1st Sunday of Advent

*“But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.”
(LUKE 21:28)*

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you live Stewardship? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by sharing your God story with others, especially those closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

Dear Parishioner,

Happy New Year!!! As most of you know, the First Sunday of Advent is the beginning of a new liturgical year. During the year 2021-2022, we will hear our Sunday gospel predominantly coming from Luke's gospel since we are in Year C of the lectionary. The lectionary is the book that the lector reads from during Mass. It contains all the readings used for the Mass, and the Church matches particular scriptural passages together to fit with the liturgical celebration).

As we begin the season of Advent, I would like to touch on one very important theme of the season. Advent is a time of preparation for the Coming of the Savior. Yes, we await his coming on Christmas day, but it is much more than just putting the Baby Jesus in the manger on Christmas Eve. We need to remember that Christ already came 2,000 years ago. Christmas is the celebration that God became man so that he may die for us. God, in his infinite knowledge, deemed this path of salvation the most fitting.

Here we are in the present moment. We are waiting for Jesus' Second Coming when he will triumph over the devil once and for all; when he will judge the living and the dead by faith and acts of charity. Are we prepared for this coming? Is my life oriented towards Christ, or do I treat my faith as merely an obligation (meaning, do I just go to Mass because that is how I was raised or because my parents force me)?

The beginning of a new liturgical year is a great time for some "new year resolutions." During this season of Advent, I encourage you to be more involved with the community. Maybe spend some time helping out at Lazarus House or ask the parish office if you can help out in any way regarding liturgy, the parish office, or even the school. Along with these acts of charity, deepen your spiritual life; start praying the rosary, attend Mass more often than just Sundays, participate in one of our prayer groups, or simply visit Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament during adoration.

During this season of Advent, I pray that you will be nourished by God's grace and that you will prepare yourself for the Second Coming. None of us is perfect. We all can grow in our spiritual lives. Let us take advantage of what the Lord has given us and pray for one another.

God bless,
Tom Piro

Sunday Readings

Reading I: Jeremiah 33:14-16

A shoot shall rise up.

- The prophets believed that the fullness of God's kingdom could be experienced in history.
- Jeremiah was writing for an audience that was facing exile.
- In today's passage, the prophet Jeremiah assures the people that even in the midst of disaster God would remain faithful.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2

Love one another and act in ways pleasing to God.

- The Christians at Thessalonica believed that Christ's return would come in their lifetime.
- Paul's letter encourages them to live wisely in anticipation of Christ's coming.
- The Thessalonians are urged to persevere in the way of life they had learned from Paul so that the day of the Lord would truly be a day of rejoicing.

Gospel: Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Jesus will come again in glory; be not afraid.

- Today's Gospel uses apocalyptic imagery to describe the return of Christ.
- Luke's audience recognized that the wait for Christ's return could be long.
- Christians must always be ready because no one knows when the great day will come.

Family Reflection Corner

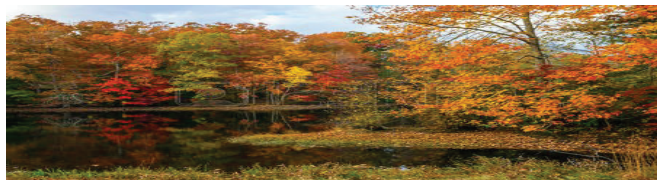

Weekly Readings Reflection

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Make and bless an Advent wreath for your home. Recall that the circle reminds us of God's eternal faithfulness. The four candles represent the four Sundays in Advent. The candles symbolize Jesus who is the Light of the world. During Advent, focus your daily prayers around the Advent wreath.
- Have a discussion about how your family prepares for special days and events. Remind family members that this special time of preparation for Christmas is called Advent. Talk about what each family member can do to prepare his or her heart for Jesus' coming.
- Together as a family do a Christmas craft or project that reflects the message of Christ's hope and promise. For example, make homemade Christmas cards or Christmas tree ornaments.

Funerals: To be arranged with the funeral director. Please call a funeral home of your choice.

Prayer Opportunities

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

1er. Domingo de Adviento

"Cuando estas señales empiecen a suceder, levántense y alcen la cabeza porque su redención está cerca" (Lucas 21:28)

Celebramos el Adviento cada año en preparación para el nacimiento de Jesús, Su primera venida, mientras esperamos Su segunda venida. ¿Qué hará en forma diferente esta temporada de Adviento para crecer en la amistad y el amor de Jesús? ¿Cómo inspirará a otros a hacer lo mismo? Comience por compartir su historia con Dios con los demás, especialmente aquellos más cercanos a usted. Invítelos y acompáñelos en su viaje de fe este Adviento.
