Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Third Sunday of Advent also known as Gaudete Sunday, meaning rejoice! This title comes from the beginning of the Latin introit for this Sunday “Gaudete in Domino semper: iterum dico, gaudete” (“Rejoice in the Lord: again I say, rejoice.”), which is from today’s Second Reading. With there only being one more Sunday left before Christmas, today’s liturgy takes a more eager and urgent sense of anticipation. You will notice the rose colored candle on the Advent Wreath will be lit and our priests will wear rose-colored vestments, the color of joy.

We are accustomed to respond to the First Reading each week with a sung Responsorial Psalm, however this Sunday we respond with a canticle which is taken from the 12th chapter of Isaiah “Cry out with Joy and Gladness”, again keeping with the theme of today’s celebration.

You will hear over and over again in our readings today “sing” and “rejoice” (great synonyms for musicians) and this is exactly what our music ministry plans to do to tonight during our “Prelude to Christmas” Concert! I hope you will all join us this evening at Saint Ann Church, 6:00pm as our three parish choirs, orchestra and our Holy Nativity Pageant Cast will bring you a glimpse of the joy we will soon experience as we celebrate the Christ Child’s Holy Birth. Our choirs have been working tirelessly well into the many nights of rehearsal to present this very special concert for our community here at Notre Dame de la Mer. Now that the choirs are ready, the children excited and the instruments are tuned, your attendance is all that is left to make this a truly joyous night, and I certainly hope you will join us. This concert is free to all, however we will be accepting a free will offering to help defray the cost of the production. Although you will be hearing many Christmas Carols this evening at the concert you will notice just two Christmas trees will be placed in our sanctuary to remind us all that we are still in the season of Advent and anxiously awaiting the true beauty of the Christmas garlands, trees, lights and poinsettias that will adorn our churches as we begin our celebration of the Christmas season on Christmas Eve. Thank you all for your wonderful support of our parish music ministry and again I hope to see you all this Sunday evening.

“Rejoice in the Lord: again I say rejoice”

Sincerely,

Jonathan Delgado

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

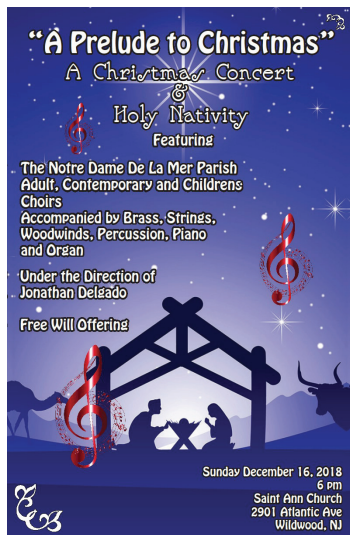

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Dec. 17, 2018

LEARNING ABOUT THE ADVENT WREATH

The third week of Advent focuses on JOY! This week we light the rose-colored candle. We are ever closer to the birth of the Lord! And so this week we sing:

December 17

O Wisdom of our God Most High, guiding creation with power and love: come to teach us the path of knowledge!

December 18

O Leader of the House of Israel, giver of the Law to Moses on Sinai: come to rescue us with your mighty power!

December 19

O Root of Jesse's stem, sign of God's love for all his people: come to save us without delay!

December 20

O Key of David,
opening the gates of God's eternal Kingdom:
come and free the prisoners of darkness!

December 21

O Radiant Dawn, splendor of eternal light, sun of justice: come and shine on those who dwell in darkness and in the shadow of death.

December 22

O King of all nations and keystone of the Church:
come and save man, whom you formed from the dust!

December 23

O Emmanuel, our King and Giver of Law:
come to save us, Lord our God!
