Stewardship

November 13, 2022– Model Stewardship

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” 2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most Stewards who live a grateful and generous lifestyle, don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

From the Desk of Deacon Nick— Pastoral Associate

Dear parishioners,

The widower opened the bottom drawer of his late wife’s bureau and lifted out a tissue-wrapped package. He unfolded the tissue and handed his wife’s sister a beautiful slip. The expensive garment was exquisite, handmade of silk and trimmed with intricate lace. The price tag was still attached. Jan bought this the first time we went to New York, at least eight or nine years ago. She never wore it. She was saving it for a special occasion. Well, I guess this is the occasion.”

He took the slip and put it on the bed with the other clothes that they would bring to the funeral home. “Don’t ever save anything for a special occasion,” he said softly to his sister-in-law. “Every day you’re alive is a special occasion.”

The sister remembered those words through the funeral and the difficult days that followed as she helped her brother-in-law and niece attend to the sad chores that follow an unexpected death. The words of her brother-in-law began to have a dramatic impact on her life. She writes:

“I’m reading more and dusting less. I’m sitting on the deck and admiring the view without fussing about the weeds in the garden. I’m spending more time with my family and friends and less time in committee meetings . . . I’m not ‘saving’ anything; we use our good china and crystal for every special event such as losing a pound, getting the sink unstopped, the first camellia blossom. I wear my good blazer to the market. ‘Someday’ and ‘one of these days’ are losing their grip on my vocabulary . . .

And every moment I open my eyes, I tell myself that it is special. Every day, every minute, every breath is . . . a gift of God.”

My friends, today’s Gospel confronts us with the lessons this woman and her family learned in the unexpected death of her sister: That the time we are given in this life is precious, that God gives us this gift of life to embrace and be embraced by the love that is uniquely of God.

The truth is, Jesus calls us not to be obsessed with the “stones” that will one day collapse and become dust but to seek instead the lasting things of the soul, the things of God.

For those of us who call ourselves Christian, may love that never ends, compassion that never fades, forgiveness that never falters be the focus of our journey to the eternal dwelling place of God.

May God our Father give you Grace and peace!

Deacon Nick

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Malachi 3:19-20a

The sun of justice will arise.

- This reading from the Book of the prophet Malachi, was written during the fifth century B.C.
- The people had slipped into complacency, again.
- Malachi reminds them that the day of the Lord was coming.

Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Work is a noble, good thing.

- The Thessalonians expected the second coming of Christ to arrive immediately.
- Some had stopped working and were simply waiting.
- Paul urges them to imitate him and continue to do what is right.

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

Your endurance will win you your life.

- This gospel passage is Luke's version of Jesus' apocalyptic discourse concerning the end of the world.
- Two sets of images are interwoven. They include the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70 by the Romans and the coming of the Son of Man at the end of time.
- By the time the Gospel of Luke was written, it was evident that the return of the Son of Man was not going to happen immediately. Luke encourages Christians to persevere in faithfulness so that they will always be ready.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Remind the family that your faithfulness and love is a reflection of God's love for the world. Make a poster with a large circle in the center representing a mirror. Within the mirror, draw pictures or make a list of ways that your family can reflect God's love within and beyond the household.
- Is there someone you know who is having trouble right now? What can you do to help that person persevere in faith?
- Go around the table and ask each family member what they would want to be doing if Jesus returned today. Would you live your life differently if you knew exactly when Jesus was coming? If so, how would your life change?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Sanctuary Lamp: The Sanctuary Lamp will burn this week in loving memory of:

St Ann: Phyllis Maguire r/b Karen Pommer

Assumption: Stella Diana r/b Erik, Ian & Haley Norway

*"To everything there is a season and a time

Winter Schedule (January to Memorial Weekend) and (October to December)

Daily: Only 1 intention

Saturday (vigil) & Sunday: Only 2 of the 4 scheduled Masses will have multiple intentions. ## Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Next holy hour will be November 21st
at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass
