Stewardship

December 1, 2024
1st Sunday of Advent

Stewards Prepare

“But when these signs begin to happen, stand erect and raise your heads because your redemption is at hand.” (LUKE 21:28)

We celebrate Advent each year in preparation for the birth of Jesus, His first coming, as we await His second coming. What will you do differently this Advent season to grow in friendship and love with Jesus? How will you inspire others to do the same? Start by living Stewardship and sharing your God story with others, especially those that are closest to you. Invite and accompany them on their faith journey this Advent.

From the desk of Rev. Cadmus Mazarella, Pastor

Dear parishioners,

Happy Thanksgiving to each of you and all of your loved ones!

So many people look forward to this special time of year and this particular holiday to pause, and with great gratitude to sincerely, thank Our Lord for all the blessings he has given to us since our last celebration of Thanksgiving, and throughout our lives.

In a very special way, I'd like to thank all of you for being part of this amazing and vibrant faith community. In the last few years, we have grown in numbers, ministries, and, most importantly, in devotion to our Lord. We also still have the honor of having responsibility for Wildwood Catholic Academy, helping children and teens to grow in all facets of learning from pre-K to 12th grade. The most important part of their growth, though is in knowing and practicing our precious Catholic faith . we have a very capable and qualified administrative team, school staff, and very dedicated competent teachers. The environment there at the school is so peaceful and family oriented.

And in the parish we have so many ministers and many volunteers that continually give of themselves in service to the people of God. And even though many of our people have great crosses to bear and personal burdens, they continue to radiate peace and joy, despite those challenges. it is very hard to remain positive and thoughtful of others in environment that is increasingly negative and self-centered.

We are also beginning a new church calendar/liturgical year with the special season of Advent , and are preparing to celebrate the birth of our Savior Jesus. These four weeks of advent are a special time to pray, go to Mass, receive the sacrament of confession, meditate, read the scriptures and sincerely try to help those in need. I highly recommend that we use these special four weeks of advent to adequately, prepare for Jesus's birth, and to celebrate with joy the great Christmas season.

I would also recommend with your family or friends to watch and enjoy the movie series, "The Chosen" during the upcoming holidays. It is truly very well done and has touched many many souls. I think it is a special gift from heaven for these challenging times.

Again, I offer a special word of thanks to all of you who gives so much to your own families, and to the family of the church day in and day out and who sacrifice so much for others. You are following beautifully in the footsteps of our master and Savior, Jesus Christ!

Sincerely in Christ,

Father Mazz

Reading I : Jeremiah 33:14-16

A shoot shall rise up.

- The prophets believed that the fullness of God's kingdom could be experienced in history.
- Jeremiah was writing for an audience that was facing exile.
- In today's passage, the prophet Jeremiah assures the people that even in the midst of disaster God would remain faithful.

Reading II : 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2

Love one another and act in ways pleasing to God.

- The Christians at Thessalonica believed that Christ's return would come in their lifetime.
- Paul's letter encourages them to live wisely in anticipation of Christ's coming.
- The Thessalonians are urged to persevere in the way of life they had learned from Paul so that the day of the Lord would truly be a day of rejoicing.

Gospel : Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Jesus will come again in glory; be not afraid.

- Today's Gospel uses apocalyptic imagery to describe the return of Christ.
- Luke's audience recognized that the wait for Christ's return could be long.
- Christians must always be ready because no one knows when the great day will come.

Saint of the Week:

St. Catherine Labouré, Religious (1806-1876)

Zoe Labouré was born in southern France. Her mother died when she was eight years old. Following her mother's funeral, she went into her bedroom, picked up a statue of the Blessed Mother and said, "Now, dear Lady, you are to be my mother." She eventually joined the Daughters of Charity and she often would see apparitions of Saint Vincent de Paul and Jesus. She once saw an apparition of Mary standing on a globe with rays streaming from her hands toward the globe. This would become the Our Lady of the Immaculate Conception Medal. Within a few years, millions of medals had been made and were found to be miraculous. It was near Zoe's death that she revealed her visions.

St. Catherine Labouré was canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1947. She is honored by her order and in France on November 28.

Catherine's message today: With God's grace one does not have to be a strong, outgoing type to accomplish much in the world. In the years since the Miraculous Medal was introduced, many miracles have been reported.
