Stewardship

November 12, 2023

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gifted Stewards

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts in Stewardship today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Dear Friends,

Today, I want to talk about Wisdom. The first reading portrays wisdom so beautifully. Those who seek the gift of wisdom from the Holy Spirit and are worthy of it will receive it with great thoughtfulness and care. Wisdom by definition is the quality of having experience, knowledge, and good judgment; the quality of being wise. Five of the virgins from the Gospel had this wisdom when they thought to bring extra lamp oil. The gift of wisdom from the Holy Spirit is much deeper than this.

The Holy Spirit's gift of wisdom helps people to have a deep understanding of God and to value the things of God. People who draw on the gift of wisdom recognize that material things or possessions are not as important as spiritual things, such as love, peace, and other things that relate to God. Wisdom knows when and how to apply God's truth to a specific situation. When wisdom is put to use, a "knowing" truth turns into a skill of insight and putting God's Word to work. When difficulty arises or a decision must be made, someone with the gift of wisdom knows how to speak God's Word over that situation in a way that moves people toward unity and peace. When voices sway opinions left and right, wisdom skillfully applies truth to turn everyone toward Jesus in a disarming, loving way. When someone is given the gift of wisdom, the more they dig into and marvel at God's truth, the more treasures of wisdom they find. Time spent with Jesus through prayer, meditating on the Gospel, and learning biblical truth deepens and develops the gift of wisdom. Intimacy with Jesus is the secret place where wisdom takes shape. Therefore, a person who has the gift of wisdom is a person who spends time with Jesus. Just as any gift is given freely, the gift of wisdom is given freely through the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit plants truth deep within us to allow wisdom to flow forth in the time it is needed.

The gift of wisdom is given to you freely at Confirmation. If you seek to use this gift here are some ways to strengthen it within you. Read, not only the Word of God in scripture but also allow other teachers, pastors, and authors to speak wisdom into your life. Pray asking God to allow you to know Him and the riches of his wisdom. Confess your need for Jesus. Wisdom often allows us to recognize the need for God's holiness in a situation, but the need for holiness should first start in our own hearts.

I personally seek the gift of wisdom every time I write this letter for our bulletin. Before I sit down to write the letter, I pray to the Holy Spirit to guide my thoughts to write the words God wants all of you to read. I am usually amazed by the end result. Most of the time my thoughts on what I want to write are completely different than the end message God wants you to hear. This week is no different!

God Bless,

Donnamarie Sexton

PRAY FOR THOSE WHO SERVE

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom seeks those who seek her.

- In the Book of Wisdom, the author is associated with Solomon even though it was written after his death.
- Wisdom came to Solomon and he claimed that all the benefits he enjoyed came from her.
- Wisdom herself seeks those who wish to find her.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

The dead will participate in Jesus' return.

- The Thessalonians believed in the immediacy of Christ's return.
- They became concerned about members of their Christian community who had died.
- In today's passage, Paul assures the Thessalonians that the dead will participate in Christ's glorious return.

Gospel: Matthew 25:1-13

Readiness is essential for the end time.

- Today's Gospel is part of the last long discourse in Matthew's Gospel.
- The subject of this discourse is the end time.
- The point in the story of the wise and foolish virgins is that readiness is essential.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

- The parable in this week's Gospel tells us to be ready. Have a family discussion about getting ready for a trip. Discuss all the preparation needed for taking a family trip. Then talk about being ready for Jesus' coming. What can you do to get ready for the coming of Jesus into your life?
- Gather the family together for a family meeting. Focus on how your family can keep the door open for the coming of God into your household? Start by discussing ways that family members can be more patient with each other
- Create a journal with enough blank pages for one week. For each day of the coming week, write down one thing that you can do to prepare for Jesus' coming into your life.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.
