Stewardship

December 22, 2024
4th Sunday of Advent

Stewards Grow

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." (LUKE 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. What are you doing as a Christian Steward to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

Planned Giving

St. Francis of Assisi taught us that it is in giving that we receive. Please consider remembering your parish when planning your estate. You could continue to support your parish into the foreseeable future through your planned giving. Please call us to discuss the possibility of giving through stock gifts, charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, real estate gifts and life insurance gifts. Through your generosity the good works of the Church, her spiritual and corporal works of mercy will continue for years to come!

Dear parishioners ,

“Hope does not disappoint”!

These encouraging words are from Saint Paul’s letter to the Romans. Here is Romans chapter 5, verses 1 through 5. Faith, Hope, and Love.[a] 1 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace[b] with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, 2 through whom we have gained access [by faith] to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, 4 and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, 5 and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy Spirit that has been given to us.

At the beginning of advent we began a new church calendar year. In a few short days, we will begin a new secular calendar year. In the midst of many global conflicts, civil turmoil in many countries, economic woes, sicknesses, fears & worries we seek the gift of hope. I am sure the Holy Spirit has inspired our holy father Pope Francis, to declare beginning Christmas Eve a jubilee year, dedicated to this theme of having hope and knowing that “hope does not disappoint “!

In calling for a jubilee year, which occurs every 25 years since the 1300s, faithful Catholics around the world will be observing this Jubilee year, also known as a ” holy year”. This special year is intended to be a moment of genuine, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus. It will truly be a year of spiritual renewal. Many Catholics will travel to Rome to participate in many festivities, including walking through the holy doors, which will be open during the entire jubilee year. And like in Rome itself, there will be many Masses, celebrations, & opportunities for prayer, confession & inspiring devotions in each diocese around the world. Our own diocese of Camden ,along with our parish, will also be having beautiful experiences of faith enrichment . I will be providing you with more information about these in the future.

As we celebrate, Christmas Eve , Day & Season in these next few weeks, we are in amazement & awe that the son of God came to the Earth, born in Bethlehem in such simpleness and humility. With his birth into the world came a tremendous HOPE that each of us can be saved from our sins, and be with the Lord forever in heaven-for all eternity! There is nothing like the birth of a newborn child that brings such great joy, peace, & hope for the future and a brighter tomorrow. So I encourage you as your pastor to delve even more deeply into our rich Catholic faith in this new year of Grace, this holy Jubilee year of hope .

There is nothing like the birth of a newborn child that brings such great joy, peace, and hope for the future and a brighter tomorrow.

In Christ,

Father Mazz

Readings of the Week

Reading I : Micah 5:1-4

From you will come forth a savior.

- The prophet Micah preached in and around Jerusalem in the eighth century B.C.
- In today's passage, Micah proclaims that hope will arise from another "city of David," Bethlehem, and not Jerusalem.
- The new king, the new anointed one who would bring salvation, would come like David from Bethlehem, and his kingdom would reach to the ends of the earth.

Reading II : Hebrews 10:5-10

One sacrifice instead of many.

- The reading from the Letter to the Hebrews presents the incarnation of Jesus from a different perspective.
- In today's passage, the author discusses the difference between Jewish sacrifice and the one Christian sacrifice, the death of Jesus.
- Jesus' sacrifice of himself, a sacrifice offered only once, was made possible by his assuming a human body and human existence.

Gospel : Luke 1:39-45

Mary visits Elizabeth.

- In today's Gospel, Mary travels to the hill country of Judah, to the home of Zechariah and Elizabeth, where she visits Elizabeth.
- When they meet, Elizabeth proclaims the greatness of Mary's child and John the Baptizer, still in her womb, leaps for joy.
- Luke makes it evident in today's passage, that both mothers and both children are filled with the Holy Spirit.

Why do we display a Nativity Scene

In its present form the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Jesus Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche or manger for Christmas Eve of 1223.

The blessing of the Christmas manger or nativity scene may take place on the Vigil of Christmas or at another suitable time. When the manger is set up in the home, it is appropriate that it be blessed by a parent or another family member.

In its present form, the custom of displaying figures depicting the birth of Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas crèche for Christmas Eve of 1223.

Saint of the Week:

Blessed Elisha of St. Clement, Religious, 1901-27

The night before Theodora Fracasso's First Communion, she had a vision of Saint Teresa of Jesus (Saint Teresa of Ávila) who told her that she would become a nun just as Teresa had. She was accepted as a novice at age 13 and worked as a catechist. Theodora joined the Carmel of Saint Joseph and took the name Elisha of Saint Clement. She taught embroidery at a boarding school for girls, but was transferred back to the convent because she was considered too lenient with the girls. She continued her prayerful and loving life until she suffered a long bout of influenza and other fevers and illnesses until she died. She died at noon on Christmas Day, fulfilling a prediction that she had made sometime earlier that she would die on a feast day.

Blessed Elisha of St. Clement was beatified on March 18, 2006.

Elisha of St. Clement's message today: This saint discerned her vocation very early in life, something that most of us cannot do. But, at whatever stage of our life we choose a calling, it should be done with prayer and good judgment.
