From Deacon Rich Roenbeck, Pastoral Associate

Greetings, my fellow fools for Christ!

St. Paul's letter to the Corinthians powerfully expounds on the simple truth of the Beatitudes:

Not many of you were wise by human standards,
not many were powerful, not many were of noble birth.
Rather, God chose the foolish of the world to shame the wise, and God chose the weak of the world to shame the strong,
and God chose the lowly and despised of the world,
those who count for nothing,
to reduce to nothing those who are something,
so that no human being might boast before God.

The Beatitudes are Jesus' RADICAL business plan for OUR SALVATION. If the Ten Commandments are the "Thou shalt NOT," then the Beatitudes are the "THOU SHALT!" To those who only evaluate and judge everything and everyone by the (wise human) standards and values of this world, the Beatitudes appear very foolish indeed. Blessed are the meek or those who mourn or those who are persecuted! WHAT?! That is NUTS. None of those are blessings ... more like curses! Blessed are the rich, the famous, the influential and the powerful. That's what the world teaches us to value – right? And then comes Judgment Day ... who looks foolish now? And infinitely more important, who looks wise in the eyes of God?

Here is a spiritual exercise for your consideration. Study the nine "Blessed are ..." and discern which one may be where we fall the most short of where God would want us to be. Is humility or meekness or purity of heart a stumbling block for us vis-à-vis our relationship with God? Once that is clear, work on that ONE. Pray over it, purposefully practice the virtue, bring it to a priest in the sacrament of reconciliation. Do whatever it takes to get right with the Lord on that score. Keep knocking on that door ... POUND ON IT ... until the Lord answers your prayers with His peace and grace. Jesus has a plan ... blessed are we who follow it – and trust in Him!

In His Peace,
Deacon Rich

From the Pastor's Desk ~ St. Ann Church Refurbishment

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

I am so pleased to be able to report to you that our St. Ann Church refurbishment project is expected to start during the week of January 19th. I feel that God is looking kindly on our plans to care for the consecrated St. Ann Church building. I am deeply thankful for the overwhelming faith, generosity, love and sacrifice of so many parishioners and friends of this Parish who have helped to make this possible with their donations, pledges and prayers. But we still are in need of additional funds for updating alarm systems and needed repairs. I have also been advised that, for safety reasons, St. Ann Church must be closed during the work for at least four weeks. So, during the closure, the Saturday 4:30PM Masses, Sunday 10:30AM Masses, and Saturday 3:30-4:15PM Confessions will be at Assumption Church. As we accommodate this change and pray for the project to be completed smoothly and efficiently, let us thank God for blessing this Parish and ask the Holy Spirit to "refurbish," as needed, the worship and service we humbly and lovingly offer in both of our beautiful Church buildings.

In Christ,
Fr. Mazz

Reflections on the Readings

READING I: Zephaniah 2:3, 3:12-13 — Seek justice. Seek humility.

♦ In this reading, Zephaniah announces that the humble of the earth will find shelter on the Day of the Lord. The prophet Zephaniah preached at a time of great turmoil. This reading asserts that the humble and lowly are the hope for the future.

READING II: 1 Corinthians 1:26-31 — God chose those whom the world considers absurd.

♦ In this reading, Paul tries to convince the Corinthians that their significance comes from God, and that their power is the power of the Cross. The Corinthians, who accepted the Gospel eagerly, then began to try to outdo each other in importance, even in their Christian faith. Paul challenges the Christian community to rely, not on human power, but on God alone.

GOSPEL: Matthew 5:1-12a — The Beatitudes ~ The Sermon on the Mount

♦ The Gospel begins with the Sermon on the Mount, a collection of Jesus' sayings describing the qualities of his followers. The way righteousness is described in this reading is through a traditional Hebrew form called "Beatitude." Beatitudes simply declare that someone is happy or blest. The list given in Matthew's Gospel is most surprising, however. The poor and suffering were not ordinarily described as happy or blest.

Saint of the Week

St. Blaise Early 4th Century

The memory of Saint Blaise, a man of obscure origins, stands behind one of the most enduring healing traditions in all of Christendom. In the holy name of St. Blaise, the patron saint of sufferers of throat diseases, two candles are crossed, X-shaped, and pressed against the neck of believers to ward off and cure diseases of the throat. Traditionally, this is done in procession on or near February 3rd, St. Blaise's feast day. Believers wait in line and move forward, step by step, to the priest or deacon holding those X-shaped candles, praying for health or healing through the intercession of St. Blaise.

Details of Saint Blaise's life are difficult to verify. Some traditions, dating from centuries after he lived, state that he was a bishop in Armenia, east of modern-day Turkey. His reputation for holiness drew people to him in search of a cure for their infirmities. It is said that Blaise was tortured and murdered in an anti-Christian persecution. The life of Saint Blaise and the tradition of throat healing that still surrounds him tell us that holy lives have power. His life tells us that holy people intercede for others in need.

Whether through the skilled hands of a surgeon, the chemicals of a drug, or the intercession of a saint like St. Blaise, healing comes and health prevails. The many channels branch out from the ultimate holy Source, our loving, merciful and almighty God. Believers, when fragile and afraid, patiently sit in the doctor's office, wait at the pharmacy counter for the prescription to be filled, follow doctor's orders, or line up in Church for the crossed candles to rest softly on their clavicles. Healing is on offer, and believers confidently pray for sacred intervention, and gratefully welcome and revere that healing however and whenever God grants it in accordance with His mercy, love, wisdom and power.

NO GREATER LOVE is a five-part Bible study program that will begin in March. The study will be given at two different times and you can come to either class.

HOLY HOUR OF INTERCESSION

Praying for our Youth and Young Adults

After 8:30AM Mass at Assumption Church

Third Mondays of the Month

Next Holy Hour: February 16

Camden Diocese Youth and Young Adults Office has requested Intercessory Prayer for our Youth.

With so many distractions and temptations negatively affecting the mind, body, soul and spirit of our Youth, let us pray for healthy interactions and correct moral values in their lives.

MEN'S PRAYER GROUP

MEN OF THE CATHOLIC FAITH ~

Our Parish has an active and vibrant men's group exploring issues, as Catholic men are confronted with and need to address. Our mission is to defend the Roman Catholic faith, sacraments, saints, and traditions. We pray the rosary as a group. We deepen our knowledge of Catholicism, from scripture, guest speakers, and Catholic teachings. We are helping hands to the Parish.

Our Motto from Proverbs 27:17 is "iron sharpens iron and man sharpens the countenance of his friend."

"For I was hungry and you gave me food..."

Thank You from Lazarus House Emergency Food Pantry

On behalf of our 75 volunteers and the thousands of guests we serve annually (17,666 guests in 2025), thank you for the tremendous outpouring of donations including groceries, turkeys, hams, personal care items and financial support during the holiday season and the recent period of government cut-backs in the SNAP program, FEMA grants and other forms of personal and family assistance.

Thank you also to our tremendous business community and civic and fraternal organizations for their outstanding support with numerous pop-up food drives throughout the Wildwoods and generous financial support.

Thank you to all the schools for their overwhelming food collections, as well as all the church congregations and Beth Judah Temple, who supported Lazarus House thereby allowing us to keep our shelves full in order to fulfill our mission, to feed the hungry.

At Lazarus House, we believe in miracles and see miracles happening every day. These miracles would not be possible, without miracle workers like you!

With heartfelt appreciation,

Frank Stone
Director

Wildwood Catholic Academy

PreK to 12th Grade 609-522-7257

On Sunday, February 1, you will see Wildwood Catholic Academy students serving as lectors, singers, and also greeters at the 10:30 Mass. Their presence is a joyful reminder of why we do what we do. At Wildwood Catholic Academy, we don't just teach subjects; we teach the whole person.

We know that choosing a Catholic education today requires a different path. It requires sacrifice—from parents who prioritize tuition, from teachers who view their work as a ministry, and from parishioners who support us. Today, we celebrate that sacrifice. It is what allows us to offer an environment where prayer is as natural as recess, and where students are known by name and loved by God. Thank you for welcoming us today and for helping us keep the light of faith burning bright in North Wildwood.
