"I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Philippians 1:3-5

This quote from St. Paul was inscribed on the holy card from my priestly ordination forty years ago. I was ordained on November 9, 1985 and offered my first Mass of Thanksgiving the very next day. I was overflowing with gratitude to God for bestowing the priesthood upon me and allowing me to receive the Sacrament of Holy Orders from the hands of our Auxiliary Bishop James Schad after being called to orders by Bishop George Guilfoyle. Obviously, I was quite grateful to my parents, other family members, priests who inspired me, and the countless others who supported me in my years of formation. And that holy card was a special thank-you gift to every parishioner in the Parish of St. John Bosco in Millville where I served as a seminarian and transitional deacon for the eighteen months prior to my ordination.

As a priest for these past forty years, I have been incredibly amazed at the kindness and devotion of all the parishioners whom I have been blessed to serve. I feel this way towards all the wonderful parishioners and friends of Notre Dame de la Mer Parish and the Wildwood Catholic Academy family. As I celebrate with you the 40th anniversary of my ordination, I humbly and confidently ask God to complete all the good work begun through our partnership in the gospel. I thank God for all of you and remember you with joy in my prayers.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

PHASE II—ST. ANN CHURCH REFURBISHMENT PROJECT

Generous donors are needed to quickly raise $250,000 to help cover the cost of the removal and replacement of the carpeting in the sanctuary/altar area and main body of St. Ann Church. The existing carpeting was installed in 1987 and the seaside climate and ocean air has taken its toll. The goal is to complete the work by the beginning of Lent.

This project has been authorized by the Diocese as Phase II of work urgently needed at St. Ann Church. Phase I has been completed, including repair and improvements to the handicap entrance and installation of new flooring in the vestibule, sacristy, and old chapel.

If you can help out with a generous donation, Fr. Mazz asks that you call the Parish Office to arrange to speak with him personally. Please feel free to call me, as well, if you have questions. Please also be sure to clearly indicate "Phase II" on your check or electronic payment and bring or send your check directly to the Parish Office.

Gratefully,

Kevin Yecco, Parish Business Administrator

Dear brothers and sisters...

Our lives are marked by countless events, full of different nuances and experiences. At times we feel joyful, other times sad, other times fulfilled or stressed, gratified or demotivated. We live busy lives, we concentrate on achieving results, and we even attain lofty, prestigious goals. Conversely, we remain suspended, precarious, awaiting success and recognition that are delayed or do not arrive at all. In short, we find ourselves experiencing a paradoxical situation: we would like to be happy, and yet it is very difficult to be happy in a continuous way, without any shadows. We come to terms with our limitations and, at the same time, with the irrepressible urge to try to overcome them. We feel deep down that we are always missing something.

In truth, we were not created for lack, but for fullness, to rejoice in life, and life in abundance, according to Jesus' expression in the Gospel of John (cf. 10:10).

This deep desire in our hearts can find its ultimate answer not in roles, not in power, not in having, but in the certainty that there is someone who guarantees this constitutive impulse of our humanity; in the awareness that this expectation will not be disappointed or thwarted. This certainty coincides with hope. This does not mean thinking in an optimistic way: often optimism lets us down, causing our expectations to implode, whereas hope promises and fulfils.

Sisters and brothers, the Risen Jesus is the guarantee of this deliverance! He is the wellspring that satisfies our thirst, the infinite thirst for fullness that the Holy Spirit imbues into our hearts. Indeed, the Resurrection of Christ is not a simple event of human history, but the event that transformed it from within....

Jesus, with his Resurrection, has guaranteed for us a permanent source of life: He is the living one (cf. Rev 1:18), the lover of life, the victor over all death. Therefore, He is able to offer us refreshment in our earthly journey and assure us of perfect peace in eternity. Only Jesus, who died and rose again, responds to the deepest questions of our heart: is there really a destination for us? Does our existence have any meaning? And the suffering of so many innocents, how can it be redeemed?

The Risen Jesus does not bestow upon us an answer "from above," but becomes our companion on this often arduous, painful and mysterious journey. Only He can fill our empty flask when our thirst becomes unbearable.

And He is also the destination of our journey. Without his love, the voyage of life would become wandering without a goal, a tragic mistake with a missed destination. We are fragile creatures. Mistakes are part of our humanity; it is the wound of sin that makes us fall, give up, despair. To rise again instead means to get up and stand on our feet. The Risen One guarantees our arrival, leading us home, where we are awaited, loved, saved. To journey with Him means to experience being sustained despite everything, to have our thirst quenched and to be refreshed in the hardships and struggles that, like heavy stones, threaten to block or divert our history.

Dear friends, from Christ's Resurrection springs the hope that gives us a foretaste, despite the fatigue of living, of a deep and joyful calm: that peace that only He can give us in the end, without end.

THE LATERAN BASILICA IN ROME

"Mother and Head of All the Churches in the City and the World"

(TRANSLATION OF INSCRIPTION ON THE FACADE OF THE LATERAN BASILICA)

THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA IS A FEAST DAY FOR THE UNIVERSAL CATHOLIC CHURCH BECAUSE IT IS THE SEAT OF THE BISHOP OF ROME, THE POPE. THE LATERAN BASILICA, NOT ST. PETER'S BASILICA IN THE VATICAN, IS THE CATHEDRAL OF ROME.

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Ezekiel 47:1-2, 8-9, 12 — I saw water flowing from the temple.

◆ In the wake of the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem in 587 BC, the Prophet Ezekiel has a vision of an even greater Temple. The Temple pours forth grace for the whole world. Ezekiel's message gave hope to the people during a time of despair.

READING II: 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11, 16-17 — You are God's temple.

◆ Jesus is like a master builder and he lays the foundation. Because you are the temple of God, you are holy.

GOSPEL: John 2:13-22 — Jesus was speaking about the temple of his body.

◆ It was close to Passover and Jesus went to the temple. Jesus saw those who were selling animals for people to buy as offerings. Jesus made a whip and drove them out of the temple area.

Saint of the Week

St. Frances Xavier Cabrini
1850-1917

Frances Cabrini was born into a rural, well-to-do family in Northern Italy. Her uncle, a priest, had a deep influence on her, as did the Daughters of the Sacred Heart whose school she attended as a teen. After graduation, she petitioned for entrance into the Daughters and, later, the Conossian Sisters. But these hard-working Orders needed robust women and they reluctantly rejected her because of her fragile health—Frances had not quite outgrown the frailty resulting from her premature birth. So, instead, Frances obtained a position as the lay director of an orphanage. Her goodness and charisma attracted a small community of women with whom she shared a common religious life.

Frances added "Xavier" to her name in honor of the great missionary St. Francis Xavier. She founded and led a modest house of six women dedicated to serving in the Church's foreign missions and received Church approval as a new Order named the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. In 1887, Mother Cabrini, as Superior, met with Pope Leo XIII in Rome to inquire about her sisters evangelizing in China. The Pope listened to her but told her that her mission was "not to the East, but to the West." At that time, entire regions of Italy and their Catholic populations had emigrated to the United States and the Pope knew these struggling Italians needed the Church's care and attention. In 1888, Mother Cabrini sailed to New York with six sisters. Upon their arrival, no one met them or welcomed them. The Archbishop was cold, told her he wanted Italian priests, not sisters, and suggested she get back on the ship still docked in the harbor and return to Italy. She replied, "I have letters from the Pope" and stayed and persevered amidst the most extreme hardships.

Mother Cabrini would work almost exclusively with, and for, Italians the rest of her life. She begged, pleaded, cajoled, charmed, persuaded and tirelessly advocated on their behalf. Her deep spirituality and constant state of motion inspired Italian benefactors to help her. She founded hospitals, orphanages, schools, workshops and convents in New York, Denver, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Chicago. She trekked to Nicaragua, Argentina, and Brazil. She sailed back to Italy nine times. She became an American citizen but remained fully Italian in her identity.

Mother Cabrini's relentless energy, remarkable administrative skills, shrewdness, humility and charisma built an empire of charity. When she died in 1917, she left behind 67 institutions and a flourishing Order of dedicated nuns. On July 7, 1946, she became the first United States citizen to be canonized a saint. Her feast day is celebrated on November 13.

WALKING WITH PURPOSE

A Catholic Women's Bible Study

This year we are doing two books. The cost of the books together is $50.00. Each book is 9 weeks and we will have other presentations through this season. We will finish by the first week in May. We meet on Wednesdays. You will be given a calendar for the year!

Book One: "Beholding His Glory" Salvation History 1

This book will illustrate how Old Testament Scripture leads us directly to our Redeemer, Jesus Christ. God had a plan for His Son, and He has a plan for your life, too. Page after page, God's awe-inspiring majesty is a treasure to behold.

Book Two: "Beholding Your King" Salvation History 2

If our self-centered culture sometimes leaves you feeling empty and dissatisfied, a fuller view of God and His glory is your spiritual antidote. As the sequel to Beholding His Glory, the journey through salvation history continues with a study of King David, selected Psalms, the temple, and several Old Testament Prophets.

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement. For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 800-964-6588

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

From the Desk of Rev. Cadmus Mazzarella, Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Let us continue to pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, alumni and benefactors of Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school.

Let each of us also prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program below.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,

Fr. Mazz

Parish Religious Education Program

PREP

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

Children: 1st-8th graders have two choices:

⇒ School Year Family Catechesis: Which meets once a month to view lessons completed at home.

⇒ Summer Intensive: July 20—July 31, 2026
Monday-Friday 8:30AM-12:00PM

Teens: 9th-12th graders. Will be decided on an individual basis, depending on the level of instruction needed.

Adults seeking the faith will be entered into the OCIA program. OCIA usually meets once a week starting in September and going through the Easter Season.

School Year Family Catechesis

Family Catechesis will start at 8:45AM with a light breakfast of coffee and cakes or cereal. Class begins promptly at 9:00AM. After class, students and parents are to attend 10:30AM Mass at St. Ann Church. This is considered part of the class.

All students and at least one parent/guardian must be present at every class & event listed. If you cannot attend let me know ASAP and a written note must be handed in.

Class Calendar

September 21, October 19, November 16,
December 14, January 11, February 8, March 15,
April 19, May 10 (May Procession during 8:30AM
Mass at Assumption Church), May 17 (test),
June 14 (last class)

Confirmation Students

10/26/25 at 10:30AM Mass at St. Ann Church
Presentation of Confirmation students to the Parish for prayers

After Mass, there was a meeting in the Church for students and parents. If you were not there, it is your responsibility to get the materials and information given at this meeting.

First Holy Communion Students

11/16/25 at 10:30AM Mass at St. Ann Church

is the Presentation of the First Holy Communion students to the Parish for prayers. After Mass, there will be a meeting in the Church for students and parents. Please make every effort to attend. If you are not there, it is your responsibility to get the materials and info given at this meeting.
