From Pope Leo XIV's Message for the LIX World Day of Peace
1st January 2026

Peace be with you all:
Towards an "unarmed and disarming" peace

"Peace be with you!"

This ancient greeting, still in use today in many cultures, was infused with new life on the evening of Easter on the lips of the risen Jesus. "Peace be with you" (Jn 20: 19, 21) is his Word that does not merely desire peace, but truly brings about a lasting transformation in those who receive it, and consequently in all of reality. For this reason, the Apostles' successors give voice every day throughout the world to the most silent of revolutions: "Peace be with you!" From the very evening of my election as Bishop of Rome, I have wanted to join my own greeting to this universal proclamation. And I would like to reiterate that this is the peace of the risen Christ — a peace that is unarmed and disarming, humble and persevering. It comes from God who loves us all unconditionally.

The peace of the risen Christ

The Good Shepherd, who gives his life for the flock and has other sheep not of this fold (cf. Jn 10:11, 16), is Christ, our peace, who has conquered death and broken down the walls of division that separate humanity (cf. Eph 2:14). His presence, his gift and his victory continue to shine through the perseverance of many witnesses through whom God's work carries on in the world, becoming even more visible and radiant in the darkness of our times.

The contrast between darkness and light is not only a biblical image describing the labor pains of a new world being born; it is also an experience that unsettles us and affects us amid the trials we face in our historical circumstances. In order to overcome the darkness, it is necessary to see the light and believe in it. This is a call that Jesus' disciples are invited to live in a unique and privileged way; yet it also finds its way into every human heart. Peace exists; it wants to dwell within us. It has the gentle power to enlighten and expand our understanding; it resists and overcomes violence. Peace is a breath of the eternal: while to evil we cry out "Enough," to peace we whisper "Forever." Into this horizon the Risen One has led us. Sustained by this conviction, even amid what Pope Francis called "a third world war fought piecemeal," peacemakers continue to resist the spread of darkness, standing as sentinels in the night.

Sadly, it is possible to forget the light. When this happens, we lose our sense of realism and surrender to a partial and distorted view of the world, disfigured by darkness and fear. Many today call "realistic" those narratives devoid of hope, blind to the beauty of others and forgetful of God's grace, which is always at work in human hearts, even though wounded by sin. Saint Augustine urged Christians to forge an unbreakable bond with peace, so that by cherishing it deeply in their hearts, they would be able to radiate its luminous warmth around them. Addressing his community, he wrote: "If you wish to draw others to peace, first have it yourselves; be steadfast in peace yourselves. To inflame others, you must have the flame burning within."

Dear brothers and sister, whether we have the gift of faith or feel we lack it, let us open ourselves to peace! Let us welcome it and recognize it, rather than believing it to be impossible and beyond our reach. Peace is more than just a goal; it is a presence and a journey. Even when it is endangered within us and around us, like a small flame threatened by a storm, we must protect it, never forgetting the names and stories of those who have borne witness to it. Peace is a principle that guides and defines our choices. Even in places where only rubble remains, and despair seems inevitable, we still find people who have not forgotten peace. Just as on the evening of Easter Jesus entered the place where his disciples were gathered in fear and discouragement, so too the peace of the risen Christ continues to pass through doors and barriers in the voices and faces of his witnesses. This gift enables us to remember goodness, to recognize it as victorious, to choose it again, and to do so together.

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Isaiah 60:1-6 — Your light has come!

♦ The reading from Isaiah refers to a time of great hope in ancient Israel. Jerusalem, which had been destroyed by the Babylonians, was about to be rebuilt. In today's passage, Isaiah associates light with the glory of God's presence.

READING II: Ephesians 3:23a, 5-6 — We all share the same promise.

♦ In the second reading, we glimpse a beginning of God's Kingdom in time. Paul stresses that God's promise to Israel is fulfilled in Jesus. All people, both Gentiles and Jews share in salvation in Christ.

GOSPEL: Matthew 2:1-12 — They opened their coffers and presented him with gifts.

♦ The Gospel reading today links Jesus to God's promise to Israel. The royal title given by the Magi to Jesus points to his role as Messiah. In ancient times, the birth of a great person was often associated with astrological events.

Saint of the Week

St. John Neumann

1811 - 1860

St. John Neumann was born in central Europe in what is today the Czech Republic. He was well-educated, a good student. He had a gift for languages, learning to speak seven languages besides his native Czech. Yet he found it hard to find a bishop to ordain him after he had completed his theological studies. He wrote to numerous bishops throughout Europe and to one on the other side of an ocean he had never seen. The other-side-of-the-ocean bishop was Bishop John Dubois of New York who wrote back, challenging St. John Neumann: 'If you can get here, I'll ordain you.' Saint John Neumann got there and was ordained in 1836 by Bishop Dubois, himself an immigrant to the United States.

As a new priest, St. John Neumann was assigned to remote rural areas in upstate New York and soon gained a reputation as outstanding in his zeal for souls. But the isolation was hard for him to bear; he felt the need for priestly community. So he joined the Redemptorist Order and began many years of priestly service in Maryland. His intelligence, ability to preach and hear confessions in multiple languages, extraordinary work ethic, life of poverty, good nature, and general holiness were traits that were widely recognized and admired.

St. John Neumann was named the fourth bishop of Philadelphia in 1852. At that time, the city's growth was exploding, especially its Catholic population of immigrants. He threw himself into his work with no concern for his own health or well-being. He was a tornado of apostolic activity. He was everywhere. He did everything. The Church benefitted and grew at an extraordinary pace. He worked hard incessantly. He studied, he wrote, he prayed, he preached, he traveled, he built, he founded, he guided, he taught. And then one day, while hurrying construction plans for his Cathedral in Philadelphia to an office, he collapsed and died in the street. He had worked himself to death. He was only 48 years old.

St. John Neumann's reputation for holiness spread after his death. The faithful prayerfully asked. The faithful received. The miracles were documented. Philadelphia had its saint. He was canonized by Pope Saint Paul VI in 1977. He was the first male American citizen to be recognized as a saint by the Church.

Saint John Neumann is buried in a glass casket in the lower sanctuary of the Church of St. Peter the Apostle in Philadelphia, under the care of the Redemptorists. His memorial is celebrated on January 5.

Catechesis on the Christian view of history pervades many of our anthems, hymns, and carols, from the code contained in "The Twelve Days of Christmas" to "Ye Sons and Daughters Let Us Sing." A personal favorite has stuck with me ever since I heard Sidney Poitier teach it to a group of Eastern European nuns escaped from behind the Iron Curtain in the film "The Lilies of the Field." Although some are tempted to mock this composition, especially as it was adapted for use in concluding the Eucharistic Prayer back in the 1960's and '70's, I am in awe of how wonderfully this catechetical song guides us from seeing "the little baby/lying in the manger/on Christmas morning" to the astounding fact that "he rose on Easter." Best of all, it allows us to affirm every aspect of God's ultimate entry into our history in the life and death, deeds, and destiny of Jesus of Nazareth with our simple litanic "Amen."

MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH ~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues, as Catholic men are confronted with and need to address. Our mission is to defend the Roman Catholic faith, sacraments, saints, and traditions. We pray the rosary as a group. We deepen our knowledge of Catholicism, from scripture, guest speakers, and Catholic teachings. We are helping hands to the Parish.

Our Motto from Proverbs 27:17 is "iron sharpens iron and man sharpens the countenance of his friend."

PARISH HOMEBOUND MINISTRY

I was sick, and you took care of me Matt. 25:26

IF YOU OR A LOVED ONE IS HOMEBOUND AND WOULD LIKE COMMUNION BROUGHT TO YOU,
CALL THE PARISH OFFICE

With the increase of homebound parishioners and the limited number of eucharistic ministers/priests,
we need dedicated extraordinary ministers to join this ministry

If the Lord is calling you to this glorious ministry, call Karen 609-602-6106

REPORT SEXUAL ABUSE

An independent, toll-free number has been established by the Diocese of Camden to help callers report cases of sexual abuse by priests, deacons, religious, employees and/or volunteers. Calls are handled by a licensed clinical social worker. In accord with state law, cases of child sexual abuse are reported to the N.J. Division of Child Protection and Permanency and law enforcement. For information or to inquire about counseling and support services, call 800-964-6588

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Let us continue to pray for all the students and their families, teachers, staff, Board, PTA, volunteers, alumni and benefactors of Wildwood Catholic Academy, our wonderful Parish school.

Let each of us also prayerfully consider helping a student in need. Our generous contributions to the Academy's Help Sponsor a Student program would directly help students in need to continue to benefit not only from the excellent academic curriculum and extracurricular activities but, most especially, the solid Catholic and moral foundation the Academy offers to all its students. You will find information on donating to the Help Sponsor a Student program below.

Please know that I am grateful to all those who support our school with their prayers, time, talent and financial gifts. May God bless you always!

In Christ,

Fr. Mazz

Parish Religious Education Program

PREP

Our Parish has a few choices for anyone wishing to receive their sacraments and become Catholic:

Children: 1st-8th graders have two choices:

⇒ School Year Family Catechesis: Which meets once a month to view lessons completed at home.

⇒ Summer Intensive: July 20—July 31, 2026
Monday-Friday 8:30AM-12:00PM

Teens: 9th-12th graders. Will be decided on an individual basis, depending on the level of instruction needed.

Adults seeking the faith will be entered into the OCIA program. OCIA usually meets once a week starting in September and going through the Easter Season.

School Year Family Catechesis

Family Catechesis will start at 8:45AM with a light breakfast of coffee and cakes or cereal. Class begins promptly at 9:00AM. After class, students and parents are to attend 10:30AM Mass at St. Ann Church. This is considered part of the class.

All students and at least one parent/guardian must be present at every class & event listed. If you cannot attend let me know ASAP and a written note must be handed in.

CLASS CALENDAR

September 21, October 19, November 16,
December 14, January 11, February 8, March 15,
April 19, May 10 (May Procession during
8:30AM Mass at Assumption Church),
May 17 (test), June 14 (last class)

Confirmation Students
