Our Mission Statement

The love of Jesus Christ gathers us together to welcome and embrace all God's Children.

El amor de Jesus Cristo nos unifica para acoger a todos como hijos de Dios

Message from Pat Monaghan, Altar Server and Funeral Coordinator

Dear fellow parishioners,

I'm sure you notice the Altar Servers at Mass every week. They are an integral part of the celebration of the Mass. At this time, we have 27 children who are members of this ministry. We will have a commissioning ceremony for two more on November 24th. We are looking for more!

Parents/grandparents, do you have a child who would benefit from this faith based ministry?

Training involves 3 after school learning sessions where the children are taught the names and functions of the items on the Credence Table. They are also trained in how to serve, when to ring the bells, when to hold the book for Father, when to dress the Altar before Communion and many other pieces of information regarding the liturgy.

We also need more Adult servers to serve at funerals and on the Holy Days and to step up when no children are available.

It's a wonderful ministry. I know when I serve, I feel such a part of the Mass that it's a wonderful blessing. Won't you consider joining our ministry? Give me a call. I would love to hear from all of you.

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
Stewardship Model

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." 2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their actions and words, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and other people desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your Stewardship may be the only interaction others have with our Catholic faith.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Nov. 18, 2019

*(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall*

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflections

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings:

- Today's Gospel invites us to live in hope and to share what God has given us as we await Jesus' return. What can your family do to live in joyful hope for Jesus' return?
- Remind the family that your faithfulness and love is a reflection of God's love for the world. Make a poster with a large circle in the center representing a mirror. Within the mirror, draw pictures or make a list of ways that your family can reflect God's love within and beyond the household.
- Is there someone you know who is having trouble right now? What can you do to help that person persevere in faith?
- Go around the table and ask each family member what they would want to be doing if Jesus returned today. Would you live your life differently if you knew exactly when Jesus was coming? If so, how would your life change?

Liturgy Corner...learn something new or maybe even become inspired !

Question: Why do we have the sign of peace?

Answer: The sign of peace, also known as the kiss of peace (in some cultures and rites, they will perform the typical European kiss on both cheeks instead of a handshake), is a tradition that the Church has included in her sacred liturgy since the early Church. Apostolic Constitutions dating back to the 4th Century demonstrate the liturgical action of the priest offering Christ's peace before the congregation. After this, the people respond by saying, "and with your spirit." The deacon then tells the congregation to extend this sign of peace to their neighbors (sound familiar??).

Holy Mother Church views this liturgical gesture as a command of Christ as he said in the Gospel of Matthew;

"If you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar and go; first be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" Mat 5:23-24

How are we to present ourselves before our Eucharistic Lord, who stresses the desire of unity to his Father in the garden of Gethsemane the night before he was to suffer, and have hatred toward our neighbor? To be blunt, it is impossible! To hold onto hatred is a grave sin only forgivable through the sacrament of Reconciliation. Loving everyone is not easy, yet God, who is Love itself, calls us to do so. Through his grace, may we be able to reconcile with our brothers and sisters, so as to imitate Christ and prepare ourselves to partake in the heavenly banquet on earth, that is the Most Blessed Sacrament—the Holy Eucharist.
