Dear Friends,

In a few short days it will be Thanksgiving. I would like to take this opportunity to say, Happy Thanksgiving! I love these words for numerous reasons. One reason is the obvious..... Thanksgiving Day means..... the Christmas Season is upon us. Some would say it's the happiest time of the year. I tend to agree. Lots of family gatherings, Christmas decorations, Christmas movies and of course Christmas music. I know there is a debate as to when is too soon to start playing Christmas music but for the majority Thanksgiving Day is the official start of all things Christmas. I can't forget to mention my favorite part, finding the perfect gift for a loved one. All these things put a smile on my face. The joy of the festivities is contagious.

After a few weeks though the burdens of the season creep in. How will pay for all the presents I need? I can't invite my whole family over because this aunt is not talking to this uncle. And many other negative things put a damper on our good time. This is when my next reason, and probably the most important reason, for loving the words Happy Thanksgiving comes into play. Thanksgiving Day is a reminder to give thanks for all of our blessing. With our busy, hectic schedules we tend to forget to just stop for a moment and reflect on all the things we have to be thankful for. Every year I resolve to add saying five things I am thankful for to my bedtime prayers and every year I am reminded again at Thanksgiving how I fell out of this habit again. I like to use this time of year, as the leaves are falling and nature is purging itself of all its impurities, to cleanse myself of all my negativity and bad habits so I can begin anew in the new year. I do this by remembering all the things I have to be thankful for. My number one thing I am thankful for is my faith. Without my faith I would have nothing. Next is my family and friends. I am thankful to have people in my life who bring me joy and make me a better person. I am thankful for Notre Dame de la Mer parish. That means I am thankful for all of you. Seeing your faces in mass every week helps me to keep my faith. The volunteers that come forward when asked to do the many things around the parish gives me faith in my fellow man. I am thankful for my job as part of our parish's Catechetical Team. Sharing my faith and religion with others has fulfilled me in ways I can't explain. I am thankful for my migraines. If I did not become ill with migraines and have to leave my job as a nurse I never would have found the peace and joy that my job now brings me. These are five things I am thankful for..... what are yours?

The last reason I like the words Happy Thanksgiving is because they remind me not only to be thankful but to be happy with all the things I have been given in life. As humans we tend to always want more. Instead of being happy with what we have we look at all the things we don't have.

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Nov. 19, 2018

(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall

November, the month of giving thanks, offers many opportunities to share our blessings and gifts with others.

THURSDAY NOVEMBER 22, 9:00 AM
ASSUMPTION CHURCH

We will continue our Thanksgiving Day Mass tradition this year, encouraging everyone to participate in the Offertory procession at Mass by donating shopping bags of groceries, for Lazarus House Emergency Food Pantry.

This past summer was very difficult for Lazarus House who experienced a severe shortage in food donations. As we begin the busiest time of the year for Lazarus House, the need for food donations is critical, to help re-stock the shelves for the next several months, and provide food for those in need.

Please take one or more shopping bags from the back of the churches. Each has a list attached of the most needed foods, and bring it to Mass with you on Thanksgiving morning.

If you can not attend the Mass, please leave your bag of groceries in one of the Lazarus House baskets in the churches.

Should you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Frank Stone at the pantry: 609-522-1500.
