Message From Rev. Joseph D. Wallace, Pastor

Dear Parishioner,

As we gather to celebrate Christmas this year we reflect upon another year of life which saw many events, here in the parish, the nation and the world that have touched our lives in different ways. No doubt this year has brought joys and sadness in different measure to each person and family. Traditionally we see Christmas as a time of peace and joy, a time to celebrate with family, friends, and loved ones of all kinds. The priests, sisters, seminarians, parish administrator and all ministers of our parish and schools hope and pray that your Christmas will have something of that peace, joy and celebration. Such joyful celebrations may not be possible for some of our parish families for a number of reasons. You may have lost a loved one since last Christmas, or you may be overburdened by money worries, sickness, family problems or some other challenge. Know that we promise you our prayers and as a parish family, we do care and offer you our support.

Here at Notre Dame de la Mer we have seen some exciting changes and additions to mission and ministry that bring us joy and hope for the future. Our liturgies are constantly improving with the ever growing music ministry, multitude of ministers, dedicated home visitors, vibrant Catholic schools, vocations to the priesthood, active seniors programs and trips, Haitian outreach, support of Lazarus House Inc., prayer groups, and so many other outreaches to our local community. Many people have been involved in bringing these initiatives to life. We give thanks for the many parishioners who have given generously of their time, treasure and talents in making this parish such an energetic, faith-filled community. We are especially thankful for our parish's generous response to the Catholic Strong Campaign. We have high hopes of making our parish even more alive and welcoming in the near future as a contingent from our parish participates in the Convocation of Catholic Leaders: The Joy of the Gospel in South Jersey. This gathering will take place in Atlantic City in March. It seeks to bring new life to our parishes by gathering together and discerning where the Holy Spirit is calling us as we seek to be missionary disciples to the world.

Maybe the Christmas message this year is a challenge for all of us to become more involved. It is not so much a question of giving more; it is a question of giving more of ourselves. After all, that's what God was doing when he got involved with us and our world at that first Christmas. Christmas belongs to believers, to those who believe that Jesus Christ, Son of God, was born of the Virgin Mary to reconcile us to one another and to the Father. This is why he came. God will fill us with his peace if there is room in our lives for him.

Thank you for helping Notre Dame de la Mer with her mission of bringing the Gospel to our Island home! May you and your entire family be blessed with peace and joy during this Christmas season and in the New Year!

Fr. Wallace

Stewardship

Stewardship
a way of life

4th Sunday of Advent
Stewards Hear

"For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." (LUKE 1:44)

When you hear the scripture readings and Gospel reading each Sunday, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lecturer or priest, rather look inside yourself. Do you prepare for Mass each week or do you just show up and expect to be entertained? We are called through Stewardship to be active participants, not passive by-standers.

ELECTRONIC GIVING: Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2018 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2018 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive Presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Still in search of anyone interested in offering their TIME to help us keep our beautiful worship sites clean.

Can you help?...give the parish office a call. Our devoted teams need your help once a week

Holy Hour of Intercession

The Youth and Young Adults Office at the Diocese of Camden requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayers for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives. We are therefore providing time each month when parishioners can come together to pray for all children and young adults, as well as all the intentions they hold in their hearts.

Our next holy hour will be Monday, Jan. 21 2018

*(the third Monday of the month),
at 9:00 AM at Kelly Hall*

LEARNING ABOUT THE ADVENT WREATH

The fourth week of Advent focuses on FAITH! This week we light all the candles. Emmanuel comes. A Child is born to us; the Savior of the world. The Christmas tree and the Nativity scene are popular symbols of the season. It is also traditional to exchange Christmas gifts with family and friends as a way to honor God the Father's gift of his only Son to the world. Having received the gift of Christ, we naturally want to pass that gift along to our loved ones.
