was private. Below is the Obituary printed several months after her passing in The Order's newsletter:

Sister St. Gervase Glackin went home to God on September 17, 2020, two weeks after her 91st birthday. A resident of St. Joseph Villa since 2014, Sister's liturgy and funeral followed at the Villa on September 22.

The second oldest of seven children, Mary Angela, lost her father when she was just eight years old. Her mother, Mary Glackin, wanted a good education for the young children and enrolled six of the children in St. Joseph Academy in McSherrytown, PA, a boarding school owned by the Sisters of St. Joseph. The youngest Glackin child, Charles, remains.

Strongly influenced by the spirit and dedication of the Sisters at the Academy, young Mary Angela entered the Novitiate in September 1946. Her first ministry, teaching elementary school children in various grades, schools and dioceses, lasted for twenty years. Subsequent ministry in secondary education allowed her to share her love for reading and writing and to introduce them to authors, especially English writers. She often accompanied groups of students to London where they, too, enjoyed all things British.

Summers also allowed Sister to pursue opportunities for offering volunteer services in New York and even in California, in various capacities.

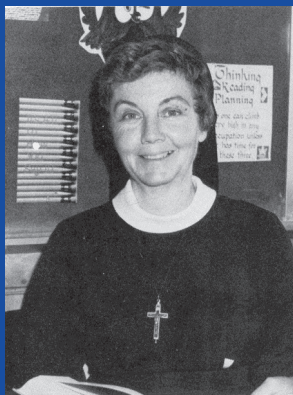

Her ministry, later on, included teaching college students, including stints at Drexel and Villanova Universities and Community College of Philadelphia. In 2002, Sister St. Gervase became coordinator of Outreach at St. John Church in Philadelphia before accepting an invitation to assist students with reading and writing skills in the English department at Neumann-Goretti High School.

After a brief time volunteering at Mount Saint Joseph Convent, Sister St. Gervase took up residence at the Villa, often sharing readings of published poets. She enjoyed writing her own poems for special occasions and shared them as well. Truly a unique and creative spirit, St. Gervase will be fondly remembered.

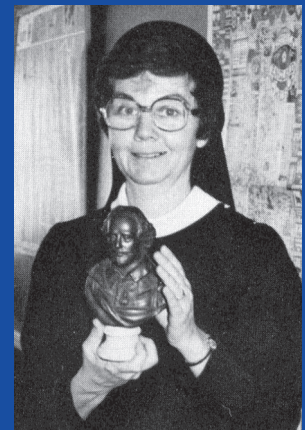

Sister St. Gervase left a lasting impression on many of the over 600 Wildwood Catholic students she encountered during her five academic years spent laboring at the school. She was an inspired teacher of British literature and writing skills and started Wildwood Catholic's very first AP course (AP English Literature and Composition). She held "high tea" for her students at the convent, donned special attire to confer knighthood on famous British writers from the past, and took students and some parents on literary trips to England. To quote one of her English department colleagues, "Her life was marked by exuberance in the classroom and a passion for service in the outside world."

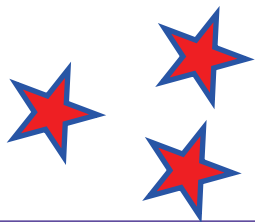

To honor the memory of Sister St. Gervase, the following AP English Language and Composition students have been awarded a scholarship: Rebecca Arcuri, Jenna DiFazio, Azucena Martinez Panesso, Ava Richards

Our thanks to Mr. Waters for sponsoring this generous scholarship in memory of Sister St. Gervase. May Sister's love of all things "English" and her passion for service be an inspiration to our students.

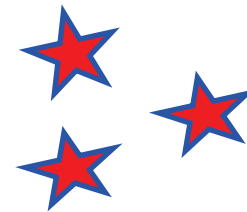

Sr. Saint Gervase, S.S.J. (B.A., M.A.) English

Parish Religious Education Program

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

Children: 1st-8th graders have two choices:

School Year Family Catechesis: Which meets once a month to view lessons completed at home.

Summer Intensive: The 2nd & 3rd weeks in July Monday-Friday 8:30 am-12:00 pm.

Teens: 9-12th graders will be decided on an individual basis. Depending on the level of instruction needed.

Adults seeking the faith will be entered into the RCIA program. RCIA usually meets once a week starting in September and going through the Easter Season.

School Year Family Catechesis Registration for September 2024 is OPEN

Family Catechesis will start at 8:45 am with a light breakfast of coffee and cakes or cereal. Class begins promptly at 9:00 am. After class students and parents are to attend 10:30 am Mass at St. Ann Church. This is considered part of the class.

*All students and at least one parent/guardian must be present at every class & event listed.
If you cannot attend let me know ASAP and a written note must be handed in.*

Parent Meeting for new students 9/15/24 after 10:30 am Mass at St. Ann Church.

This will be the last time to register for classes.
