Dear Parishioners of Notre Dame de la Mer,

On behalf of the students, families, faculty, and staff of Wildwood Catholic Academy, I offer my heartfelt gratitude to you—our parish family—for your unwavering support, prayers, and generosity. Catholic schools do not thrive in isolation; they flourish because of a faithful community that believes deeply in the mission of Catholic education. Because of you, our school continues to be mighty.

Our developed theme, “Small but Mighty” coined by Sister Mary Ellen Ford over 40 years ago describing Wildwood Catholic, has echoed throughout our halls this year, and it has proven to be more than a motto—it is our lived reality. Though we may be small in size, we are mighty in faith, achievement, spirit, and service. Every day, our students demonstrate academic excellence, athletic determination, and a deep commitment to living out Gospel values.

This year has been filled with remarkable milestones. For the first time, Wildwood Catholic Academy—along with every Catholic school in the Diocese—earned accreditation through Middle States as a united diocesan community. This historic accomplishment reflects a shared commitment to excellence and collaboration in Catholic education. We also celebrated a meaningful first by awarding Bishop Williams an honorary Wildwood Catholic Degree, recognizing his leadership, faith, and dedication to Catholic schools.

Our Small but Mighty spirit was on full display through many extraordinary fundraising efforts, one of which culminated in an incredible Winter Gala just this past weekend. The success of this event and events like this are a testament to the generosity and belief of our parish and school community, and it will have a lasting impact on our students for years to come.

In addition to these firsts, we joyfully celebrated milestones that never lose their excitement: honoring our second class of Hall of Fame inductees, being voted Best Private School in South Jersey, and welcoming over 300 students through our doors—each one known, valued, and loved.

At the heart of all of this are our teachers and staff, whose vocation extends far beyond the classroom. They shape hearts and minds in ways that last a lifetime, drawing our alumni back to remain connected, grateful, and proud of their Wildwood Catholic roots.

As we once again celebrate everything special and sacred about Catholic schools, please know that your support makes all of this possible. Thank you for believing in our students, for investing in their futures, and for walking with us in faith.

With deep gratitude and prayers,
Joe Cray
Principal

From the Pastor's Desk ~ St. Ann Church Refurbishment

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am so pleased to be able to report to you that our St. Ann Church refurbishment project is expected to start during the week of January 19th. I feel that God is looking kindly on our plans to care for the consecrated St. Ann Church building. I am deeply thankful for the overwhelming faith, generosity, love and sacrifice of so many parishioners and friends of this Parish who have helped to make this possible with their donations, pledges and prayers. But we still are in need of additional funds for updating alarm systems and needed repairs. I have also been advised that, for safety reasons, St. Ann Church must be closed during the work for at least four weeks. So, during the closure, the Saturday 4:30PM Masses, Sunday 10:30AM Masses, and Saturday 3:30-4:15PM Confessions will be at Assumption Church. As we accommodate this change and pray for the project to be completed smoothly and efficiently, let us thank God for blessing this Parish and ask the Holy Spirit to "refurbish," as needed, the worship and service we humbly and lovingly offer in both of our beautiful Church buildings.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Isaiah 8:23-9:3 — The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light.

♦ In this reading, Isaiah preaches to people who are discouraged by war and oppression. Among the first regions taken in the war were three sections of the northern Kingdom. The prophet promises that God will again restore the land.

READING II: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17 — Let there be no factions among you.

♦ In this reading, Paul gives his reaction to the divisions among the Corinthians. The factions in the Corinthian church were dividing Christ's Body. Paul insists that through Baptism all become members of one body, the Body of Christ.

GOSPEL: Matthew 4:12-23 — Come with me.

♦ Because a majority of Matthew's audience seems to have been Jewish Christians, the passage from Isaiah is used in this Gospel to explain the fact that Jesus' ministry began in Galilee, not Jerusalem. The substance of Jesus' preaching is summarized as: "Repent, for the Kingdom of heaven is at hand." Jesus' preaching calls for a radical change, the old way of living must be abandoned and a new way embraced.

Saint of the Week

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

1774-1821

Patron Saint of Catholic Schools

Elizabeth Ann Bayley Seton was born in New York City and brought up as an Episcopalian. She was married and had five children. In 1803, she left the United States with her husband, to live in Italy. She was a confident, well-educated, high-born, wealthy Protestant. She returned to the United States the following year, a widow, destitute, grieving, but burning with love for the Holy Eucharist, tenderly devoted to Mary, and with the heart of a Roman Catholic. She was received into the Catholic Church the next year. All her upper class friends and family ostracized and abandoned her out of anti-Catholic prejudice.

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was an unexpected convert to Catholicism. She was, well into adulthood, a serious U.S. Episcopalian. She loved the Lord. She loved the Bible. She loved to serve the poor and the sick. She probably never suspected her Episcopalian faith was lacking until she personally witnessed the fullness and breadth of Catholicism while in Italy. After her husband died of tuberculosis there, Elizabeth and her daughter were taken in by an Italian Catholic family who were good friends of hers. This family lived their Catholic faith with fervor and relish. Elizabeth was not only consoled and cared for by them in her grief, but also by their faith. The longer she stayed in Italy, the more its Catholic spirituality enveloped and spoke to her soul. She wept at Italians' natural devotion to Mary. She wondered at the beauty of a Corpus Christi procession through the streets of the town where she was living. She readily understood the holy Father's link to Peter and the early Apostles. It all made sense to her and filled gaps she began to see in the religion of her upbringing.

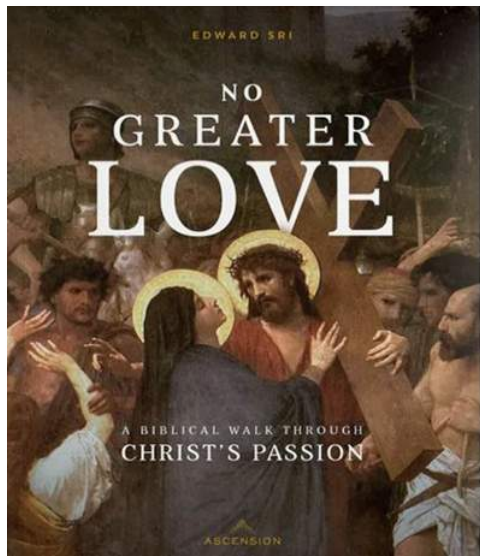

After returning to the United States and formally becoming a Catholic, Elizabeth spent the rest of her short life dedicated to Catholic education. She formed the first American congregation of religious sisters, named the Sisters of Charity of St. Joseph, who were devoted to teaching girls, especially poor girls who could not afford an education. She established the first Catholic girls' school in the United States, the first American Parish school, and helped found the first American Catholic orphanage and many other Catholic Church-based religious, educational and cultural institutions and services for the poor. She is rightly considered in the United States as the foundress of Catholic parochial education.

With fervent faith in God, she faced much personal sorrow and hardship in her life. Besides the devastating death of her husband, she also lost her mother and sister when she was young, and later lost two of her five children. She suffered greatly from poverty, anti-Catholic prejudice and sickness. She died from tuberculosis at the age of 47.

Professionally, she struggled, as foundress, to build her Congregation of the Sisters of Charity. With her hard work, intelligence, social skills and drive, the Congregation thrived and still thrives, gathering every year on her feast day near her tomb inside an immense Basilica in northern Maryland to thank God for their foundress, for a life so well lived.

In 1975, St. Elizabeth Ann Seton was the first person born in what would become the United States to be canonized a saint by the Catholic Church. The Church celebrates her memorial on January 4.

NEW PARISH BIBLE STUDY COURSE!

We often hear about Jesus' Passion and death, but imagine experiencing them for the very first time. In NO GREATER LOVE: A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH CHRIST'S PASSION, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his agony in the garden to his crucifixion on Calvary.

Along the way, we will unpack the biblical background to these events, the prophecies, and most especially, the ways Jesus is inviting us to walk more closely with him today.

NO GREATER LOVE is a five-part Bible study program that will begin in March. The study will be given at two different times and you can come to either class.

After 8:30AM Mass at Assumption Church

Third Mondays of the Month

Camden Diocese Youth and Young Adults Office has requested Intercessory Prayer for our Youth.

With so many distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our Youth, let us pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH ~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues, as Catholic men are confronted with and need to address. Our mission is to defend the Roman Catholic faith, sacraments, saints, and traditions. We pray the rosary as a group. We deepen our knowledge of Catholicism, from scripture, guest speakers, and Catholic teachings. We are helping hands to the Parish.

Our Motto from Proverbs 27:17 is "iron sharpens iron and man sharpens the countenance of his friend."

"For I was hungry and you gave me food..."

Thank You from Lazarus House Emergency Food Pantry

On behalf of our 75 volunteers and the thousands of guests we serve annually (17,666 guests in 2025), thank you for the tremendous outpouring of donations including groceries, turkeys, hams, personal care items and financial support during the holiday season and the recent period of government cut-backs in the SNAP program, FEMA grants and other forms of personal and family assistance.

Thank you also to our tremendous business community and civic and fraternal organizations for their outstanding support with numerous pop-up food drives throughout the Wildwoods and generous financial support.

Thank you to all the schools for their overwhelming food collections, as well as all the church congregations and Beth Judah Temple, who supported Lazarus House thereby allowing us to keep our shelves full in order to fulfill our mission, to feed the hungry.

At Lazarus House, we believe in miracles and see miracles happening every day. These miracles would not be possible, without miracle workers like you!

With heartfelt appreciation,

Frank Stone
Director

HAPPY CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK!

As we kick off Catholic Schools Week on Sunday, January 25, you will see Wildwood Catholic Academy students serving as lectors, singers, and also greeters at the 10:30 Mass. Their presence is a joyful reminder of why we do what we do. At Wildwood Catholic Academy, we don't just teach subjects; we teach the whole person.

We know that choosing a Catholic education today requires a different path. It requires sacrifice—from parents who prioritize tuition, from teachers who view their work as a ministry, and from parishioners who support us. Today, we celebrate that sacrifice. It is what allows us to offer an environment where prayer is as natural as recess, and where students are known by name and loved by God. Thank you for welcoming us today and for helping us keep the light of faith burning bright in North Wildwood.
