Letter From Kevin Quinn, Parish Administrator

Dear Parishioner,

The New Year is a great time for personal reassessment. The earth has finished one more revolution around the sun, and the sun, in turn, swings low over the cold January horizon. The days are shorter, and an evening of introspection seems ever more inviting. Somehow, when we turn to a new calendar, we sense an opportunity to make a fresh start.

To make the best of this opportunity, it is useful to make firm commitments. It's even more useful to write them down. These resolutions, kept in a desk drawer, on the refrigerator door, or as a note in your smartphone are a "hard copy" of our best intentions for self-improvement. They're signposts that redirect our lives towards good, and ultimately, towards God.

New Year's resolutions are often focused on personal health — going to the gym, relaxing more, or eating healthy. It is certainly important, of course, to take good care of our bodies. But Christianity offers us a fuller concept of self-improvement. St. Paul reminds us that both the body and the soul need an exercise program. In fact, every aspect of our persons — physical, mental, spiritual, and emotional — can benefit from an annual self-audit.

Some people have taken to heart this multi-faceted concept of the self, and each year make one resolution for each area. For instance, one could resolve to join a prayer group to work on spirituality, or take a continuing education course to build mental skills. Still, others use the three theological virtues of faith, hope and love to help guide their resolution-making process.

By now you may have discerned a similarity between New Year's resolutions and stewardship commitments. We use a similar method to think about stewardship, by breaking it down into more specific concepts: Time, Talent and Treasure. In order to become better stewards, we can write down our commitments. We record our good intentions to clarify exactly what they are — and to remind us of our commitment.

Any serious commitment shares the same components — it is specific, and it is written. From marriages to mortgages, treaties to trades — serious resolutions are spelled out, both literally and figuratively. But even more important than the methodology of a commitment is the heart of the person who makes it. Even the most well-written job descriptions are useless unless there is someone to do the job well!

I invite you to pray that this New Year is a time of grace and wisdom for those of us who seek to recommit our lives to our family, our parish, and our God.

Many Blessings in the New Year,
Kevin

Stewardship

Stewards Forgive

"...as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must forgive." - COLOSSIANS 3:13

Forgiveness – one of the hardest things for people to do. It's amazing how long we can hold a grudge or be angry with someone. As we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family, take this opportunity to act in Stewardship and give the gift of forgiveness to someone - maybe someone in your family, maybe a friend, maybe a co-worker or neighbor or, maybe yourself. Pick up the phone or text someone right now.

Parish Giving is a safe, secure, and easy way to make On-line parish and church related donations and payments. It is convenient and easy and offers you a variety of options. Please give it a try by going to our parish webpage www.notredamedelamer.org and clicking on the Parish Giving button.

The House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal seeks to raise funds to provide care, respect, justice, peace and dignity for every soul in the Diocese of Camden. We ask that you prayerfully consider how this annual program provides solace, support and grace to thousands of your brothers and sisters in Christ and give, generously, in support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal.

Your support of the 2017 House of Charity – Bishop's Annual Appeal ensures the vitality of essential Diocesan ministries and programs that sustain the healing, teaching and redemptive presence of Jesus Christ through the Diocese of Camden.

Our parish goal is $148,799.00 of which we have received $64,385.00.

Parish Information

Sacraments

Pre-Baptismal Classes: As the primary educators of their child, the parents/guardians and godparents have the most important influence on the faith development of children and parishes must provide catechesis for them before their child is baptized. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish offers six Baptism Preparation Classes throughout the year. It is important for the expectant parents/guardians to arrange to attend a session 5 months before the birth and Baptism of the child. Contact the parish offices for more information. The next class is scheduled for Saturday, January 20, 2018 from 9:30 to 11:00 AM.

Funerals: To be arranged with a priest and funeral director.

Sacrament of the Sick: Anytime

Marriage: Arrangements should be made one year in advance and prior to making reception plans.

Spanish Baptism Information

Baptism: The Last Sunday of each month, at 7:00 PM at St. Ann Church.

Pre-Jordan Classes: The Thursday prior to the celebration of Baptism at 7:00 PM in St. Ann Chapel.

Bautismos en Espanol: Ultimo Domingo de cada mes a las 7:00 in Santa Ana.

Clases Pre-Bautismales: El jueves anterior a la celebración del bautismo a las 7:00 pm en la iglesia de Santa Ana.

Mass Cards

Notre Dame de la Mer Parish has Healing and Birthday Mass Cards along with our normal Mass Cards available for your convenience. These cards are available at the Parish Office, and also our Welcome Centers.

Welcome Center

Please stop by and check out the new welcome center. At the Welcome Center you can obtain Mass Cards, learn about upcoming parish events and find out volunteer opportunities. This center will be evolving over time.... Keep your eyes open for new happenings. The center should be open after every weekend mass, if it is not open that is because we are waiting for YOU to fill this volunteer spot!

Important Weather Notice for Daily Morning Mass attendees at Notre Dame de la Mer Parish!

Keeping everyone safe is our main concern. In order to accomplish this we ask that you please follow the procedure below when weather is not favorable in the morning to attend Mass.

Please listen to the radio to see if Cape Trinity Catholic School or Wildwood Catholic High School is closed-if the schools are closed there will be no morning mass. (This is for the 7:00AM and 8:30 AM Mass).

In the event of inclement weather, weekend masses will be decided as needed
