Stewardship

November 14, 2021– Lifetime Stewardship
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” (MARK 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What Stewardship have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to live a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

"Pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest" (Matthew 9:38).

National Vocation Awareness Week is celebrated this year in the US the week of November 7-13.

This weekend we have Ricardo Lozano, a seminarian of our diocese, to speak with us about himself and his faith journey. He attends Immaculate Conception Seminary at Seton Hall University. We are happy to have him with us and at our Masses, and we wish him well in his endeavors and, God willing, vocation to the priesthood.

Father Mazz will be installed as our pastor by our Bishop this Sunday, November 14, at the 10:30am Mass. He will have a reception after Mass in the gym at our Wildwood Catholic Academy. He has been a pastor previous to his time here at Notre Dame de la Mer, he has worked in youth and young adult ministry including the Newman Center at Rowan University, and has ministered in various ways for the benefit of many in our diocese since his ordination in 1985. God bless him and give him health and blessing as pastor of our parish.

There are numerous vocations within the Church, as St. Paul would say, "[Jesus] gave some as apostles, some as prophets, some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers . . . for the work of ministry in building up the body of Christ". For our Catholic purposes, we have the clergy, as in the bishops, priests and deacons. We have the religious priests, sisters and brothers from religious orders, like the Dominicans and Franciscans, Jesuits and Augustinians, Carthusians and Carmelites, and so many others that serve and provide in countless ways for God's people. There are also other forms of religious and consecrated life and even clergy that are not as well known.

God calls all peoples and individuals to be his servants, since we are his creation. And we hopefully listen to him and follow his voice no matter what path we are on in the world. However, as Catholics and from our Baptism, we are all called to a specific and unique vocation of Christian meaning and service, as Mary was when she was taken by surprise at the Annunciation to be the Mother of our Savior.

Let us pray for the hearing of God's call, as it says in the New Testament, "those who have ears, may they hear".

Prayer for Vocations

*O God, Who wish all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of Your truth:
send, we beg You, laborers into Your harvest, and grant them grace to speak Your word with all boldness;
so that Your word may spread and be glorified,
and all nations may know You, the only God,
and Him Whom You have sent,
Jesus Christ Your Son, Our Lord,
Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.*

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Daniel 12:1-3

Those who lead others to justice shall be like stars!

- The first reading is an example of apocalyptic biblical literature.
- After predicting the great destruction of all human kingdoms, Daniel 12 portrays the ultimate victory.
- Today's passage is the clearest statement concerning resurrection from the dead found in the Old Testament.

Reading II: Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Jesus took his seat at the right hand of God.

- Today's reading from the letter to the Hebrews emphasizes that Jesus' victory over sin and death is one in which we already share.
- Jesus will come again, and the believer must be ready.
- The day and hour Christ will come, no one knows.

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

God alone knows the hour.

- The author of the Gospel of Mark expresses the urgency and need for vigilance felt at this time when Christ might return at any moment.
- Today's passage is an apocalyptic discourse linking the events of the destruction of Jerusalem with the expected second coming of Christ.
- The imagery of cosmic catastrophe surrounds the expectation.

Family Reflection Corner

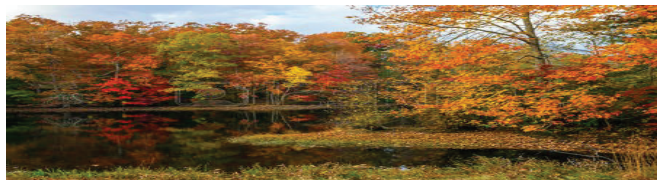

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- To help your family focus on the promise of happiness with God forever in heaven, take a walk in nature. Notice how nature is getting ready for winter. Talk about the promise of new life in spring.
- According to our faith tradition, we do not know the day or hour when Jesus will come again. What would you like to be doing when Jesus appears?
- Gather together as a family. Talk about some of the endings that have occurred in your life and family and how you were able to survive.
- Make prayer cards with, "Christ has died; Christ has risen: and Christ will come again", written on them. Say the prayer each day, recalling how much Jesus loves you.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be November 15th at Assumption Church after 8:30 AM Mass

Domingo 330 del Tiempo Ordinario

"Y entonces veremos al 'Hijo del del Hombre venir entre las nubes' con gran poder y gloria."
(Marcos 13:26)

Cada uno de nosotros tendrá un día que pararse delante del Señor y nuestra vida pasará frente a nosotros como una película. Cuando eso suceda y Dios nos pregunte a cada uno de nosotros, "¿Qué has hecho con los dones que te di?" ¿Como responderás? La buena nueva es que nunca es tarde para vivir y agradecer, y tener un estilo de vida generoso.
