From the Desk of Donnamarie Sexton, Parish Catechetical Leader

Dear Friends,

As the Summer draws to an end and the new school year begins, I would like to ask you to take some time to think about your faith life and the faith of those around you.

First, let's think about the little ones. Do you know of any children, grandchildren, nieces or nephews in 1st-8th grades who go to a public school and are in need of religion classes? Especially those in need of a Sacrament. Our Parish Family Catechesis program starts Sunday, September 21 at 8:45AM with coffee and donuts at Wildwood Catholic Academy. This program is designed for families to attend together to strengthen their faith and grow stronger as a family. Even if your child attends Catholic School the benefits of practicing your faith together as a family will have a lasting effect. See the notice in this bulletin (page 14) for more information and please be sure to call me this week to sign up so that I can prepare for your family to attend.

Next, do you know of anyone in high school or older who would like to join our wonderful Catholic Church? The Parish is in the process of growing an OCLIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) team. This team will work together to give them the best experience to learn about our faith and develop the knowledge to make their sacraments at the Easter Vigil when they are ready. Or maybe there is someone in your life who was Baptized as a child and then for one reason or another never followed through with complete initiation through Confirmation. We can help. Please call me at the Parish Office for more information.

Do you know of a person who hasn't practiced the faith in a while? Or someone who is on the edge about joining our faith and needs a little encouragement? Maybe you yourself want something more out of your faith life? If this sounds like you or someone you know, take a look at the bulletin notice (page 11) about the ChristLife experience. You might even consider joining ChristLife as a volunteer to help make it a meaningful experience for others. Call and talk with one of the contacts named in the bulletin notice if you are interested in volunteering.

Lastly, but certainly not least, I would like to speak to the majority of you: Those of you who faithfully attend Mass each week but want to know more about our faith. What do we believe and why do we believe it? Let's face it, it has probably been some time since you have been in religion classes and probably could use a refresher. The Parish is offering an adult faith class called What We Believe starting this coming week. See the notice in this bulletin (page 6) for more information and sign up quickly!

The Parish has a vibrant women's bible study group—in this bulletin (page 7), there's info on the upcoming Walking with Purpose course just starting up this month. And there is an active men's group in this Parish which meets regularly with presentations and discussion on matters of Catholic faith — take a look at the topics listed under Men's Prayer Group in this bulletin (page 6) and attend a meeting.

As you can see, we have a lot going on in our Parish that could benefit your faith life and the faith of someone you may know. Please don't be a stranger. Join in on one of these groups. Invite someone to join you. You, and they, won't be disappointed.

God Bless,
Donnamarie

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Numbers 21:4b-9 — When anyone who had been bitten by a serpent looked at the bronze serpent, he lived.

♦ The Israelites, worn out from the journey, become rebellious toward God and Moses. They complain to Moses about food. God sends serpents. When people die from the bites, the Israelites repent and God heals them.

READING II: Philippians 2:6-11 — He humbled himself; because of this, God greatly exalted Him.

♦ This reading emphasizes how far God has come to show us the way to Him. God sends his only Son to live as a slave on earth. Jesus takes all of our sins to his Death on the Cross. God raises Jesus to Glory.

GOSPEL: John 3:13-17 — So the Son of Man must be lifted up.

♦ Nicodemus is trying to understand Jesus' teaching. Jesus makes it clear that He has come because the world is in need of salvation. Jesus alludes to the Israelites in the wilderness—as depicted in the First Reading.

Dear Parishioners,

As the new school year begins at Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school, let us pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, benefactors, and alumni.

Let each of us also take the opportunity this new academic year presents, to prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions now to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program on page 13 of this bulletin.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

HOLY HOUR OF INTERCESSION

PRAYING FOR OUR YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULTS

Join us for the next Holy Hour on September 15

The Diocese of Camden Youth and Young Adults Office has requested that parishes come together in Intercessory Prayer for our youth. With so many daily distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our young people, it is important that we pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives.

Our Parish group meets at Assumption Church after 8:30AM Mass every third Monday of the month

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues we as Catholic men are confronted with. Our mission is to defend the Catholic faith. We pray the Rosary. We are Men of the Messiah. We explore the secrets of the Bible; where sacraments are written and commanded us by Jesus; we learn how to fully understand the Eucharist; the Blessed Virgin Mary; the papacy; the confession of sins; who are the Apostles and who are the Saints. We support the Parish in minor manual tasks.

Book One: "Beholding His Glory" Salvation History 1.

This book will illustrate how Old Testament Scripture leads us directly to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. God had a plan for His Son, and He has a plan for your life, too. Page after page, God's awe-inspiring majesty is a treasure to behold.

Book Two: "Beholding Your King" Salvation History 2.

If our self-centered culture sometimes leaves you feeling empty and dissatisfied, a fuller view of God and His glory is your spiritual antidote. As the sequel to Beholding His Glory, the journey through salvation history continues with a study of King David, selected Psalms, the temple, and several Old Testament Prophets.

ST. FRANCIS DE SALES, INTRODUCTION TO THE DEVOUT LIFE

Saint of the Week

John Chrysostom
Bishop and Doctor
c. 347-407

St. John was the son of a Roman imperial military officer. He studied rhetoric and theology under the best Roman scholars before converting to Christianity in 369. He was drawn to the simple life of a monk and, in 374, he became a hermit under the guidance of St. Basil. But the austere life undermined his health and he was forced to return home.

John became a deacon in 381 and was ordained a priest in 386 by the Bishop of Antioch. While ministering in Antioch during the next 12 years, his reputation for eloquent preaching spread and earned him the surname, Chrysostom, meaning "golden mouth." In his sermons, John called for justice and charity, enjoining the rich to share their wealth with the poor. His sermons drew crowds.

In 397, the Emperor wanted to bring him to Constantinople, the grandest city in the Roman empire at that time. Realizing that if the famous preacher were to leave Antioch in a public manner, there would be a uproar from the people, the Emperor sent an agent to Antioch who asked John to accompany him, in secret, out of the city to visit the tombs of the martyrs. Once outside the city, though, the agent delivered John to an imperial officer who escorted John to Constantinople where he was consecrated bishop in 398 and made Archbishop of that city.

In Constantinople, John practiced what he preached by instituting reforms in his own household, cutting down on expenses of the archbishop's residence and retinue. He directed that sums saved be used for the needs of the poor. John's preaching and Christian example supporting the poor and exposing the injustice of the rich gained him many enemies, both in the imperial court and among fellow bishops. In 403, the Archbishop of Alexandria (who coveted John's position as Archbishop of Constantinople) convened a council of 36 bishops. The council drew up a list of false and frivolous charges against John which was sent to the emperor. Based on the spurious list and with the urging of the Empress whom John had specifically criticized, the Emperor ordered John to be exiled.

Soon after John left Constantinople, an earthquake struck the city. This so frightened the Empress that she implored the Emperor to recall John, which he did. Some time later, on the occasion of the dedication of a statue of the Empress in front of a church, John once again spoke out against evils sponsored by the Empress. This time, at her instigation, John was again sent into exile in 404 and died in exile in 407.

Saint John Chrysostom is the patron saint of preachers and orators. The Church celebrates his Memorial on September 13.

“The Many Faces of Hospitality: The Life and Preaching of St. Paul”

September 17, 2025 | 5:30 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

Join the Preaching as Hospitality Formation Program for an evening of prayer, dinner, and a presentation by Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli in the Chapel of Christ the Good Shepherd, Lewis Hall, Seton Hall University.

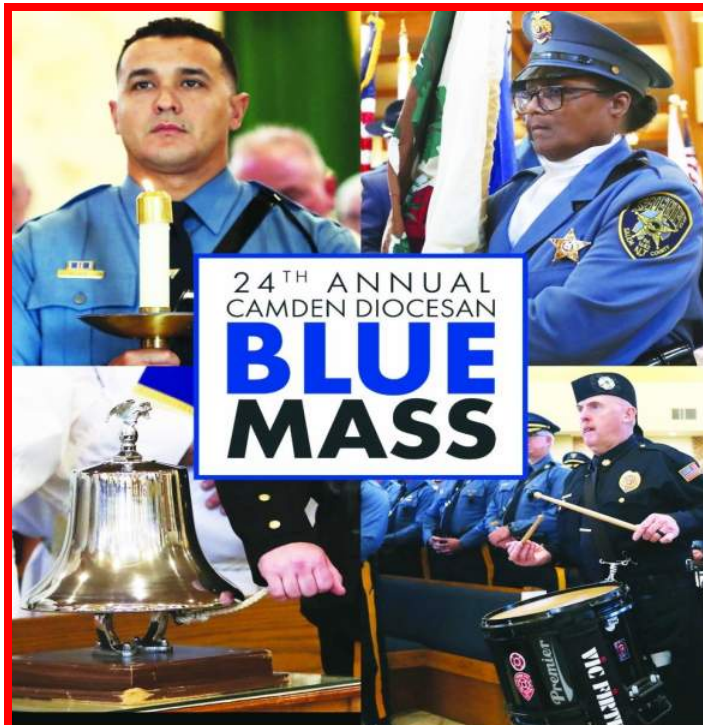

Bishop Arthur J. Serratelli, S.T.D., S.S.L., D.D., Bishop Emeritus of the Diocese of Paterson, New Jersey, is a graduate of Immaculate Conception Seminary School of Theology (ICSST) and was ordained a priest in 1968. He continued his studies at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome, earning a doctorate in Sacred Theology in 1977. He returned to ICSST that year and taught Sacred Scripture and Biblical languages until 2002. In 1998, Pope St. John Paul II named Bishop Serratelli a prelate of honor and Auxiliary Bishop of Newark, New Jersey. In 2004, he was appointed Bishop of Paterson, where he served until his retirement in 2020.

Migrants as Missionaries of Hope

Art and Stories with Brother Mickey McGrath

Immigration issues and the way they are handled are among the most pressing and unsettling concerns we face today, both in our own country and around the world.

From St. Joseph to St. Frances Cabrini to Pope Leo, we will look at the colorful and inspiring lives of saints who model for us the sacred principles taught through The GOSPEL, CATHOLIC SOCIAL TEACHING, and the UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS.
As St. Francis de Sales used to say:

“We must be united in our diversity.”

Sponsored by St. Thomas More Faith and Justice Team and the Camden Diocese Office of Life and Justice Ministries

Nurturing Hearts and Minds by the Light of Christ

Help Sponsor A Student

Wildwood Catholic Academy in North Wildwood, NJ is a prek-12 school home to a vibrant and dedicated community of students who are eager to learn, grow, and make a positive impact in the world.

At WCA we are committed to providing a nurturing environment that fosters academic excellence, personal growth, and mostly importantly, faith. However, we rely on the support of generous individuals like you to ensure every student has access to the resources and opportunities they need to thrive.

By sponsoring a student, you can help empower the next generation of leaders, thinkers, and compassionate individuals, all while strengthening our very own community. Your contribution makes a direct and lasting difference in the lives of our students, and we invite you to be a part of their journey.

Thank you for supporting a student at Wildwood Catholic Academy!

All About PREP

SCHOOL YEAR Family Catechesis:

Classes will be held one Sunday a month.
Parents are to join the children at class and do assignments at home as a family.
At WCA 9:00AM to 10:10AM

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION: Preparation to receive First Eucharist, and/or Confirmation requires a two-year commitment to PREP classes as well as classes especially designed to strengthen the understanding of the sacraments. Attendance at Retreats, Service Projects and Parent meetings is also required.

ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS FOR ALL STUDENTS: All students are required to do six (6) Faith-Filled Events, outside the normal classroom setting, throughout the year. This is to help the child understand that faith happens everyday all around you. Not just in class or Mass. Notre Dame de la Mer Parish will host several events that are considered Faith-Filled Events or the family may choose to do events outside our Parish. All these experiences are considered part of the curriculum and failure to comply risks not being promoted to the next level the following year. Registration forms are available at the Parish Office and on the Parish website. Students from other parishes must have their pastor's permission to participate in our program. Special form on website.

Call Donnamarie Sexton with any questions 609-522-2709-ext 218

School Year Family Catechesis

Family Catechesis will start at 8:45AM with a light breakfast of coffee and cakes or cereal. Class begins promptly at 9:00AM. After class, students and parents are to attend 10:30AM Mass at St. Ann Church. This is considered part of the class.

All students and at least one parent/guardian must be present at every class & event listed. If you cannot attend let me know ASAP and a written note must be handed in.

Class Calendar

September 21, October 19, November 16,
December 14, January 11, February 8, March 15,
April 19, May 10 (May Procession during 8:30
Mass at Assumption Church), May 17 (test),
June 14 (last class)
