From the Desk of Patricia Monaghan, Funeral Coordinator

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Allhallowtide is the three-day period from All Hallows Eve to All Souls Day. This period is a time to remember our dead in our prayers and at Mass.

All Hallows' Eve, or Halloween, is celebrated on October 31st. The name is a contraction of "All Hallows" Evening, which refers to the night before the Christian holy day of All Saints Day, celebrated on November 1st.

November 2nd is All Souls Day, a day of prayer and remembrance for all the faithful departed.

Here, in our parish of Notre Dame de la Mer, we celebrate All Souls Day at St. Ann Church by placing pictures of our loved ones, who have died, on the Altar steps during 10:30AM Mass.

There will also be an Altar cloth in the back of St. Ann Church on All Souls Day. Please sign your deceased family and friends' names on the cloth. It will be put on the altar at Assumption Church for the month of November.

Remember, too, that if you are grieving and need a safe place for some comfort and conversation, our bereavement ministry, Good Grief, is there for you. The holidays are fast approaching and this can be a very difficult time following the loss of a loved one. Here are the dates for the next meetings: 11/11, 11/25, 12/9 and 12/23. All meetings are at 1PM in St. Ann Church music room. Enter through the sacristy door.

In peace,

Pat Monaghan

Photographs of Loved Ones on Altar Steps

Please bring to the Mass of Remembrance photos of your deceased loved ones to place on the altar steps during the Mass. Please put the name of your loved one, your name, and your phone number on the back of each photo. If you have any questions, please call Pat Monaghan at 610-246-1079.

Names of Loved Ones Written on Altar Cloth

On November 2, you will see a white altar cloth in the back of St. Ann Church on which you may write the names of deceased loved ones with markers provided. This altar cloth will be used at Assumption Church during November in memory of all the faithful departed of the Parish, especially those whose names are written on the altar cloth.

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Wisdom 3:1-9 — As sacrificial offerings, he took them to himself.

◆ Those who embrace wisdom will live in grace and mercy with God forever. The deceased survive physical death. There is life after death.

READING II: Romans 5:5-11 — Justified by His blood, we will be saved through Christ from the wrath.

◆ The Shepherd is our true guide. With the Shepherd as guide there is no reason to be fearful. The Shepherd guides us in our journey through death to new life in Christ.

GOSPEL: John 6:37-40 — Those who believe in the Son will have eternal life and I shall raise them up on the last day.

◆ Jesus is the source of eternal life after death. Jesus enacts the will of the "one who sent me." We must receive the Life Jesus offers.

ST. ANN CHURCH REFURBISHMENT PROJECT—PHASE II

CAN YOU HELP?

Generous donors are needed to quickly raise $250,000 to help cover the cost of the removal and replacement of the carpeting in the sanctuary/altar area and main body of St. Ann Church. The existing carpeting was installed in 1987 and the seaside climate and ocean air has taken its toll. The goal is to complete the work by the beginning of Lent.

This project has been authorized by the Diocese as Phase II of work urgently needed at St. Ann Church. Phase I has been completed, including repair and improvements to the handicap entrance and installation of new flooring in the vestibule, sacristy, and old chapel.

If you can help out with a generous donation, Fr. Mazz asks that you call the Parish Office to arrange to speak with him personally. Please feel free to call me, as well, if you have questions. Please also be sure to clearly indicate "Phase II" on your check or electronic payment and bring or send your check directly to the Parish Office.

Gratefully,
Kevin Yecco, Parish Business Administrator

Dear brothers and sisters...

Our lives are marked by countless events, full of different nuances and experiences. At times we feel joyful, other times sad, other times fulfilled or stressed, gratified or demotivated. We live busy lives, we concentrate on achieving results, and we even attain lofty, prestigious goals. Conversely, we remain suspended, precarious, awaiting success and recognition that are delayed or do not arrive at all. In short, we find ourselves experiencing a paradoxical situation: we would like to be happy, and yet it is very difficult to be happy in a continuous way, without any shadows. We come to terms with our limitations and, at the same time, with the irrepressible urge to try to overcome them. We feel deep down that we are always missing something.

In truth, we were not created for lack, but for fullness, to rejoice in life, and life in abundance, according to Jesus' expression in the Gospel of John (cf. 10:10).

This deep desire in our hearts can find its ultimate answer not in roles, not in power, not in having, but in the certainty that there is someone who guarantees this constitutive impulse of our humanity; in the awareness that this expectation will not be disappointed or thwarted. This certainty coincides with hope. This does not mean thinking in an optimistic way: often optimism lets us down, causing our expectations to implode, whereas hope promises and fulfils.

Sisters and brothers, the Risen Jesus is the guarantee of this deliverance! He is the wellspring that satisfies our thirst, the infinite thirst for fullness that the Holy Spirit imbues into our hearts. Indeed, the Resurrection of Christ is not a simple event of human history, but the event that transformed it from within....

Jesus, with his Resurrection, has guaranteed for us a permanent source of life: He is the living one (cf. Rev 1:18), the lover of life, the victor over all death. Therefore, He is able to offer us refreshment in our earthly journey and assure us of perfect peace in eternity. Only Jesus, who died and rose again, responds to the deepest questions of our heart: is there really a destination for us? Does our existence have any meaning? And the suffering of so many innocents, how can it be redeemed?

The Risen Jesus does not bestow upon us an answer "from above," but becomes our companion on this often arduous, painful and mysterious journey. Only He can fill our empty flask when our thirst becomes unbearable.

And He is also the destination of our journey. Without his love, the voyage of life would become wandering without a goal, a tragic mistake with a missed destination. We are fragile creatures. Mistakes are part of our humanity; it is the wound of sin that makes us fall, give up, despair. To rise again instead means to get up and stand on our feet. The Risen One guarantees our arrival, leading us home, where we are awaited, loved, saved. To journey with Him means to experience being sustained despite everything, to have our thirst quenched and to be refreshed in the hardships and struggles that, like heavy stones, threaten to block or divert our history.

Dear friends, from Christ's Resurrection springs the hope that gives us a foretaste, despite the fatigue of living, of a deep and joyful calm: that peace that only He can give us in the end, without end.

Saint of the Week

St. Martin de Porres 1575-1639

St. Martin de Porres was born in colonial Lima, Peru. His father was a well-connected Spanish-born colonist. Even though his father was well known and acknowledged him as his son, Martin's baptism registration reads "Son of an unknown father" because his mother was a black Panamanian who had been a slave. On the ladder of social acceptability in the Spanish colony during his lifetime, Martin was just above the lowest rung assigned to Africans who were enslaved in Peru.

Martin's father provided for his son to receive a good education and be enrolled as a barber-surgeon apprentice. Martin learned how to set fractures, dress wounds, and treat infections. And from his mother, he learned herbal remedies. Martin put his education to constant use. He treated the sick and injured regularly and, over time, earned a reputation as an outstanding healer. He aided in founding a hospital and orphanage in Lima, distributed food to the poor, and cared for recently-arrived African slaves. His extraordinary cheerful charity was his shining virtue. Martin de Porres became famous for doing many and myriad good deeds — and doing them all well and with a smile.

Underlying his life of service, Martin was a spiritual warrior. He became a Dominican lay brother but never a priest. He lived in community and proudly wore the Dominican habit. He had a self-deprecating sense of humor, displaying a joyful humility. He abstained from meat, spent long hours in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, and was witnessed displaying supernatural gifts: he levitated; he bilocated; his room filled with light; he possessed knowledge he could in no way have known without Divine grace. His wide array of natural and supernatural gifts made him famous in Lima. When his life came to an end at the age of sixty, his body was publicly laid out for the many who came to pray and pay final respects. Pieces of his habit were discreetly clipped off as relics.

Martin de Porres was canonized in 1962. His feast day is November 3.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

A Catholic Women's Bible Study

This year we are doing two books. The cost of the books together is $50.00. Each book is 9 weeks and we will have other presentations through this season. We will finish by the first week in May. We meet on Wednesdays. You will be given a calendar for the year!

Book One: "Beholding His Glory" Salvation History 1.

This book will illustrate how Old Testament Scripture leads us directly to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. God had a plan for His Son, and He has a plan for your life, too. Page after page, God's awe-inspiring majesty is a treasure to behold.

Book Two: "Beholding Your King" Salvation History 2.

If our self-centered culture sometimes leaves you feeling empty and dissatisfied, a fuller view of God and His glory is your spiritual antidote. As the sequel to Beholding His Glory, the journey through salvation history continues with a study of King David, selected Psalms, the temple, and several Old Testament Prophets.

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

From the Desk of Rev. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

As the new school year begins at Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school, let us pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, benefactors, and alumni.

Let each of us also take the opportunity this new academic year presents, to prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions now to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program on page 13 of this bulletin.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,

Fr. Mazz
