33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Good News

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” (MARK 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to start living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Jesus used the image of a fig tree to teach his disciples an important lesson about reading the "signs of the times". The fig tree was a common and important source of food for the Jews. It bore fruit twice a year, in the autumn and in the early spring. The Talmud said that the first fruit came the day after Passover. The Jews believed that when the Messiah came, he would usher in the kingdom of God at Passover time. The signs of spring are evident for all who can see. Just so are the signs of God's kingdom and his coming in judgment. The "budding" of God's kingdom begins first in the hearts of those who are receptive to God's word. Those who trust in God's word will bear the fruits of his kingdom. And what are the fruits of that kingdom? In his letter to the Romans, St. Paul tells us the kingdom of God ...is righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Jesus tells us that one thing is certain. This world as we know it will not last. But that is not the end. When the Lord Jesus returns again in glory, he will establish the kingdom of God in all its fulness. We read in the Book of Revelations that there will be a "new heaven and a new earth" in which "death shall be no more". That is why Christians pray to hasten Christ's return by saying to him: "Maranatha! Come, Lord Jesus!" While we do not now know the date or time for the second coming, the signs of its imminent approach will be evident for all who take notice. God's word is utterly reliable, because God, himself, is utterly trustworthy. His word lasts because he is faithful and he keeps his promises. Do we look with joyful hope for the fulfillment of all God's promises?

"Lord Jesus, may your kingdom come and may your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Open our eyes that we may see your glory. Open our ears that we may understand and obey your word. And open the door of our hearts that we may welcome you in as our King and Savior."

Peace,
Deacon Rich

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Daniel 12:1-3

Those who lead others to justice shall be like stars!

- The first reading is an example of apocalyptic biblical literature.
- After predicting the great destruction of all human kingdoms, Daniel 12 portrays the ultimate victory.
- Today's passage is the clearest statement concerning resurrection from the dead found in the Old Testament.

Reading II : Hebrews 10:11-14, 18

Jesus took his seat at the right hand of God.

- Today's reading from the letter to the Hebrews emphasizes that Jesus' victory over sin and death is one in which we already share.
- Jesus will come again, and the believer must be ready.
- The day and hour Christ will come, no one knows.

Gospel : Mark 13:24-32

God alone knows the hour.

- The author of the Gospel of Mark expresses the urgency and need for vigilance felt at this time when Christ might return at any moment.
- Today's passage is an apocalyptic discourse linking the events of the destruction of Jerusalem with the expected second coming of Christ.
- The imagery of cosmic catastrophe surrounds the expectation.

Theme: Jesus will come again.

Suggested text for faith sharing: Today's Gospel

Step One: Listen to the Word

As you hear this rather strange Gospel today, what words or phrases strike you? What image or idea lingers in your memory?

Step Two: Look into Your Life

Question for Children: If Jesus came to visit you today, what would you do? What would say? How would you act?

Question for Youth: If today was your last day, what would you be most thankful for? What would you regret?

Question for Adults: If today was your last, what would you do with it?

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime . Please call the office at 609.522.2709 .

Saint of the Week:

Frances Xavier Cabrini, Teacher & Religious

Frances Xavier Cabrini was the first citizen of the United States to be canonized as a saint. Born Maria Francesca Cabrini at San Angelo, Italy, she was naturalized as a citizen of the United States at Seattle in 1909. She joined the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, and their ministry was the Christian education of girls. In 1889, Pope Leo XIII asked Frances to sail to the United States to work among the Italian immigrants there, and Frances left for New York with six other sisters.

Within three months of their arrival, Mother Cabrini had already founded an orphanage and a school. In the thirty-five years before her death, she was to open sixty-seven hospitals, schools, orphanages, convents, and other foundations in the United States, Central America, and South America. Despite a great dread of water, Mother Cabrini sailed the oceans more than thirty times in her missionary work.

The strength of the United States has come from those who have emigrated from other countries to our shores. Mother Cabrini was sent to tend to the needs of these people. Today, we seem to have lost sight of the richness which immigrants have brought to our country.

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini is the patron saint of immigrants. A memorial honors her on November 13
