Stewardship

November 27, 2022– Stewards Know

1st Sunday of Advent

“Therefore, stay awake! For you do not know on which day your Lord will come.” MATTHEW 24:42

People who have had health issues or near-death experiences generally have a greater appreciation for each day being a gift from God. The rest of us usually take for granted that we will be around tomorrow. But when you start to look at each day as a gift, you realize all the little miracles that happen daily and you begin to see God’s active presence in your life. In Stewardship, you grow in gratitude each day, for all that we have been given.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Technology is here to stay.

Everyday, more and more of life's everyday tasks are made easier and automatic through ever-evolving technology.

One way technology can make your life easier is signing up for online giving with Parish Giving™.

Please enroll today by visiting our parish website.

Thank you for your continued support of our parish.

From the Desk of Donnamarie Sexton - Catechetical Leader

Dear Friends,

With Thanksgiving behind us, Christmas is fast approaching. Before we get caught up in the hustle and bustle of this festive season, I would like to challenge you to pause for a second and think about what this season is really all about. Our Catholic faith encourages us to use these next four weeks, which we call Advent, to prepare for the coming of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Normally, we think about this as celebrating the birth of Jesus. Recently, I had the pleasure of attending a presentation given by two of our wonderful parishioners. This presentation was given on the subject of preparing ourselves for Advent. Preparing yourself for, the season of preparing yourself for, the coming of Jesus seems redundant. But actually, it put a new spin on my thought process and how I want to use my Advent season.

We can celebrate the birth of Jesus like we celebrate other birthdays; by giving presents, cooking special meals, spending time with family and some even have birthday cakes for Jesus. But, how can we prepare for the birth of Jesus when we were not present for it? How can we prepare for something that happened in the past? Here is the spin... I am not preparing for the coming of Jesus at his birth, I am preparing for the second coming of Jesus. When he will come to judge the living and the dead. I do not know when this will be and either do you. Are you ready for this judgement?

We can take the time during Advent to prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus, whenever that may be. We can use this time to reflect on our faith practices and our daily life habits to see where we can make improvements. If we do this each year, we will be moving in the right direction to be better prepared to face Jesus at the end of time. Whether that means the end of our time on earth or the end of time as we know it.

There are many different avenues for you to explore to help you have a good faithful Advent and help you prepare yourself for your judgment day. To get you started, here are some of my favorite sites: Ascension Press, Dynamic Catholic, Our Sunday Visitor and Busted Halo. There are many more to choose from these are just a few.

Now, I will share with you my plan this Advent because maybe some of you would like to do the same. This Advent I would like to reflect on how I can know Christ better in the Mass. I would like to be more attentive to what is happening in the Mass instead of what is going on around me. Instead of just reciting the prayers from memory I would like to focus more on the meanings of the words I pray. I would like to be more present during the Eucharistic Prayers and Consecration of the Eucharist. This year and each year moving forward I would like to come to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread and be ever conscious of the fact that I am truly receiving Jesus in the Eucharist. To help you to do the same I would like to share a pamphlet I read from OSV (Our Sunday Visitor). It is called, Eucharist: Sacrament of Faith. These pamphlets can be found outside the welcome centers at each church.

If you would like to know more information on how to have a great Advent feel free to contact me for assistance.

God Bless,

Donnamarie Sexton

Luke 3:4

Mass Intentions

Readings of the Week

Reading I: Isaiah 2:1-5

Let us walk in the light of the Lord!

- The prophet Isaiah describes a glorious vision of the arrival of God's Kingdom.
- The event that Isaiah describes, the gathering of people into God's Kingdom and the beating of swords into plowshares, refers to a future time of peace and prosperity, similar to the time of David.
- This reading urges the people to join in the march toward peace and prosperity by trusting in God!

Reading II: Romans 13:11-14

It is now the hour to awake from your sleep.

- With the death and Resurrection of Christ, Paul presents the Christian community with the critical challenge of the present moment.
- Paul lists six sins to be avoided in preparation for the end time, or indeed for any time in the life of the Christian.
- Paul urges each person to seek the honorable path and imitate the life of Jesus.

Gospel: Matthew 24:37-44

You must be prepared.

- This Gospel reading from Matthew focuses on the second coming of Christ.
- The images of the two men in the field and the two women grinding meal emphasize the suddenness of Christ's coming and the separation that it will bring.
- The lesson is: be constantly watchful.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- As a family buy or create an Advent wreath. (You can create one using a foam ring and evergreen branches. Carve holes in the foam to fit four candles.) As you create or assemble it together, discuss the symbolism of the Advent wreath: The circle reminds us of God's everlasting presence among us. The green of the evergreen symbolizes God's promise of eternal life. The four candles remind us of the weeks of preparation for the coming of Jesus. The pink of the third candle is a sign of joy. It reminds us of the closeness of the Lord's coming.
- Plan a family meal for each week of Advent, where you light the Advent wreath and mark the days that have passed on our journey to Christmas.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

¿He insultado al Santo Nombre de Dios, o lo he usado a la ligera o descuidadamente?

¿He deseado mal a alguien?

3. Acuérdate de santificar el Día del Señor.

¿He faltado a Misa premeditadamente el domingo,
Día del Señor, ¿o en los Días Festivos de preceptos?

¿Trato de mantener al domingo como un día de descanso?
