Photographs of Loved Ones on Altar Steps

Please bring to the Mass of Remembrance photos of your deceased loved ones to place on the altar steps during the Mass. Please put the name of your loved one, your name, and your phone number on the back of each photo. If you want a photo included, but cannot attend the Mass, please bring it to the Parish Office by Wednesday, October 29. If you have any questions, please call Pat Monaghan at 610-246-1079.

Names of Loved Ones Written on Altar Cloth

On November 2, you will see a white altar cloth in the back of St. Ann Church on which you may write the names of deceased loved ones with markers provided. This altar cloth will be used at Assumption Church during November in memory of all the faithful departed of the Parish, especially those whose names are written on the altar cloth.

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-18 — The Lord is a God of justice.

♦ In the ancient Near East, it was the king's duty to care for the most helpless members of society. In Israel, God was the Most High King, and so those who were orphaned, widowed, and oppressed were the special concern of God. The basic principle of Israelite law was to be like God.

READING II: 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18 — I have fought the good fight.

♦ This letter to Timothy includes a description of the anticipated response from an almighty, merciful, loving and just God to Paul's faithful service. It emphasizes that death endured with Jesus will result in life with Him.

GOSPEL: Luke 18:9-15 — Those who exalt themselves shall be humbled.

♦ In the parable of the Pharisee and the tax collector, Jesus contrasts the attitudes of two persons praying. The humble prayer of the tax collector was preferred by God. Using the parable, Jesus combats the self-righteousness that threatens spiritual growth and a right relationship with God.

The Catholic Roots of Halloween, the Vigil of All Saints' Day By Christopher Wells, Vatican News

In the modern world, and especially in English speaking countries, Halloween has become one of the most important holidays of the year, with millions of children and adults dressing up as their favorite heroes, superstars, ghouls and goblins. While some people have connected Halloween to earlier pagan celebrations of the new year, Halloween actually has significant Catholic roots. The name itself comes from All Hallow's Eve, that is, the Vigil of All Saints' Day [November 1], when Catholics remember those who have gone before us to enter our heavenly home. Immediately afterwards, on November 2, the Church commemorates all the faithful departed in Purgatory, and prays in suffrage for them.

The memory of those who have gone before us naturally leads to thoughts of mortality, and the liturgical focus on the end times during this period of the Church year adds to the atmosphere of gloom... Vatican News spoke with Dr. Marcel Brown of the Alcuin Institute for Catholic Culture in Tulsa, about the Catholic roots of Halloween. "The feast of Halloween is one of those feasts on the Catholic calendar that is celebrated on the eve of a great solemnity," he said. Dr. Brown explained that the word "Halloween" refers to the Feast of All Saints. The word itself is taken from an older English term, "hallows," meaning "holy" and "e'en," a truncation of the word "evening" in reference to the Vigil of the feast. "So really, Halloween is the feast of the celebration of the feast of All Hallows," he said. "So it's a day when Catholics celebrate the triumph of the Church in heaven and the lives of the saints on earth."

The modern focus on the eerie or mysterious also has a Catholic aspect. "When we think of Halloween, I think we often think of ghosts and goblins, and ghoulish faces," Dr. Brown said. "But even these, in the Catholic tradition, are supposed to be reminders of death and of the last things..."

In his Memorandum on the Celebration of Halloween, Bishop Konderla [of Tulsa, Oklahoma] invites the faithful to "urge one another this Halloween to express, in every detail of our observance, the beauty and depth of the Feast of All Saints. Let us make this year's celebration an act of true devotion to God whose saints give us hope that we too may one day enter into the Kingdom prepared for God's holy ones from the beginning of time."

ST. ANN CHURCH REFURBISHMENT PROJECT—PHASE II

CAN YOU HELP?

Generous donors are needed to quickly raise $250,000 to help cover the cost of the removal and replacement of the carpeting in the sanctuary/altar area and main body of St. Ann Church. The existing carpeting was installed in 1987 and the seaside climate and ocean air has taken its toll. The goal is to complete the work by the beginning of Lent.

This project has been authorized by the Diocese as Phase II of work urgently needed at St. Ann Church. Phase I has been completed, including repair and improvements to the handicap entrance and installation of new flooring in the vestibule, sacristy, and old chapel.

If you can help out with a generous donation, Fr. Mazz asks that you call the Parish Office to arrange to speak with him personally. Please feel free to call me, as well, if you have questions. Please also be sure to clearly indicate "Phase II" on your check or electronic payment and bring or send your check directly to the Parish Office.

Gratefully,

Kevin Yecco, Parish Business Administrator

Saint of the Week

St. Paul of the Cross

1694-1775

St. Paul of the Cross was born Paolo Francesco Danei on January 3, 1694 in Ovada, Italy. As a young man, he left the military to live a secluded life of prayer for over five years. At the age of 26, he had a vision instructing him to found a Congregation of men devoted to Christ's Passion. Seven years later, in 1727, he was ordained a priest by the Pope in Rome. He became a powerful preacher and traveled extensively throughout Italy on preaching missions. Men joined his new Congregation in great numbers.

He and his brethren lived strict austerity and their ministry focused on preaching Christ's Passion to the poor. The Congregation's members were known as the Discalced Clerks of the Most Holy Cross and Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ, or Passionists. They took a special vow to preach Christ's passion so that it never faded from the faithful's memory. The Passionists' black habits bore a distinctive badge—a heart emblazoned with the words JESU XPI PASSIO mounted by a white cross with instruments of Christ's crucifixion displayed below.

St. Paul of the Cross was so united to the Passion that it was said that his heart pulsed more quickly on Fridays. His heart melted with love for Christ his entire life. He spent hours in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, never failed to subjugate his body with mortifications and austerities, and was insistent about living radical poverty. He seemed to experience a type of spiritual "runner's high," something common to many saints known for their ardor. As he fasted and prayed and lived poverty, it became easier and more joyful for him to fast and pray and live poverty. His virtues gained steam as he moved through life and as he was drawn deeper into the Person of Christ. He gained a reputation as a miracle worker and healer in his final years. He died in 1867.

The Passionists spread beyond Italy in the mid-1800s, including to England, which Paul always yearned to bring back to the Church. It was a Passionist priest, Blessed Dominic Barberi, who received the great Englishman Saint John Henry Newman into the Catholic Church. The feast day of St. Paul of the Cross is celebrated on October 20.

October ~ Respect Life Month

As Catholics, we are called to welcome, care for, and protect God's gift of human life, with special concern for those who are most vulnerable.

Most Rev. Daniel E. Thomas, Bishop of Toledo
Chairman, USCCB Committee on Pro-Life Activities

Heavenly Father...help us to recognize the gift of human life as a sign of hope in our world. Reveal to us the places where your precious gift of life is most in need of protection and strengthen us to defend life in all stages and circumstances, from the child in the womb to the elderly and dying. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

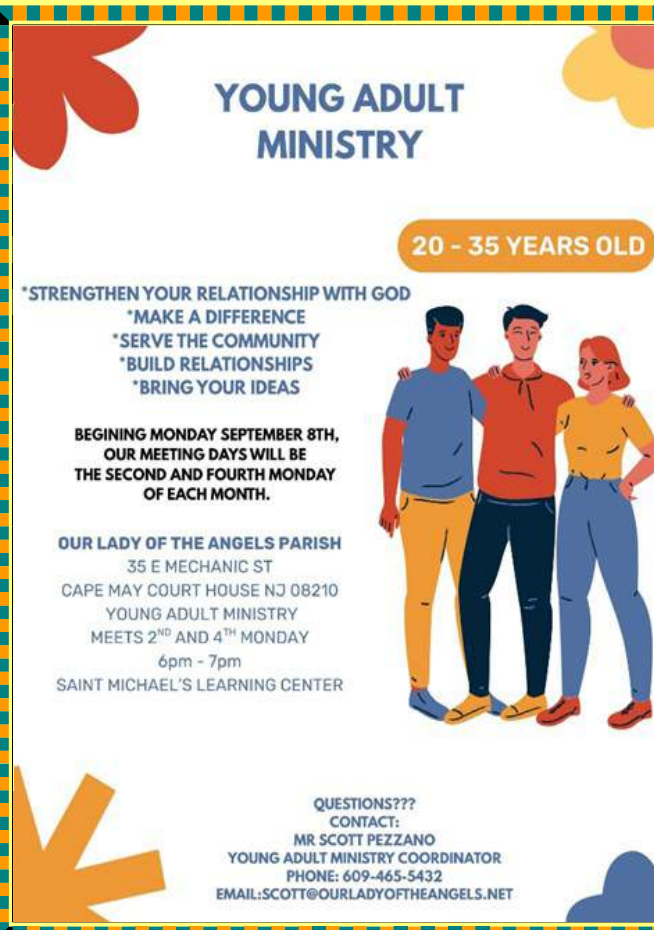

From A Prayer for Hope, USCCB

CONSIDERING CREMATION

If you are considering cremation rather than traditional full-body burial, it is important to thoughtfully choose a final resting place for cremated remains. The Catholic Church earnestly recommends the pious custom of burying the full bodies of the deceased. But the Church does not forbid cremation -- unless it has been chosen for reasons contrary to Christian teaching. Cremated remains are the body of the deceased in a changed form and, as such, should be treated with the same respect and dignity as the full body. The Church teaches that cremated remains must be reverently buried or entombed in a sacred place reserved for burial of the dead. Catholic Cemeteries offer options consistent with Church teaching, including in-ground burial, stone or glass niches, and family cremation plots, crypts, niches or estates. Visit SouthJerseyCatholicCemeteries.org or call 855-697-7375.

~ COME AND SEE ~

Book One: “Beholding His Glory” Salvation History 1.

This book will illustrate how Old Testament Scripture leads us directly to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. God had a plan for His Son, and He has a plan for your life, too. Page after page, God's awe-inspiring majesty is a treasure to behold.

Book Two: “Beholding Your King” Salvation History 2.

If our self-centered culture sometimes leaves you feeling empty and dissatisfied, a fuller view of God and His glory is your spiritual antidote. As the sequel to Beholding His Glory, the journey through salvation history continues with a study of King David, selected Psalms, the temple, and several Old Testament Prophets.

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

From the Desk of Rev. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As the new school year begins at Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school, let us pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, benefactors, and alumni.

Let each of us also take the opportunity this new academic year presents, to prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions now to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program on page 13 of this bulletin.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,

Fr. Mazz
