Stewardship

November 29, 2020

Thankful Stewardship

1st Sunday of Advent

"Take heed, watch and pray; for you do not know when the time will come." - MARK 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our time, our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God through your Stewardship for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts & life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual & corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Our Campaign continues! Pledge payments can be accepted through the year 2024. We appreciate all those who have been faithful with their pledge payments especially during the pandemic. All payments received by November 30 will be part of the distribution we receive this December.

Thank you for your continued support!

Electronic Giving: PARISH GIVING is a safe, secure, and easy way to make on-line church related donations and payments. It is easy...and offers you a variety of ways to make consistent or special contributions. Please give it a try by visiting our parish website: www.notredamedelamer.org and click on the PARISH GIVING button.

Dear Parishioners,

Let me begin by saying how happy I am to be a “companion on the journey” with all here in Notre Dame de la Mer Parish, and in a special way to be able to walk with our brothers and sisters who are interested and desirous to learn and speak English with fluency. As an IHM Sister I have had the privilege of serving in the Dioceses of Camden, Philadelphia and Harrisburg as well as in Lima, Peru and Santiago, Chile. Having begun my religious ministry in Somerdale, NJ and now returning after 50 years to Camden Diocese, I can only whisper prayers of thanks to the Lord for this wonderful possibility and the joys I have experienced here in this community.

In this month of November we have had the wonderful time to pause from our everyday hectic lives to celebrate our Thanksgiving holidays. While Covid may have changed some of our typical activities, we could all stop for a bit, breathe deeply and express our gratitude to God for our life, family, faith and country. Despite the pandemic and the upheaval of the elections, the looming concerns over employment, and the economy, we continue to have much for which to thank God and for which we will continue to pray.

“Gratitude is an attitude of the heart”. These are words that my loving mother repeated often to us when we were kids growing up (I am one of seven children). It is with deepest gratitude, then, that we can anticipate the Advent season which begins this week and invites us to prepare our very hearts for the great Gift the Father sent into our world in the person of His Son, Jesus Christ. A new liturgical year offers us an opportunity to reflect on the mystery of the Incarnation, “and the Word became flesh” and dwells among us. Does Thanksgiving carry over into Advent? Henry David Thoreau said, “I am grateful for who I am and what I have. My thanksgiving is perpetual.”

And so in this Advent season, might I suggest that we make each day one of thanksgiving? We might look to the example of the prophet Isaiah (chapter 40 and others), John the Baptist in Matthew’s Gospel (chapter 3), and Mary and Joseph in Luke’s Gospel (chapters 1-3) to reflect on their examples of “preparing the way” for Jesus’ presence in the world. It has never been an easy task, but rather one filled with challenges of coping with a multitude of other activities in life, yet seeking and finding the time to listen to God’s voice. We find ourselves overwhelmed with things to do, gifts to buy, cleaning and decorating... can we make time for quiet prayer this Advent? Can our presence in the family, at work or in the parish be gift to others? Can our smiles and helping hands to others help “prepare the way” and give birth to Jesus? It is a real challenge, but one that enfleshes Thoreau’s words, making my thanksgiving perpetual and making my Advent more meaningful. Let’s do it! We are in this together!

Sunday Readings

Reading I : Isaiah 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

We have not seen any God like you!

- The first reading was written after the Israelites returned from exile and resettled in Judah.
- The people were discouraged by widespread poverty, dissension among their leaders, and the overwhelming task of rebuilding the ruins.
- The prophet challenges the Israelites to persevere at their task.

Reading II : 1 Corinthians 1:3-9

He will strengthen you to the end.

- Paul's letter is addressed to the Corinthians, a people who have embraced Christianity with ardor.
- Paul reminds the people that the most essential gift for their salvation is perseverance in faith.

Gospel : Mark 13:33-37

Be constantly on guard!

- Today's passage repeats two ideas. First, no one but God knows the time of the end. Second, the proper response of the faithful disciple is to watch and be ready at all times.
- Only those who persevere in watching will be saved.

Family Reflection Corner

Weekly Readings Reflection

1st Sunday of Advent

Choose one of the following activities as a way to further reflect on the Sunday readings.

- Make an Advent calendar. Together as a family, write what you will do each day to get ready for Jesus' coming.
- As a family, make an Advent wreath. The Advent wreath is a circle of evergreens with four candles. Use a Styrofoam ring for the base. Hollow out four holes to fit the candles. Four candles identify the weeks of Advent: three are purple, for the long wait; one pink, for the third Sunday to express our joy that we are halfway through our Advent waiting. Decorate with artificial evergreen twigs and berries. Place the Advent wreath on your family table and light it when you pray during advent.
- Discuss the following question with your family: What will it take for you to get ready to meet Christ at Christmas?

Reflections on Mysterium Fidei by Pope Paul VI

Sections 64-76

To conclude his encyclical, Paul VI encourages the priests to promote Eucharistic devotions as the “focal point and goal of all devotions” (MF 64). A Eucharistic devotion may be expressed through the daily reception of Holy Communion. This daily nourishment is proof of one’s gratitude and love to the Eucharistic Lord. The presence of the Eucharist gives Christianity a special dignity. As touched upon before, the Eucharist is Emmanuel. No other faith has this mysterious relationship with God. The Eucharist is reserved for this reason. It is to show that Christ the Head is the central point of the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ. The Holy Father also emphasizes in these sections the sign and cause of unity derived from the Eucharist. He encourages the faithful “to embrace the Church's cause as their own, to pray to God without slackening, to offer themselves to God as an acceptable sacrifice for the peace and unity of the Church” (MF 70). Paul VI concludes by quoting the teaching of unity prescribed by the Council of Trent. The Church “begs” for the unity of the Christian faithful in this most Holy Sacrament, “this bond of charity, this symbol of harmony” (MF 72). To officially conclude this encyclical, Paul VI invokes the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the source of Christ’s humanity, and all the saints to pray for perfect unity.

As we conclude this series of Mysterium Fidei, we begin the season of Advent. During this season, we prepare ourselves for the birth of Jesus, Emmanuel, God with us. As we reflect on the mystery of the Incarnation, we can extend our prayer to the fact that God is still “Emmanuel” in the Eucharist! Another thing we should bring to our prayer lives is the fact that God is with us. Who is this “us?” He is not here just for Catholics! He is here for all of us. Let us pray that all may be drawn to enter into the Mystery of the Eucharist and experience the love of Jesus Christ.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY VOCATIONS

Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless the Diocese of Camden with an increase in vocations to the priesthood. We pray that young men from our parishes and families will hear your call and be both generous and courageous in their response.

May more young men serve you as priests who teach the faith, preach the Gospel, celebrate the sacraments and make you present among us through their ministry.

Encourage them to embrace the joy-filled and fulfilling life of a diocesan priest.

May parents support priestly vocations in their families by prayer and good example.

We entrust these prayers through Mary Immaculate, our patroness, hopeful that you will bless our diocese with more priest in the near future, who live and reign forever and ever.

AMEN.

ADVENT FAITH-FILLED EVENT

This year my plan was to do a Jesse Tree at our Advent Event.

The Jesse tree helps us connect the custom of decorating Christmas trees to the events leading to Jesus' birth. The Jesse tree is named from Isaiah 11:1: "A shoot shall come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots." Jesse was the father of King David. We adorn a Jesse tree with illustrated ornaments that represent the people, prophecies, and events leading up to the birth of Jesus. The ornaments of the Jesse tree tell the story of God in the Old Testament, connecting the Advent season with the faithfulness of God across four thousand years of history.

Since we can not do it together I would love for you to do it at home. The best resource I found to help with this is Loyola Press. You can pick three or more ornaments a week for your family to do and read the bible passage that goes with it.
